INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate sheets should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark.

AFFIDAVIT TO THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Bantsemon Kenoko Master of the S.S. "Hikawa Maru", from Kobe, Japan, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel spelling phonetically, to the surgeon named in the manifest on the reverse hereof, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the said manifest, and that the said surgeon has certified to me in writing that each of the said aliens has been by him so examined, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own observation I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by the said Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, each of said aliens is in possession of a valid passport duly viséed by the proper consular officer of the United States, and that the information in said lists or manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

Master

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1921, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Immigration Officer.

Chinese to report here this morning at 10 o'clock for further examination.

Column 5 (Head-tax status).—Alongside lines should make no entries in this column. The piece to be used to determine head-tax status only.

Column 6 (Age).—The words in this column should be expressed in years of months, the latter after a decimal point, thus: 1.6 means 1 year 6 mos.

Column 7 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 8 (Nation or race).—The entry should be E (female) or M (male).

NOTE.—Full text of section 38 is as follows: Whoever a person who] before or at any time prior to the examination of his application for admission to the United States, or who subsequent to landing at the port of entry and prior to the expiration of three years subsequent to such landing, shall advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any agency thereof, or of any person or persons because of his or their official character.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING ALIEN MANIFESTS

ITALIAN (NORTH).

The people who are native to the land of the River Po in northern Italy (i.e., comprehending Piedmont, Lombardy, Venetia, and that district generally which lies between the Apennines and the Alps); or who have emigrated from those people about a Celtic dialect of the Italian language.

ITALIAN (SOUTH).

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the parts of the River Po (i.e., comprehending Piedmont, Lombardy, Venetia, and that district generally which lies between the Apennines and the Alps); or who have emigrated from those people about a Celtic dialect of the Italian language.

Column 1 (Name).—Family name first, then given names in full, as Smith, John; Jones, Thomas Henry; Robinson, Mary Ann. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Dr., Rev., should not be given. Initials should not be used except when they are part of the name as usually written. Names should be written exactly as spelled in the language of the country from which the alien comes.

Column 2 (Age).—Age last birthday. If under 1 year, write number of months, as "6 mos." or "11 mos."

Column 3 (Sex).—Write "male" or "female," or "M." or "F."

Column 4 (Married or single).—Write "married" or "single," or "M." or "S."

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The law described below is framed to prevent an unjust claim advanced by the Department and to keep its officers in the investigation thereof from being compelled on such cases against the master, owner, agent, or charterer of a vessel to pay the fees of witnesses in attendance upon the hearing. The law is as follows:

"And be it further enacted, That no fees shall be charged by the masters of vessels for the discharge of seamen or seamen's wages, or for any certificate or other paper granted to any seaman, or for any service performed by the master in connection therewith, nor shall the payment of such fees be a condition precedent to the discharge of any seaman, or to the granting to him of any certificate or other paper; and any master who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense."

The law described below should be made on the manifest:

SEC. 33. That no writing of any vessel in the United States under any foreign flag or flags it shall be the duty of the owner, master, consignee, or shipper thereof to deliver to the boarding officer who may go on board of such vessel while she lies in port, or within twenty-four hours after her arrival at such port, a manifest, which shall be signed by the master and owner, or consignee, if required by the boarding officer, and shall show the name, nationality, and tonnage of the vessel, the name of each person on board, including passengers, and the voyage, and such other information relative to the vessel, her cargo, crew, and passengers as may be required by the boarding officer. Any master who shall refuse to deliver such manifest, or who shall knowingly or willfully report falsely or fraudulently in any material respect any of the matters required to be reported, or who shall refuse to answer truly any question put to him by the boarding officer concerning the vessel, her cargo, crew, and passengers, or any of them, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and in addition, if the vessel is owned in whole or in part by the master, she shall be forfeited to the United States; and any person who shall knowingly aid or abet the master in any such violation shall be punished by a like fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court. Provided, That the master of any vessel not required by law to enter or clear at the office of a collector of customs shall not be liable to the penalties provided in this section if he shall report the manifest required by this section to the boarding officer at the first port of entry of the vessel in the United States, and before any of the cargo shall be discharged therefrom: Provided further

The list of races or peoples prepared on blank forms approved by the Department must be kept conspicuously posted in the immigrant station maintained by the master at the port of entry, and a copy thereof must be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of entry. The list of races or peoples is to be used in connection with the physical and mental examination of all immigrants, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing any immigrant who may be excluded from admission to the United States under the provisions of the immigration laws, or who belongs to a race or people excluded from admission thereunder, may also be subjected to the penalties prescribed by the immigration laws for the violation thereof.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry lists or manifests of all aliens on board such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be prepared at such time before the departure of such vessel from such foreign port or place as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, and shall be in such form and contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as the Commissioner General of Immigration may prescribe. Such lists or manifests shall be subject to the inspection of such immigrant inspector at all times until the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, and shall be preserved by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel for a period of three years after the date of the last entry appearing on such list or manifest. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver such lists or manifests, or to permit such inspector to make such examination, or to furnish such additional information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, shall pay to the United States the sum of $300 for each alien concerning whom such information is required and not furnished, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance papers may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

That the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, may from time to time establish such additional rules and regulations as may be necessary for the efficient administration and enforcement of the provisions of this section, and may employ such additional inspectors at such ports of entry as may be necessary to secure the prompt inspection of all aliens entitled to be inspected thereat.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry lists or manifests of all aliens on board such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be prepared at such time before the departure of such vessel from such foreign port or place as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, and shall be in such form and contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as the Commissioner General of Immigration may prescribe. Such lists or manifests shall be subject to the inspection of such immigrant inspector at all times until the departure of such vessel from the port of entry, and shall be preserved by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel for a period of three years after the date of the last entry appearing on such list or manifest. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver such lists or manifests, or to permit such inspector to make such examination, or to furnish such additional information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, shall pay to the United States the sum of $300 for each alien concerning whom such information is required and not furnished, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance papers may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

Par. 8. (Clearance shall not be granted via coast until the fees required by Section 32 have been furnished, and not then unless boats of the vessel are sufficient to transport the passengers and crew to the vessel in safety.)

Intimate to the administrative officers interested by such action or to that interested by section 32 hereof, the order directing it into effect.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman admitted into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who refuses when required by the master, owner, consignee, or agent of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof to perform any duty which he is required to perform on board such vessel, or who is absent from such vessel without leave from the master, owner, consignee, or agent of such vessel at the time of departure of such vessel from any port in the United States, unless such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he had reasonable cause for such refusal or absence, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917, as amended by section 6 of the immigration act of 1921, and such deportation shall be a charge against the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall desert any vessel in the United States shall be deported as provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917, as amended by section 6 of the immigration act of 1921, and such deportation shall be a charge against the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall desert any vessel in the United States shall be deported as provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917, as amended by section 6 of the immigration act of 1921, and such deportation shall be a charge against the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall decide that deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the treatment to which he would be subjected upon such vessel, or by reason of the character of the vessel on which he is required to proceed, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien seaman to be taken from such vessel and to be detained at such port or place in the United States as he may deem necessary pending the departure of another vessel to the country to which such alien seaman is entitled to be deported, or to the country in which such alien seaman shipped, or to the country in which he resided, which vessel shall be as promptly as possible, and the cost of such detention and deportation shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(b) Section 19 of the immigration act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all seamen, arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this act.

(Act 44-6)

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list contained below shall be inserted on board the vessel by the Department and by reason of the fact it contains the names of all races and peoples it cannot be altered in any way. Any person who shall remove, deface, or destroy this list or any part thereof, or who shall refuse to permit any officer of the United States Government to inspect the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That no alien shall enter the United States from any foreign port or place in which the yellow or the cholera, typhus, or smallpox diseases exist, unless he shall be in possession of a valid passport viséed by the American consular officer at the place of his departure, or other authorized officer, and by the proper officer of the country to which the port belongs, if any there be, and unless he shall be in possession of a certificate from a medical officer of the United States of examination and freedom from the said diseases at the port of departure, which certificate shall be viséed by the said consular officer, if there be one at said port, and if there be none, then by the consular officer of the United States at the nearest port. The medical officer shall certify to the facts of the examination of such alien before sailing, and shall indicate in such certificate whether such alien is coming to the United States temporarily or permanently and whether he is destitute or not destitute, and whether he is going to join relatives, and if so, what relatives, and their names and addresses, and whether he is going in search of employment, and if so, what the prospects are for obtaining the same, and the amount of money in possession of such alien, and whether he has been previously in the United States, and if so, how often and when and how long he remained on each occasion, and whether he has been in prison or almshouse or an institution for the care of the insane or supported by charity, and whether he is a polygamist, and whether he is coming in pursuance of a previously existing contract to labor in the United States, and if so, what the said contract is, and whether he has a ticket through to the place to which he is destined or has sufficient money to pay his way, and how much he has, and whether he has been deported before, and if so, what the cause was. Such certificate, duplicate thereof, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence in any proceeding before any board of special inquiry or before any court. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the master, assigned by section 25 hereof, has been issued a license, and the vessel has been duly inspected, and found to be in all respects safe and suitable for the service in which she is engaged, and has on board the equipment required by law and by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, and the inspection certificate issued, and the owner, agent, master, or other person authorized by him has filed a sworn statement that the vessel has on board the number of lifeboats required by law, and that they are provided with the oars, rowlocks, boat hooks, and other equipment required by law, and that the vessel has on board the life preservers, life buoys, and other life-saving apparatus required by law, and that all of said equipment is in the vessel and available for use, and that the vessel has not left port since the inspection of said equipment, and that the vessel is seaworthy and in every way fit for the service in which she is engaged.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman employed upon a vessel touching at any port of the United States shall be permitted to land temporarily unless such alien seaman shall establish to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge of the port that he is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be the basis for the exclusion of such alien from the United States. Such immigration officer may require such alien seaman to be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service. Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported to the country to which his vessel belongs, unless the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall give a bond in the sum of $500 for each such alien seaman, conditioned upon the return of such alien seaman on board such vessel when she departs from such port, or upon the payment of a tax of $500 for each such alien seaman. Such tax shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be collected by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such port is located. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section in favor of any alien seaman employed on board any vessel which shall touch at ports of the United States solely for the purpose of taking on board seamen for the purpose of replacing alien seamen who have been left behind in foreign ports or have died on board such vessel, and may, in his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, permit any alien seaman employed on board any vessel touching at ports of the United States to land temporarily without being required to furnish a bond as provided for herein, but no such alien seaman shall be allowed to land unless a bond is furnished as provided for in the case of alien seamen employed on board vessels touching only at ports of the United States.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States intends to enter the United States unlawfully or to remain therein unlawfully for a period longer than that permitted him at the time of his entry, the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall, upon demand of the Secretary of Labor, or any immigration officer, take such alien seaman on board such vessel and remove him to the country to which such vessel belongs, or to the country from which such alien seaman came to the United States, or to any country which may be designated by such alien seaman which will receive him, and the cost of such removal shall be borne by such master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to remove any alien seaman as required by this section shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien seaman, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty or while the same remains unpaid, and no such vessel shall have the right to carry away any alien seaman employed thereon who has been required by the Secretary of Labor to remain in the United States for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any of the provisions of this section, without the consent of the Secretary of Labor.

(b) If any alien seaman shall desert any vessel in which he arrived in the United States or shall remain in the United States in excess of the period for which he was granted permission to land temporarily, the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall be liable to the tax imposed by section 2 of the immigration act of 1917 to the same extent as if such alien seaman had been brought to the United States by such vessel, and such tax may be collected by libel in rem against such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deterioration of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived and which is about to depart from the United States in violation of this section is due to failure of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel to furnish proper provisions, he may withhold clearance of such vessel pending such time as he may deem sufficient for the purpose of improving the quality of the provisions furnished.

(d) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to amend, modify, or repeal any of the provisions of section 18 of the immigration act of 1917 or section 3 of the act of March 4, 1915, entitled "An act to promote the welfare of American seamen in the foreign trade of the United States, to abolish arrest and imprisonment as a penalty in the collection of wages in the merchant marine of the United States, and to promote the welfare of American seamen in the merchant marine of the United States, and for other purposes," as amended by section 4 of the act of March 4, 1923, entitled "An act to amend section 4 of the act entitled 'An act to promote the welfare of American seamen in the merchant marine of the United States,' approved March 4, 1915, and for other purposes."

(e) This section shall be enforced under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and any person who violates any of the provisions of this section or any such rules and regulations shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(f) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to amend, modify, or repeal any of the provisions of the act entitled "An act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States," approved February 5, 1917, except as to seamen, anything in the United States laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

(g) This section shall take effect thirty days after the approval hereof.

The list described before shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival not more than 24 hours before the departure of the vessel at the port of arrival; and there shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the number of copies of the list required by the regulations. Such list shall be verified by the oath of the master or the purser of the vessel or some other officer having knowledge of the facts, and shall be in the following form, or in a form containing substantially the same information:

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names in full of all the passengers who have been taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, the age, sex, calling, and nationality of each, whether married or single, the name and place of residence of each if known to the master, consignee, agent, owner, or charterer of the vessel, the final destination of each passenger, whether he has a ticket through to such destination or not, whether such passenger has paid his own passage or has had it paid by other persons or by the government or state, whether in possession of money, and how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, and their names and complete addresses, whether the passenger has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how often, whether going to a position to work when such position has been promised, and if so, what position, whether the passage was paid by such position, whether the passenger has been deported or excluded from the United States, and if so, why, whether the passenger is coming under contract, express or implied, to labor in the United States, whether the passenger is an agriculturist, laborer, mechanic, or professional person, and such other facts or particulars in regard to each passenger and the vessel as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The lists required by this section shall be signed by the master or purser of the vessel, and verified by him under oath in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master or purser who refuses to deliver such lists, or who, when delivering such lists, willfully omits to state therein any matter or thing required by this section to be stated, or who makes any false statement in such lists, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense.

SEC. 18. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names in full of all the passengers who have been taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, the age, sex, calling, and nationality of each, whether married or single, the name and place of residence of each if known to the master, consignee, agent, owner, or charterer of the vessel, the final destination of each passenger, whether he has a ticket through to such destination or not, whether such passenger has paid his own passage or has had it paid by other persons or by the government or state, whether in possession of money, and how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, and their names and complete addresses, whether the passenger has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how often, whether going to a position to work when such position has been promised, and if so, what position, whether the passage was paid by such position, whether the passenger has been deported or excluded from the United States, and if so, why, whether the passenger is coming under contract, express or implied, to labor in the United States, whether the passenger is an agriculturist, laborer, mechanic, or professional person, and such other facts or particulars in regard to each passenger and the vessel as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The lists required by this section shall be signed by the master or purser of the vessel, and verified by him under oath in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master or purser who refuses to deliver such lists, or who, when delivering such lists, willfully omits to state therein any matter or thing required by this section to be stated, or who makes any false statement in such lists, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense and by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

The list described before shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival not more than 24 hours before the departure of the vessel. The list or manifest required by this section shall not be required to be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival if the vessel shall depart from a port within the United States before the departure of the vessel from the foreign port, and in such case the master shall deliver the list required by this section to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port where the vessel shall first arrive after departing from a foreign port.

Any departure may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

Any clearance shall not be granted while any vessel liable for tax imposed by section 38 remains unpaid: but shall upon such tax be granted: Provided, that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of the amount of such tax, and in the event such tax is imposed, while it remains unpaid; and upon the collection of the tax the deposit so made shall be refunded.

Application to the administrative tax prescribed by this section or to that prescribed by section 38 hereof need not be made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof on board such vessel, or employed on board any vessel clearing therefrom for any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty or for such time as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe in order to secure the safety of the vessel with respect to which he arrived, or pending the departure of such vessel or pending the arrival and departure of another vessel which has agreed to take him on board and which is scheduled to depart within a period of time deemed reasonable by the Secretary of Labor, but in no case for more than five days, unless in the meantime he has been regularly admitted to the United States in accordance with the immigration laws. Any such alien seaman who is not so admitted to the United States shall be deported in pursuance of the law, and the cost of his maintenance while on shore pending his deportation shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported at any time within five years after such landing upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor without the necessity of a hearing before a board of special inquiry, unless the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien arrived shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien had been granted shore leave temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and had returned to the vessel in accordance therewith at the time of departure from such port, or that such alien had been prevented from returning to the vessel on board which he arrived by sickness or injury or other cause beyond his control, which sickness, injury, or other cause was not due to his own culpable negligence, and that such alien has been deported at the first opportunity on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board some other vessel or otherwise at the expense of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien arrived. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported at any time within five years after such landing upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor without the necessity of a hearing before a board of special inquiry, unless the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien arrived shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien had been granted shore leave temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and had returned to the vessel in accordance therewith at the time of departure from such port, or that such alien had been prevented from returning to the vessel on board which he arrived by sickness or injury or other cause beyond his control, which sickness, injury, or other cause was not due to his own culpable negligence, and that such alien has been deported at the first opportunity on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board some other vessel or otherwise at the expense of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien arrived. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported at any time within five years after such landing upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor without the necessity of a hearing before a board of special inquiry, unless the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien arrived shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien had been granted shore leave temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and had returned to the vessel in accordance therewith at the time of departure from such port, or that such alien had been prevented from returning to the vessel on board which he arrived by sickness or injury or other cause beyond his control, which sickness, injury, or other cause was not due to his own culpable negligence, and that such alien has been deported at the first opportunity on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board some other vessel or otherwise at the expense of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien arrived.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived or on another vessel will not be practicable or will be unreasonably delayed, or that the cost of maintaining such alien seaman pending deportation will be unreasonably great, he may cause such alien seaman to be deported on any vessel or other conveyance leaving the United States, and the cost of maintaining such alien seaman pending deportation and of deportation shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(d) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, masters, and as to all actions and liabilities under the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 36. That every alien now or hereafter admitted to the United States from any foreign port or place is shall be the duty, at the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place in which such alien may be, or to which he may go, to report the number of aliens on board such vessel, whether they have been inspected by the proper immigration officer at the port of entry or not, and such other facts regarding them as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, under the direction of the Secretary of Labor, and to detain such aliens on board or at the immigration station at such port of entry as may be designated by the Commissioner General of Immigration until a certificate is granted by the proper immigration officer at the port of entry or the Commissioner General of Immigration that such alien may land in the United States, or until such alien is otherwise removed from such vessel or granted a temporary permit to land as provided in this Act, and to take such alien on board the vessel or other transportation on which he arrived to the port from which he came, or to such other port in foreign territory as may be designated by the Commissioner General of Immigration, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and the cost of such detention and removal shall be a lien against such vessel, which may be enforced as provided in section 4 hereof; and it shall be unlawful for the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel to refuse to comply with the provisions of this section or with any rule or order made pursuant thereto, and any such master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to comply with any such provision or rule or order shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien in respect to which such violation occurs: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such head tax and expenses as may be required for the detention of such alien, such sum to be returned upon the payment of such tax or expenses or the failure of such alien to become a public charge, and the remainder, if any, after the payment of such tax or expenses shall be returned to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel upon the departure of such alien from the United States: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such head tax and expenses in the case of (1) any alien who has been in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another and has a through ticket and is in possession of a ticket or passage for a country adjoining the United States on which he is destined, and (2) any alien who has been in the United States as a member of the crew of a vessel arriving at a port of the United States and who is employed as a member of the crew of a vessel departing from a port of the United States, if such alien is in possession of a ticket or passage for a country adjoining the United States to which he is destined and on which he intends to depart as a member of the crew of a vessel: And provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such head tax and expenses in the case of any alien concerning whom a writ of review has been allowed under section 25 of this Act, and such alien may be detained in the United States until final determination of such review: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such head tax and expenses in the case of any alien who has been certified under the provisions of section 19 of this Act, and such alien may be detained in the United States until final determination of such appeal.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted via a coast until the head tax imposed by section 36 thereof has been collected at such port, the deposit thereof in lieu of the payment of such head tax has been authorized by section 36 thereof, or the case has been otherwise provided for by law.

Applies to the administrative and prosecuted by said section or to that prosecuted by section 36 thereof has been waived, the deposit thereof in lieu of the payment of such head tax has been authorized by section 36 thereof, or the case has been otherwise provided for by law.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for the ultimate purpose, to such port where such vessel is required by the immigration laws to be inspected by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, and then only under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration.

SEC. 30. If the master, chartered agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory or adjacent islands shall fail to comply with the immigration laws in the case of any alien seaman employed on board such vessel, or to detain on board or at the immigration station at the port of arrival any such seaman when required so to do by the Commissioner General of Immigration, or who shall fail to report the illness or hospital treatment of any alien seaman as required by the immigration laws, or who shall fail to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of the alien seamen employed on board such vessel, or who shall refuse to permit any immigrant officer to go on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the crew list or the shipping articles relating to the alien seamen employed on board, or who shall refuse to make such report, deliver such list, or permit such inspection, or who shall violate any provision of the immigration laws relating to alien seamen, for each such offense such master, chartered agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect to whom such violation occurs, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such sum, or while the payment thereof is delayed by an appeal, or while such sum remains unpaid, or while any such alien seaman remains on board without the permission of the immigration officials, and the payment of such sum and the right to go and remain on board shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced as provided in section 4 hereof; and it shall be unlawful for any such vessel to depart from any port of the United States while any such sum remains unpaid, or while any such alien seaman remains on board without the permission of the immigration officials, and any such master, chartered agent, consignee, or owner who shall refuse to pay any such sum when due, or who shall violate any provision of this section, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, for which sum such vessel shall also be liable.

(b) Every alien seaman shall be examined before being admitted to the United States, and no alien seaman shall be admitted to the United States unless upon such examination he establishes to the satisfaction of the immigration officials that he is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be sufficient to exclude him from admission to the United States under the immigration laws: Provided, That in the case of any alien seaman who has been certified under the provisions of section 19 of this Act, and such alien may be detained in the United States until final determination of such appeal.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory or adjacent islands would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason of the length of time he has resided in the United States, the character of his residence here, and the existence of family ties here, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien seaman to be transported to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or denizen, or to the country in which he resided before coming to the United States, at the option of the alien seaman, instead of deporting him on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, and the cost of such transportation shall be borne by the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(d) Section 33 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all seamen, finally ordered deported under said section prior to the enactment of this Act.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Buntaemon Kaneko, Master of the S.S. Miike Maru do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, provided in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the United States Immigration Law, and of paragraph 2, subdivision (d), Immigration Rule 6, under which officers below.

The list designated below shall be prepared on blank forms obtained by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and shall be so delivered to the master of the vessel at the port of entry, before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers. The master of the vessel shall be required to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of departure a correct list of all aliens on board the vessel, which list shall be verified by the manifest of the vessel. A fee of 50 cents shall be charged for each list delivered to the master of the vessel at the port of departure, and no clearance papers shall be granted by the collector of customs to the vessel on which the list is required by law to be delivered until the fee is paid. Such fee shall be paid to the collector of customs, and by him accounted for as a part of the head tax provided for by section 2 of the act of March 3, 1903. Any master of a vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such list, or who delivers a false list, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. (Act Feb. 20, 1907, sec. 34.)

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival manifests containing the names of all aliens embarked on such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and destination of each such alien, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens who have been discovered on board such vessel after the delivery of the manifests and the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port, and such list shall be delivered before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver the manifests or lists required by this section, or who shall deliver false manifests or lists, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. (Act Feb. 20, 1907, sec. 34.)

SEC. 3. That the following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States: All aliens over sixteen years of age, physically capable of reading, who can not read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish: Provided, That any admissible alien or any alien who has been admitted who, within three years subsequent to his entry, shall become a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his entry shall be deported as provided by law: Provided further, That nothing in this act shall exclude, if otherwise admissible, any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who returns after a temporary visit abroad; any alien who is the father or grandfather of a citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age and who has resided in the United States for five years; any alien who is the husband or wife of a citizen of the United States; any alien who is a bona fide student at any recognized school; any alien who is a professional actor, artist, lecturer, singer, nurse, or minister of any religious denomination; any alien who is an author of any book, or who is a member of any recognized learned profession, or who has followed the vocation of a farmer either on his own account or as an employee for at least two years next preceding his application for admission to the United States; any alien who has resided two years next preceding his application for admission to the United States in the employment of a steamship company on the transportation of passengers between foreign ports and the United States; any alien who is a skilled agriculturist or farm laborer, over sixteen and under thirty years of age, who is coming to the United States to engage in farming and who has sufficient money to purchase a tract of land and stock and implements sufficient to cultivate the same; any alien who is a member of a race which has a recognized affinity with the agricultural people of Europe, who is coming to the United States to engage in farming and who has sufficient money to purchase a tract of land and stock and implements sufficient to cultivate the same; any alien who is a bona fide settler who has previously been admitted to the United States and who returns after a visit to his former home for the purpose of bringing his wife or minor children; any alien who is a woman or girl coming to the United States to marry a citizen thereof; any alien who is a minor child coming to the United States to be adopted by a citizen thereof who shall have filed a petition for such adoption and who shall have resided in the United States for at least one year subsequent to the filing of such petition and who shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States

The list described before shall be furnished on blank forms addressed by the Department and to consist for deliveries to the immigration officials of the port of entry [the name of the port to be stated] and for the guidance of masters in preparing the lists required by section 2 of the Act of March 3, 1903, as amended by the Act of February 20, 1907, the following rules are prescribed:

(1) The name of each alien who is in possession of a ticket or has the means of procuring one, whether he intends to land at the port of entry or to proceed in transit through the United States to some foreign country, and of each alien who is in possession of a ticket or has the means of procuring one, reading to a point within the United States, whether he intends to land at such point or to proceed in transit through the United States to some foreign country, must be entered on the list. If there are no such aliens on board, that fact must be stated on the first line of the list.

(2) The surname and the given name or names of each alien must be entered in full.

(3) The age of each alien must be entered in full. Infants must be returned as of their age in years, or fractions of a year, if less than 1 year old. For example, a child 6 months old should be returned as "6 months," a child 2 months old as "2 months," etc.

(4) The sex of each alien must be indicated by the use of the word "male" or "female," or the letter "M" or "F," in the proper column.

(5) The married or single condition of each alien must be indicated by the use of the word "married" or "single," or the letter "M" or "S," in the proper column. Only such persons as are married according to the laws of the country in which the ceremony was performed should be returned as married.

(6) The calling or occupation of each alien must be stated. If he has no calling or occupation, a blank line must be inserted. The following are examples of callings or occupations properly returnable: Actor, agriculturist, architect, artist, author, baker, barber, blacksmith, bookbinder, brewer, butcher, cabinetmaker, carpenter, chemist, civil engineer, clergyman, clerk, cook, dentist, designer, doctor, draper, dressmaker, driver, electrician, engineer, engraver, farmer, fireman, fisherman, gardener, glassblower, hatter, horseshoer, housekeeper, jeweler, laborer, lawyer, locksmith, machinist, manufacturer, mason, merchant, miller, miner, moulder, musician, nurse, painter, peddler, photographer, physician, pilot, plasterer, plumber, porter, potter, salesman, sculptor, seamstress, servant, shoemaker, silversmith, soldier, stonecutter, surveyor, tailor, teacher, tinsmith, tobacco worker, turner, weaver, wheelwright, wood worker. Such terms as "laborer," "servant," "clerk," "manufacturer," "agent," "gentleman," "lady," "boy," "girl," "child," "baby," "invalid," "cripple," "idiot," "imbecile," "pauper," "convict," "none," and the like, are wholly insufficient and must not be used.

(7) The last residence of each alien must be stated. If in the United States, the city, town, or village, and State must be given. If in a foreign country, the country must be given.

(8) The final destination of each alien must be stated. If in the United States, the city, town, or village, and State must be given. If in a foreign country, the country must be given.

(9) Whether each alien has a ticket through to his final destination must be stated.

(10) Whether each alien has been assisted to come, and if so, by whom, must be stated.

(11) Whether each alien has the price of his passage and how much he has, whether in his own possession or that of others, must be stated.

(12) Whether each alien is going to join a relative or friend, and if so, which relative or friend, and his name and complete address, must be stated.

SEC. 36. That it is unlawful to pay, advance, or agree to pay or advance, directly or indirectly, to any person, company, or corporation, for the purpose of bringing aliens into the United States, any head tax or other charge required by this Act to be paid by such aliens after they have been admitted to the United States, or to pay, advance, or agree to pay or advance, directly or indirectly, to any such alien, any part of such head tax or other charge. Any person, company, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Any alien who shall solicit or encourage, directly or indirectly, the importation or migration of any alien into the United States, unless such alien is entitled to enter the United States under an existing treaty of commerce, or who shall assist or encourage such importation or migration by giving or procuring to be given any information or advice concerning the same, or by paying the transportation of such alien, or by assisting him to prepare papers for such journey, or by providing him with means of conveyance, or by any other manner whatsoever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Any person, company, or corporation which shall bring into the United States any alien who has been arrested and deported in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, and who may return thereto within one year from the date of such deportation, unless prior to such return he shall obtain the consent of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission, shall pay all the expenses incurred in such arrest and deportation, which shall be a lien upon any property, real or personal, owned by such person, company, or corporation, and found within the United States, and in addition shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall think that deportation of any alien arrested under the provisions of this Act will not be practicable or convenient, or that such alien may be permitted to come into the United States or remain therein temporarily without detriment to the country for the period limited by law, he may, in his discretion, suspend the deportation of such alien, and may permit such alien to come into the United States or remain therein temporarily upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, but no such terms and conditions shall be modified or changed unless such modification is made upon the recommendation of the officials of the United States Government, if any, who made the original recommendation that the deportation of such alien be suspended. At any time during the period for which such alien is allowed to remain in the United States, his deportation may be directed by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(b) Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all cases [that] arising under such statutes, actions, and proceedings as are pending at the time of the passage of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the master deposits with the collector a list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel, which list shall be in addition to the crew list required by section 20 hereof, and shall contain the following information as to each person who may have been issued a certificate of identification by the Secretary of Labor, or concerning whom information is required by the immigration officials:

Name in full; age; sex; married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; last residence; seaport for landing in the United States; final destination, if known; whether having a ticket through to such destination; whether the transportation is paid for by himself or by others, and if by others, their relationship, if any, to the person assisted; whether in possession of $50 and, if less than that amount, how much; whether ever before in the United States, and, if so, when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or asylum, or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States; whether an anarchist; whether coming in pursuance of a prepaid railroad or steamship ticket or otherwise, and whether the whole or part of the passage money is furnished by the person himself or by others; whether ever deported; whether ever convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; whether coming by reason of advertisements for laborers posted or published in the United States; whether coming by reason of any promise of employment or labor in any way whatsoever; and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

Duplicates of the list or manifest required by section 20 hereof shall be delivered to the immigration officials at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman employed upon any vessel arriving at the United States shall be permitted to land at the United States seaport from which such vessel is to depart for a foreign port, unless such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge at such port that he is duly registered and has been examined as provided in this section, and has been found not to be afflicted with any contagious disease, and that he is in possession of a valid passport, visa, or other document as required by section 2 of this Act, or is a member of a class of aliens to whom the Secretary of Labor has issued a special permit authorizing them to land temporarily in the United States without passports or visas. Any alien seaman who lands in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, and shall be ineligible to become a citizen of the United States.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived at the United States will be prejudicial to the interests of the United States, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to remain in the United States for such time as he may consider necessary, and may prescribe the terms and conditions upon which such alien seaman may land temporarily or remain in the United States and the bond to be given by the master or owner of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived to guarantee the performance by such alien seaman of the terms and conditions prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all cases arising under such statutes, actions, and proceedings as are pending at the time of the passage of this Act.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, B.KANAKO, Master of the M.S."HIKAWA MARU", do declare that the foregoing is a full, true, and complete list, to the best of my knowledge and belief, of all the crew, prompt in full, passengers, and others taken on board this vessel at the port of Yokohama for the United States, and that the information required by section 2 of the Immigration Act of March 3, 1903, as amended by the Act of February 20, 1907, and by the instructions of the Secretary of Labor thereunder, has been given as to each person mentioned in the list, so far as the same can be ascertained by reasonable inquiry and examination of each alien.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this [illegible] day of February, 1928.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure of each vessel carrying passengers to the United States from any foreign port or from any port in the Canal Zone, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, the Philippine Islands, Guam, Tutuila, or Panama. The list is to contain the name of every alien who is destined to the United States and who is to be transported on the vessel, whether he is a cabin passenger or is in the steerage, and whether he is a citizen or subject of the country to which he belongs by birth or nationality or of some other country. Before the vessel leaves the port of departure the master shall sign the list and make oath before the immigrant inspector that it contains a full, correct, and true account of all such aliens who have been taken on board the vessel at that port or elsewhere, and that he will not land or permit to be landed any such alien from the vessel, except in case of distress, without the permission of the proper immigrant inspector, and that he will report and deliver a like list to the immigrant inspector at the first port in the United States at which the vessel shall arrive after any such alien shall have been taken on board, specifying in such list the name of every such alien who may have been landed or who may have died during the voyage, and the cause of death, and that he will not land or permit to be landed any such alien from the vessel at any port in the United States except in case of distress, without the permission of the proper immigrant inspector.

SEC. 36. That no alien shall be permitted to land from any foreign vessel at any port in the United States unless the master of such vessel shall have delivered to the proper immigrant inspector a list or manifest of all aliens on board such vessel who are destined to the United States, in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, containing such information as may be required by him as to the name, nationality, last residence, and destination of every such alien, and shall have subscribed and sworn to such list before the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered by the master of such vessel before the vessel shall be granted clearance from the last port at which it touches before coming to the United States, or, if the vessel has no clearance, then before the departure of such vessel for the United States from the port at which such vessel may be lying when bound for the United States. Such list or manifest shall be corrected to the time of the departure of the vessel from each port, by the addition of names of persons who have become entitled while en route to be included therein and who have been overlooked in the list or manifest required to be delivered before the departure from such port, and by the omission of the names of any persons who have died or who have been duly certified by the proper officer of the vessel as entitled to be landed at such port. Such list or manifest shall be subscribed and sworn to by the master of such vessel before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and the immigrant inspector may administer to the master the oath required and may take the master's affidavit in connection therewith. Such list or manifest shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and may be printed, lithographed, or otherwise reproduced, and additional copies thereof certified by the master of the vessel may be required by the immigrant inspector at the time of examination. Such list or manifest may include aliens destined to Canada or Mexico who are in transit through the United States, and the provisions of this section relating to the delivery, filing, and correction of lists or manifests of aliens destined to the United States shall apply to lists or manifests of aliens in transit through the United States.

SEC. 38. That no alien shall be permitted to enter the United States unless he shall be in possession of a valid passport, or such other document as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State under the provisions of section 4 of this Act, and a valid immigrant visa, if such visa is required under the provisions of section 3 of this Act, or under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of section 23 of this Act, except that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the right of any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad to his unrelinquished domicile, which he has not abandoned, or who is a bona fide resident of the United States and is returning from a visit abroad, or to affect the admission of any alien who is a seaman regularly employed as such on a vessel arriving at a port of the United States, or who is in transit through the United States, or who is a member of a class or kind to which the United States by treaty guarantees admission without passport, or who is a child born subsequent to the issuance of a passport granted to its parent or parents, which child is accompanying such parent or parents, or who is a person entitled to a nonquota immigrant visa as a preference quota immigrant under section 4 (a) (4) of this Act, or who is a person entitled to a nonquota immigrant visa as a returning former resident under section 4 (a) (5) of this Act, or who is a person entitled to a nonquota immigrant visa as a professor, or who is the wife or unmarried child under eighteen years of age of any such professor entitled to enter under section 4 (a) (6) of this Act, or who is a bona fide student entitled to a nonquota immigrant visa under section 4 (a) (7) of this Act, or who is the wife or unmarried child under eighteen years of age of any such student entitled to enter under section 4 (a) (7) of this Act, or who is a person entitled to enter the United States solely to carry on trade under and in pursuance of the provisions of a present existing treaty of commerce and navigation, or who is the wife or unmarried child under eighteen years of age of any such person entitled to enter under such treaty, or who is an official of a foreign government recognized de jure by the United States who is visiting the United States temporarily for official purposes, or who is the wife or unmarried child under eighteen years of age of any such official accompanying him or following to join him: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as excluding from admission to the United States any alien who is not subject to such documentary requirements by reason of existing treaties or agreements between the United States and foreign countries: Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to citizens of Cuba, Canada, Newfoundland, the Republic of Mexico, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Republic of Colombia, the Republic of Costa Rica, the Republic of Honduras, the Republic of Salvador, the Republic of Nicaragua, the Republic of Guatemala, the Republic of the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the islands adjacent to the United States, as defined by the President of the United States, unless it be subsequently determined by the Secretary of State, with the approval of the President, that the interests of the United States require the application of this section to such citizens, islands, or countries, or unless such citizens shall be otherwise specifically provided for in this Act: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of this section to aliens coming from countries contiguous to the United States, or islands adjacent thereto, when he shall deem such waiver to be consistent with the public interest: And provided further, That such aliens may be admitted for such period of time and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, irrespective of the provisions of section 4 of this Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. A alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board a vessel arriving at a port of the United States may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, be permitted to land temporarily and under bond, in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe, but not to be employed, to visit a hospital for medical treatment, or to obtain clothing needed immediately, to be specified in writing by the master, or for any other reason deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor, but such bond shall not be required of any alien seaman who is otherwise provided for by the master or owner of the vessel on which he arrived. Such bond may be furnished and any deposit required as a condition precedent to the granting of such permission may be made by the master or owner of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived, or by the steamship company operating such vessel, or by a recognized shipping agent. Such bond shall be canceled and any deposit refunded when the master certifies in writing that the alien seaman has left the United States on board the vessel on which he arrived or on another vessel, that he has been treated in a hospital, that he has been provided with clothing specified by the master, or that he has been otherwise provided for, as the case may be, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who shall depart from the United States otherwise than as provided in this section shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of alien seamen. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit or curtail the authority of the Secretary of Labor to permit the temporary landing of alien seamen in the United States for the purpose of medical treatment.

SEC. 20. That no alien, otherwise admissible under the provisions of this Act, who hereafter shall be excluded from admission into the United States by the immigration laws, or who hereafter shall be deported from the United States under any law, shall thereafter be admitted to the United States except upon the written consent of the Secretary of Labor and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien against whom a warrant of deportation has been issued by him has sought to enter the United States for the purpose of engaging in any activities prejudicial to the public interest or the public safety of the United States, such alien may be taken into custody and detained, under such warrant, for examination by the immigrant inspectors and the Secretary of Labor, for a period not exceed ten days, and pending the final determination of the case by the Secretary of Labor, but such alien shall be released from custody upon the execution by him of a bond in the sum of $1,000 with sufficient surety, conditioned upon the appearance of such alien before the immigrant inspectors and the Secretary of Labor at the time and place required by them. Pending examination by the immigrant inspectors or final determination by the Secretary of Labor, the alien may be required to report to the immigrant inspectors as frequently as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien against whom a warrant of deportation has been issued by him cannot be found within the United States, and that reasonable efforts have been made to locate him, and that he has neglected or refused to depart from the United States for a period of six months from the date of the warrant of deportation, or if, after his release on bond, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the alien has violated the conditions of the bond, the Secretary of Labor may cancel the bond and cause the arrest of such alien and his deportation in the manner provided in the case of aliens arrested during the first five years after their entry into the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be unable to procure the attendance before him of sufficient witnesses to enable him to determine whether a warrant of deportation should be issued against any alien, or if, after the issuance of such warrant, he shall be unable to procure sufficient evidence to warrant the deportation of such alien, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cancel such warrant of deportation and release such alien from custody without bond.

SEC. 21. That no alien seaman shall be granted a permit to land temporarily in the United States unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel in which such alien arrived shall have first filed a manifest of such alien with the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival and shall have given a bond to the United States in the sum of $500 for each such alien, conditioned that such alien will depart from the United States within such period as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding four months, and will not become a public charge, and that such master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser will deliver such alien to the proper immigrant inspector at the time and place of his departure, and will pay to the United States any expenses incurred in the maintenance, care, parole, or transportation of such alien, and also will pay a tax of $8 for each such alien so granted a permit to land temporarily, which tax shall be a lien upon the vessel, and shall be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel shall arrive before the vessel departs from the port. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the bond to be required or the tax to be collected in the case of any alien who is a bona fide resident of Canada, Newfoundland, Cuba, Mexico, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Republic of Colombia, the Republic of Costa Rica, the Republic of Honduras, the Republic of Salvador, the Republic of Nicaragua, the Republic of Guatemala, the Republic of the Philippine Islands, Guam, Tutuila, or Panama. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the Secretary of Labor to waive the payment of the tax in the case of any alien crewman employed on a vessel touching at ports of the United States and foreign ports contiguous thereto.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, B.Kaneko, Master of the "S.S.Hikawa Maru", do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, promptly in said vessel from any port or place during the present voyage. ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman employed upon any vessel arriving at the ports of the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid passport and a valid seaman's identity certificate issued by or under the authority of the country to which such vessel belongs, or such other country as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, or unless such alien seaman is in possession of a special permit issued by the Secretary of Labor or by some officer to whom he may delegate his power in the premises; and any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such passport and identity certificate, or special permit, if any, to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival of such vessel, or who shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board of such vessel for the purpose of examining such passports, certificates, or permits, or who shall refuse to detain on board thereof any alien seaman required by such inspector to be detained, or who shall refuse to assist such inspector in the examination of such seamen, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect to whom such violation occurs. The master of such vessel shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all such alien seamen while in port, and for their removal on board such vessel when she departs from port, and for the payment of the cost of their maintenance while in port and of their passage to the country to which they belong, or such other country as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, or to the immigrant station if one exists at the port of departure. Such cost of maintenance and passage shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel or other appropriate process in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any such vessel upon which there is employed any alien seaman who has been refused a landing permit, but such refusal shall not prejudice the granting of clearance after the departure of such seaman. Any seaman employed on any vessel arriving at the ports of the United States who shall desert while in port shall be deported at any time within five years after such desertion to the country to which he belongs, or such other country as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall desert while in port shall be deported at any time within five years after such desertion to the country to which he belongs, or such other country as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deficiencies of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such deficiencies are supplied, unless the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the vessel was unable to secure a full complement of alien seamen in the ports from which she sailed, or that the vessel sailed from such ports with a full complement of alien seamen and the shortage has arisen after departure from such ports

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of destination before the vessel shall be admitted to entry. The list is to consist of eight columns, the first column to be headed "No." and to contain the number of each alien on the list, the second column to be headed "Name in full" and to contain the name of each alien in the list, the third column to be headed "Age" and to contain the age of each alien in the list, the fourth column to be headed "Sex" and to contain a statement of the sex of each alien in the list, the fifth column to be headed "Married or single" and to contain a statement of whether each alien in the list is married or single, the sixth column to be headed "Calling or occupation" and to contain a statement of the calling or occupation of each alien in the list, the seventh column to be headed "Nationality" and to contain a statement of the nationality of each alien in the list, and the eighth column to be headed "Nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came" and to contain a statement of the name and complete address of the nearest relative or friend of each alien in the list in the country from which he came.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or ports it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge thereof to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of entry lists containing the names of all aliens who have been taken on board at any foreign port or place, and intend to land in the United States or in any territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, and the immediate destination and the final destination, if known, of each such alien. Such lists shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the efficient administration of the immigration laws. Such lists shall be subject to such verification and such additions at the port of entry as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to deliver such lists to the immigration officer at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of entry, or who refuses to allow such officer to come on board the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge any question touching the information required concerning each alien, or who refuses or neglects to detain on board any alien whose detention is required by the immigration officer at the port of entry, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the port from which such vessel is about to depart for a foreign port or place until the master thereof shall have delivered to the immigration officer at the port of departure a true list of all aliens on board such vessel who have been inspected by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, with the additions and changes, if any, made at the time of inspection, and certified to the correctness of such list by his signature thereto. Such list shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the efficient administration of the immigration laws. Such list shall be subject to such verification and such additions at the port of departure as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to deliver such list to the immigration officer at the time of departure of the vessel from the port, or who refuses to allow such officer to come on board the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge any question touching the information required concerning each alien, or who refuses or neglects to detain on board any alien whose detention is required by the immigration officer at the port of departure, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the port from which such vessel is about to depart for a foreign port or place until the master thereof shall have delivered to the immigration officer at the port of departure a true list of all aliens on board such vessel who have been inspected by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, with the additions and changes, if any, made at the time of inspection, and certified to the correctness of such list by his signature thereto. Such list shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the efficient administration of the immigration laws. Such list shall be subject to such verification and such additions at the port of departure as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities described in subdivision (a) of section 3 of this Act, and that a certificate in respect thereof should be issued in the case of such alien, but that such disease, defect, or disability is not then known or discovered, or that for any reason a certificate should not then be issued in the case of such alien, the immigration officer at the port of arrival shall cause such alien to be detained on board such vessel or at such place designated by him until a certificate in respect of such alien shall have been issued or such vessel shall depart with such alien on board for a foreign port.

(c) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all cases, matters, and things to which such section is applicable under the provisions of section 19 of this Act.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or ports it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge thereof to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of entry lists containing the names of all aliens who have been taken on board at any foreign port or place, and intend to land in the United States or in any territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, and the immediate destination and the final destination, if known, of each such alien. Such lists shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the efficient administration of the immigration laws. Such lists shall be subject to such verification and such additions at the port of departure as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to deliver such lists to the immigration officer at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of entry, or who refuses to allow such officer to come on board the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge any question touching the information required concerning each alien, or who refuses or neglects to detain on board any alien whose detention is required by the immigration officer at the port of entry, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the port from which such vessel is about to depart for a foreign port or place until the master thereof shall have delivered to the immigration officer at the port of departure a true list of all aliens on board such vessel who have been inspected by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, with the additions and changes, if any, made at the time of inspection, and certified to the correctness of such list by his signature thereto. Such list shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each alien named therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the efficient administration of the immigration laws. Such list shall be subject to such verification and such additions at the port of departure as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities described in subdivision (a) of section 3 of this Act, and that a certificate in respect thereof should be issued in the case of such alien, but that such disease, defect, or disability is not then known or discovered, or that for any reason a certificate should not then be issued in the case of such alien, the immigration officer at the port of arrival shall cause such alien to be detained on board such vessel or at such place designated by him until a certificate in respect of such alien shall have been issued or such vessel shall depart with such alien on board for a foreign port or place.

(c) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all cases, matters, and things to which such section is applicable under the provisions of section 19 of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted via coast wise ports to any vessel which has been detained by Section 36, Immigration Act, 1917, for the reason that the master refuses to furnish information required by said section or to any vessel which has been libeled for violation of said section, unless the libel has been withdrawn or the vessel released by order of court, or unless the master has been granted a hearing by the Secretary of Labor and the detention ordered by him revoked.

That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman admitted into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid passport and an unexpired immigration visa, if such be required by the immigration laws in force at the time of his application for admission, or unless he is in possession of a special immigration visa: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, by such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, waive the requirements of this section with respect to aliens employed on vessels touching at ports of the United States solely for the purpose of taking on board seamen for vessels registered in, or sailing to, foreign ports.

SEC. 25. No alien, otherwise admissible, shall be refused a visa as a nonquota immigrant by reason of the provisions of section 2 of this Act if such alien is in possession of an unexpired immigration visa granted him prior to July 1, 1924, by a consular officer duly appointed and commissioned by the President, and such alien shall be admitted to the United States if otherwise admissible under the immigration laws.

SEC. 28. (a) The annual quota of any quota area for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the continental United States in 1920 having the national origins of such quota area bears to the number of inhabitants in the continental United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any quota area shall be one hundred.

(b) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of Labor shall each determine and certify to the Secretary of State the number of immigrants who may be issued immigration visas and the number who may be admitted to the United States under the quotas established by this section. The Secretary of State shall not issue immigration visas to immigrants chargeable to any quota area in excess of the number determined for such quota area, and the Secretary of Labor shall not admit to the United States immigrants chargeable to any quota area in excess of the number determined for such quota area.

(c) For the purpose of the computations required by this section, the Secretary of Labor shall certify to the Secretary of State the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of each quota area, as ascertained by the Department of Commerce from the records of the Census Office.

(d) As used in this section the term "quota area" means a country to which a quota is applicable, or any area or people not specifically limited by country.

SEC. 29. For the purpose of maintaining the status of a宗教 teacher, minister, professor, lecturer, singer, musician, actor, artist, lecturer, or author of recognized international reputation admitted to the United States as a nonquota immigrant under the provisions of section 4 of this Act, or as the wife or unmarried child under eighteen years of age of any such alien, accompanying or following to join him, such alien shall be considered to be seeking admission to the United States for permanent residence and shall be presumed to be an immigrant until he establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, or his duly authorized representative, that he is not ineligible to citizenship and that he is coming solely for the purpose of carrying on his vocation as a宗教 teacher, minister, professor, lecturer, singer, musician, actor, artist, lecturer, or author of recognized international reputation, and that his stay in the United States will be of a temporary nature: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to a person admitted as a nonquota immigrant who has resided continuously in the United States for two years after having been so admitted, or to the wife or unmarried child under eighteen years of age of any such person.

SEC. 30. That the number of immigrants who may be admitted under the provisions of section 3 of this Act to the United States from any country during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1924, shall be two per centum of the number of foreign-born individuals of such nationality resident in the United States as determined by the United States census of 1890, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 31. That for the purpose of this Act the following shall be considered as the United States: The States, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and the Canal Zone.

SEC. 32. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 33. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 34. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 35. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 36. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 37. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 38. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 39. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 40. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

SEC. 41. That the annual quota of any nationality for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1927, and for each fiscal year thereafter, shall be a number which bears the same ratio to one hundred and fifty-five thousand as the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920 having the national origins of such nationality bears to the number of inhabitants in the United States in 1920, but the minimum quota of any nationality shall be one hundred.

The list opposite should be preserved on board your vessel and kept available for the inspection of immigrant officers. Before you allow any alien to leave your vessel, you must enter in the proper column opposite his name the race or people to which he belongs. Use only words which appear in the list opposite. Do not use abbreviations. Write plainly. Do not erase. If you make a mistake, draw a line through the incorrect entry and write the correct one above it.

SEC. 38. That every alien arriving in the United States who is found to be in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, or of any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof, may be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came, or to the country from which he last came, at any time within three years after his entry, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, and such alien shall be returned to the port from which he came, or to the country from which he last came, at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act: Provided, That no alien shall be returned under the provisions of this section to the country from which he came, or to the country from which he last came, if he is a native, citizen, subject, or resident thereof, unless the government of such country shall consent to his return: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor shall determine the right of any alien to enter the United States, in any case in which such question may arise, and his decision thereon shall be final: Provided further, That any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of this Act, or of any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof, shall be deported as provided in this section, regardless of the time of his entry or the fact that he entered with the consent of the immigrant officials: Provided further, That any alien who shall be found an inmate of or connected with the management of a house of prostitution or other immoral resort, or who shall have been connected therewith within one year prior to the time he shall have entered the United States, shall be deported as provided in this section: Provided further, That any alien who shall have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude committed before his entry into the United States, and who shall be sentenced therefor within one year after such entry to confinement in a prison or corrective institution, whether such sentence be executed or not, shall be deported as provided in this section, regardless of the time of such entry: Provided further, That any alien who shall have been convicted of a violation of, or a conspiracy to violate, any law relating to the traffic in narcotic drugs, which was committed before his entry into the United States, and who shall be sentenced therefor within five years after such entry to confinement in a prison or corrective institution, whether such sentence be executed or not, shall be deported as provided in this section, regardless of the time of such entry: Provided further, That any alien who at any time after entering the United States is sentenced more than once to confinement in a prison or corrective institution for a term or terms aggregating five years, because conviction of crimes committed at different times, shall be deported as provided in this section, regardless of the time of such conviction and sentence or of the time of his entry into the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall determine that any alien has been found in the United States in violation of this Act, or any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof, and that such alien is subject to deportation, he shall cause such alien to be taken into custody and detained at such place as he may designate pending determination as to whether such alien shall be deported, and such alien may be released under bond in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, or his duly authorized agents, in such sum and with such sureties and conditions as the Secretary of Labor, or his duly authorized agents, may prescribe. Such bond shall be forfeited and collected in the manner provided for the forfeiture and collection of bonds given to secure the payment of duties on imported merchandise, and the decision of the Secretary of Labor, or his duly authorized agents, shall be final as to the conclusive facts upon which any such forfeiture is sought or recovery had thereon. Such warrant may issue and such detention may be made at any time before a final order is made in the case, whether before or after the commencement of proceedings for the deportation of such alien. Any such alien who shall not be found upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, or who has been released from custody upon bond as herein provided, and who shall not depart from the United States within such time as shall be directed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in this section, regardless of the time of his entry into the United States. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the Secretary of Labor to await the action of the courts upon the application for a writ of habeas corpus sued out by or on behalf of any alien, but he may cause the deportation of such alien to be carried into execution forthwith.

(d) Pending the deportation of any alien under the provisions of this Act, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, take such action as may be necessary to secure the care and maintenance of such alien during such period, and for such purpose may utilize such part of the appropriation for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act as he may deem necessary.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted to any vessel until the master thereof has made oath that the crew list and the manifest of passengers are correct in all particulars to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he has not, to the best of his knowledge and belief, concealed, harbored, or secreted, or allowed to be concealed, harbored, or secreted on board his vessel any person or persons, or any opium or other narcotic drug, with intent to prevent the detection of such person or persons, or such opium or other narcotic drug, and that he has not, to the best of his knowledge and belief, connived at or been accessory to the concealment on board his vessel of any person or persons, or any opium or other narcotic drug, with such intent; and that he has not, to the best of his knowledge and belief, connived at or been accessory to the violation of any of the provisions of the immigration laws of the United States applicable to his vessel or to the persons on board thereof.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 14. No alien seaman (except those employed in the Canal Zone or in the insular possessions of the United States) shall be admitted into the United States unless within the time limit prescribed by the immigration laws in force at the time of his entry he shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence or shall have been granted a visa as a nonimmigrant seaman by an American consular officer. Any alien seaman who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws in force at the time of his entry, and shall be ineligible to become a citizen of the United States.

SEC. 16. The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and to employ such clerks and other assistants in the Department of Labor as may be necessary for the efficient enforcement and administration of such provisions, and for such purpose there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, $450,000, to be available until the end of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, B.Kaneko, Master, of the M.S."Hikawa Maru", do declare that the foregoing is a full, true, and complete list of all the crew, promptly to be mustered from my port or place of departure for the United States, and of all the passengers taken on board at any port or place in the Territory of Hawaii, and that I have made diligent inquiry as to the facts required to be stated in said list, and that I have entered in said list the full and correct answer to each question touching each person therein mentioned, as far as the same have been communicated to me or have come to my knowledge, information, or belief.

Sworn to before me this 15th day of May, 1930.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department, and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of cabin passengers taken aboard at ..... (name of port) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an alternate address is a "northern," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and where they are to be landed on such arrival; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, master, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of such departure, and also the names of those. It any. who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted, with the date of such desertion, and the amount of wages due each; and it any such alien employee shall be discharged from any vessel in consequence of sickness or injury, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master shall report the fact, with the cause and circumstances thereof, to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and deliver to him a list containing the name and last known address of such alien, and shall also report the name and last known address of every alien employee who shall desert or abscond from any vessel in which he arrives at a port of the United States, and shall deliver to the immigration officer at such port a list containing the name and last known address of each alien employee who may have deserted or absconded as aforesaid since the date of the last preceding report, or in the case of the first report since the departure of the vessel from a foreign port. Such reports shall be verified by the oath of such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, and such penalties as are now provided by law for the verification of reports required to be made by masters of vessels shall apply to the reports required by this section. Such reports shall be primâ facie evidence for the purpose of any prosecution that the persons therein named as having deserted or absconded were such persons as the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master had on board his vessel when such vessel arrived at a port of the United States, and that the statements in such reports with respect to such persons are true.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States with an alien coming to the United States from any place outside the United States, who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a complete list of such alien or aliens, as required by section 36 of the Immigration Act of 1917, or who shall refuse or neglect to report, or who shall make any false statement or misrepresentation in reporting, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain on board any alien required by such section to be detained, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such alien for examination to the immigration officer at the port of arrival at the time and place specified by the Secretary of Labor, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination on the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such alien against whom such fine is imposed shall be given a hearing before the Secretary of Labor, if demand therefor be made within one year from the date of such imposition, upon application to the Secretary of Labor, and upon such notice to such owner, agent, consignee, or master as the Secretary of Labor may by regulation prescribe; and upon such hearing the decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien against on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such owner, agent, consignee, or master, such deportation may be suspended, upon such terms and conditions as to the Secretary of Labor may seem proper, for such time as he may specify.

(d) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, then owners, agents, consignees and masters, and as to all seamen arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

SEC. 6. Clearance shall not be denied any vessel until the time indicated by section 35 have been tabulated, and not then unless, before the expiration of 1 hour after the completion of the tabulation, the master has been notified of the administrative fine prescribed by said section or of the fact that the fine has been remitted, the deposit specified in Rule 33 has been made.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States; according or separate manifests immediately and consecutively numbered, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according or separate manifests those sailing transmigrant in the third class and the second cabin class. Where any part of the journey is by Continental railways, and those entire there do not land such manifest. The names to be inserted in the manifests of aliens transmigrant through the United States are printed in the same manner, upon the respective entries into United States.

(BLUE MANIFEST)

The people who are sailing to that portion of that country in this manifest are described in the manner of the following columns, namely:

Columns 1 (Number).—The space is to be filled in with the number of the person mentioned in every manifest, beginning with 1 in each.

Column 2 (Name).—The entry should be written in the alphabetical order of the surnames (family names) and the Christian names (individual or family) of the several persons mentioned in the manifest, and the letter with which the surname begins should be written in capital letters.

Column 3 (Age).—The entry should be written in figures the age of each person mentioned in the manifest, the age of infants under 1 year of age.

Column 4 (Sex).—The entry should be written M (male) or F (female).

Column 5 (Married or single).—The person is described as married (M) or single (S).

Column 6 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as clearly as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as for example: Farmer, laborer, merchant, tailor, carpenter, mason, blacksmith, engineer, clerk, etc. And not simply as gentleman, lady, etc., or such indefinite descriptions.

A child under 1 year of age is described as infant.

No entry is to be made in this column for the wife or children.

Column 7 (Nationality).—Nationality means allegiance to some country. Thus a person born in Canada of Irish parents is a British subject by nationality, but an Irish race. The nationality should be described as nearly as possible in accordance with the following list:

A British subject born in Canada should be described as "British, Canada"; a native of Ireland as "Irish, Ireland"; a native of Germany as "German, Germany"; a native of Russia as "Russian, Russia"; a native of Austria as "Austrian, Austria"; a native of Hungary as "Hungarian, Hungary"; a native of Italy as "Italian, Italy"; a native of Sweden as "Swedish, Sweden"; a native of Norway as "Norwegian, Norway"; a native of Denmark as "Danish, Denmark"; a native of Holland as "Dutch, Holland"; a native of Belgium as "Belgian, Belgium"; a native of Switzerland as "Swiss, Switzerland"; a native of Spain as "Spanish, Spain"; a native of Portugal as "Portuguese, Portugal"; a native of Greece as "Greek, Greece"; a native of Turkey as "Turkish, Turkey"; a native of Arabia as "Arabian, Arabia"; a native of Africa as "African, Africa"; a native of China as "Chinese, China"; a native of Japan as "Japanese, Japan"; a native of India as "East Indian, India"; a native of Mexico as "Mexican, Mexico"; a native of Cuba as "Cuban, Cuba"; a native of the West Indies as "West Indian, West Indies"; a native of Central and South America as "Central American, Central America"; a native of Australia as "Australian, Australia"; a native of New Zealand as "New Zealander, New Zealand"; a native of Scotland as "Scotch, Scotland"; a native of Wales as "Welsh, Wales"; a native of England as "English, England"; a native of Canada as "Canadian, Canada"; a native of the United States as "American, United States."

Column 8 (Last permanent residence).—(Country.)—Enter the country in which the person mentioned has had a fixed home and where he has lived for a year or more. Do not enter as country of last permanent residence a country which he has visited merely as a traveler or temporarily.

Column 9 (City, town, or village).—Enter the name of the city, town, or village in which the person mentioned has had a fixed home and where he has lived for a year or more. Do not enter as city of last permanent residence a city which he has visited merely as a traveler or temporarily.

Column 10 (Final destination).—(City, town, or village.) Enter the name of the city, town, or village in the United States where the person mentioned intends to reside permanently. Do not enter as final destination a city which he has visited merely as a traveler or temporarily.

Column 11 (State or territory).—The name of the State, Territory, or District of this should be entered in full in the city or town.

Column 12 (Ticket—Through to).—Enter below the number of documentary passage ticket held by the person mentioned in the manifest, if a ticket is held. Enter also the name of the railroad or steamship line over which the person mentioned is to be conveyed to the city or town of destination. If the person mentioned is to be conveyed to the city or town of destination by more than one railroad or steamship line, enter the name of the railroad or steamship line over which the person mentioned is to be conveyed from the port of arrival in the United States to the city or town of destination.

Column 13 (Whether having a ticket to the place to which he is destined).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as appropriate to show whether the person mentioned in the manifest is in possession of a ticket to the place to which he is destined.

Column 14 (Whether in possession of $50 and upward).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as appropriate to show whether the person mentioned in the manifest has in his possession at least $50 in money or not.

Column 15 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and name and complete address of such relative or friend).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is going to join relatives or friends in the United States, and should give the name and complete address of such relatives or friends.

Column 16 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when, where, and how long ago).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest has ever been in the United States before, and if so, when he arrived, where he landed, and how long he remained in the United States.

Column 17 (Whether going to join a husband, wife, father, mother, or other relative; what relative, and complete address of such relative).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is going to join a husband, wife, father, mother, or other relative in the United States, and should give the name and complete address of such relative.

Column 18 (Whether an anarchist).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is an anarchist.

Column 19 (Whether a polygamist).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is a polygamist.

Column 20 (Whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Alaska).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is coming under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Alaska.

Column 21 (Whether an idiot).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is an idiot.

Column 22 (Whether deaf and dumb).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is deaf and dumb.

Column 23 (Whether blind).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is blind.

Column 24 (Whether a cripple).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is a cripple.

Column 25 (Whether a tuberculous person).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is a tuberculous person.

Column 26 (Whether a person who has been convicted of or admits having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest has been convicted of or admits having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

Column 28 (Whether coming for an immoral purpose).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is coming for an immoral purpose.

Column 29 (Whether coming for any other purpose).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is coming for any other purpose.

Column 30 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and how long ago).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest has ever been in the United States before; and if so, when he arrived, where he landed, and how long he remained in the United States.

Column 31 (Whether ever before in any other country; and if so, what country, when, where, and how long ago).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest has ever been in any other country before; and if so, what country, when he arrived, where he landed, and how long he remained in such country.

Column 32 (Whether ever before refused admission to the United States; and if so, when and why).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest has ever been refused admission to the United States; and if so, when and why.

Column 33 (Whether ever before deported from the United States; and if so, when and why).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest has ever been deported from the United States; and if so, when and why.

Column 34 (Whether in possession of a ticket through to his final destination).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is in possession of a ticket through to his final destination.

Column 35 (Whether in possession of the amount required by the immigration act of 1924, and how).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is in possession of the amount required by the immigration act of 1924, and how.

Column 37 (Whether in possession of a passport, and, if so, the number, date, and place of issuance).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is in possession of a passport, and, if so, the number, date, and place of issuance.

Column 38 (Whether in possession of a certificate of head tax exemption, and, if so, the number, date, and place of issuance).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is in possession of a certificate of head tax exemption, and, if so, the number, date, and place of issuance.

Column 39 (Whether in possession of a certificate of head tax refund, and, if so, the number, date, and place of issuance).—The answer to this question should state whether the person mentioned in the manifest is in possession of a certificate of head tax refund, and, if so, the number, date, and place of issuance.

Column 40 (If a citizen of the United States, the number of the certificate of naturalization or citizenship, and the court, date, and place of issuance).—If the person mentioned in the manifest is a citizen of the United States, the number of the certificate of naturalization or citizenship, and the court, date, and place of issuance should be given.

Columns 5 (Head-tax status).—Alongside those aliens who are to arrive in the United States at the port of departure mentioned in the manifest, the agent of the steamship company is to enter the letter "E" if the alien is exempt from the head tax, and the letter "C" if the alien is chargeable with the head tax. The agent is to enter the letter "E" in the case of those aliens who are exempt from the head tax under the following provisions of law:

(a) Those who have been admitted to the United States and who are returning from a temporary visit abroad (section 3, act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(b) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the Islands of Hawaii, Guam, or Tutuila (section 4 (a), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(c) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Philippine Islands, Puerto Rico, or the Islands of Guam or Tutuila (section 4 (b), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(d) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to Alaska, the Panama Canal Zone, or the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon (section 4 (c), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(e) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to Mexico, Cuba, or Canada (section 4 (d), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(f) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to Newfoundland, Miquelon, Saint Pierre, or Langley (section 4 (e), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(g) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Panama (section 4 (f), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(h) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Haiti or the Dominican Republic (section 4 (g), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(i) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Salvador, Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, or Republic of Colombia (section 4 (h), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(j) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Peru or Republic of Chile (section 4 (i), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(k) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Ecuador (section 4 (j), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(l) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Uruguay or Republic of Paraguay (section 4 (k), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

(m) Those who have been in the United States for a period of one year or more and who are returning from a visit to the Republic of Argentina or Republic of Brazil (section 4 (l), act of May 19, 1924, as amended by section 4, act of June 7, 1924).

AFFIDAVIT TO SURGEON

I, J. C. L. E. [illegible], Surgeon of the [illegible] Regiment [illegible] do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare, that I have had [illegible] years' experience as a Physician and Surgeon, and that I am entitled to practice as such in and under the authority of [illegible] and that I am duly qualified to judge of the state of health of persons examined as to their fitness to perform military duty, and that I have made a personal examination of each of the aliens named herein, and that the foregoing Lists of "Marking Marks" [illegible] in number, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, are full, correct, and true in all particulars, relative to the mental and physical condition of such aliens.

[signature]

Sworn to before me this [illegible] day of [illegible] 1917, at [illegible] Head.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING OUT ALIEN MANIFEST

ITALIAN (NORTH).

The people who are native to that part of the land of the River Po in northern Italy (i. e., compartments of Piedmont, Lombardy, Venetia, Aquileia, and Liguria) and their descendants, whether residing in Italy, Switzerland, Algiers, or any other country, should be classed as "Italian (north)." Most of these people speak a Gallic dialect of the Italian language.

ITALIAN (SOUTH).

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the land of the River Po (i. e., compartments of Tuscany, the Marches, Umbria, Latium, Abruzzi and Molise, Campania, Apulia, Basilicata, Calabria, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants should be classed as "Italian (south)."

Column 10 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of making one year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence thereafter. If it is important for identification purposes that abnormally complicated permanent residence be recorded, the entries in column 10 should show the country and city or town in which alien had his last permanent residence, and the country and city or town in which he resided immediately before coming to the United States. "Last permanent residence" is not to be confused with "country of last permanent residence" as used in the immigration laws, which means the country of birth, nationality, or race.

Column 11 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people to which the alien belongs, and not the nationality or the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 12 (Immigrant).—Every alien who comes to the United States to reside permanently should be recorded as an "immigrant." All others should be recorded as "nonimmigrants." Nonimmigrants are temporary visitors, such as persons coming for business or pleasure, in transit, etc. Immigrants are persons coming to the United States with the intention of residing permanently therein. Every alien who is not clearly a nonimmigrant should be recorded as an immigrant.

Column 13 (Nationality).—Give the country to which alien owes allegiance. Usually this will be the country of birth, but in the case of persons who have changed their nationality by naturalization, the country of their former allegiance should be given. Thus, a person born in Germany who has become a citizen of the United States should be recorded as a citizen of Germany, but a person born in Germany who has not become a citizen of the United States should be recorded as a citizen of the country of which he is a citizen or subject.

Column 14 (Color or complexion).—Every alien should be classified as white, black (including mulatto), or yellow. Use the words "white," "black," or "yellow" in the blank.

Column 15 (Height).—Every alien should be recorded as over or under 5 feet in height. Use the words "over 5 feet" or "under 5 feet" in the blank.

Column 16 (Weight).—Every alien should be recorded as over or under 100 pounds in weight. Use the words "over 100 pounds" or "under 100 pounds" in the blank.

Column 17 (Have you ever been in prison, etc.).—Answer "yes" or "no" in the blank. The words "prison, etc." shall be construed to include any penal institution, jail, workhouse, reformatory, house of correction, poorhouse, insane asylum, hospital for the insane, institution for the care of feebleminded persons, institution for the care of epileptics, institution for the care of persons afflicted with tuberculosis, and any institution for the support of persons who are public charges.

Column 18 (If not, why not).—If the answer in column 17 is "yes," the word "convict" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "no," the word "deported" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been pardoned or has served his sentence, the word "pardoned" or "served sentence" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been released on parole, the word "parole" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been released on bail, the word "bail" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been released on suspended sentence, the words "suspended sentence" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been released on probation, the word "probation" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been released on ticket of leave, the words "ticket of leave" should be sufficient. If the answer in column 17 is "yes," and the alien has been released on any other condition, the words "conditionally released" should be sufficient.

Column 19 (Have you ever been in a hospital, etc.).—Answer "yes" or "no" in the blank. The words "hospital, etc." shall be construed to include any hospital, institution, or sanitarium for the care and treatment of the insane or persons afflicted with mental disease, whether supported by public funds or by private charity, and whether or not any charge is made for board, care, or treatment.

Column 20 (Have you ever been an anarchist, etc.).—Answer "yes" or "no" in the blank. The word "anarchist" shall be construed to include also persons who believe in, advise, advocate, or teach the unlawful destruction of property; persons who believe in or advocate the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character; persons who disbelieve in or are opposed to all organized government; persons who advocate or believe in the unlawful assaulting or killing of any person or persons on account of the race or color of such person or persons; persons who advocate or believe in the unlawful destruction of property; and persons who are members of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or which advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property.

Column 21 (Polygamist).—Answer "yes" or "no" in the blank. The word "polygamist" shall be construed to include also persons who practice polygamy or believe in the practice of polygamy.

Column 22 (Ticketed to).—The entry should be the name of the city, town, or village of the United States to which the alien is ticketed.

Column 23 (Final destination).—The entry should be the name of the city, town, or village of the United States in which the alien intends to reside permanently. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of New York, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Pennsylvania, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Ohio, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Illinois, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Michigan, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Wisconsin, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Minnesota, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Iowa, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Missouri, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of North Dakota, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of South Dakota, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Nebraska, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Kansas, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Montana, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Wyoming, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Colorado, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of New Mexico, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Arizona, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Utah, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Nevada, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. If he intends to remain permanently in the State of Idaho, the entry should be the name of the city, town, or village in which he intends to reside. INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING ALIEN MANIFESTS

ITALIAN (NORTH).

The people who are native to the basin of the River Po in northern Italy (i. e., comparatively Piedmont, Lombardy, Venetia, Liguria, Tuscany, the Marches, Umbria, Rome, the Abruzzi and Molise, Campania, Apulia, Basilicata, Calabria, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants, whether residing in Italy or elsewhere. Italian (south).".

ITALIAN (SOUTH).

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the basin of the River Po (i. e., comprising the provinces of Abruzzi e Molise, Campania, Apulia, Basilicata, Calabria, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants should be classed as "Italian (south)."

Columns 11 to 14.—These columns are also self-explanatory.

Column 12 (Last permanent residence).—Applies to an intended residence of one year or more with the intention of establishing permanent residence. Applies to aliens coming to the United States to join relatives or friends or to accept employment, but not to those coming for a temporary residence only, such as persons coming as members of a theatrical company or as exhibitors of animals. It is important for statistical purposes that aliens who contemplate permanent residence in the United States should state the country in which such residence is intended, and not the country of which they are citizens or subjects, merely because they may remain here for a long time.

Column 13 (Final destination).—Intended destination of aliens who contemplate permanent residence in the United States. If destination is not definitely known, indicate probable place of settlement.

Column 14 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name and address of such relative. It do not show the intended future home of the alien.

Column 15 (Ability to read).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as to whether the alien can read any language. The entry should be limited to the ability to read in the ordinary sense of the word, and should not be made to depend upon the ability to read some particular language.

Column 16 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should be the race or people, and not the country of which the alien is a native or citizen.

Column 17 (Nationality).—Question 8 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Columns 18 and 19 (Personal description).—Columns 18 and 19 should be carefully filled in, as they furnish the principal means of identifying the alien after his arrival in the United States. Particular attention should be called to the fact that the entry "Light" refers to complexion and not to color of hair, and that the entry "Medium" may be used to describe persons neither tall nor short, stout nor slender. The entry "Ordinary" may be used to describe noses that are neither large nor small, mouths that are neither wide nor narrow, chins that are neither pronounced nor receding, and foreheads that are neither high nor low. Any physical marks, such as moles, scars, or deformities, should be noted.

Columns 20 and 21 (Married or single).—Column 20 should be answered "Yes" or "No" (or "M" or "S"). Column 21 should be answered "Yes" or "No" (or "W" or "D"). Column 22 (Husband or wife).—The entry should be "Husband" or "Wife" (or "H" or "W"), as the case may be, or "None" (or "N").

Column 23 (Number of children).—The entry should be "None" (or "N") or the number of children.

Column 24 (Former occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation followed by the alien in his native country, such as "farmer," "merchant," "clerk," "mason," "carpenter," "shoemaker," "tailor," "servant," "laborer," "weaver," "miner," or other definite occupation. Indefinite terms, such as "laborer," "none," "gentleman," "student," "housekeeper," "housework," "at home," etc., are not sufficient.

A question should be made between terms and men laborers, whether as applied to the alien himself or to others.

A term laborer is one who works at a farm or on the land for the man who employs him.

A man laborer is one who works at a trade or handicraft or on the waterfront, and corresponding should be made.

Examples: common laborer, farm laborer, coal miner, stone mason, bricklayer, carpenter, tailor, shoemaker, weaver, engineer, locomotive engineer, machinist, clerk, bookkeeper, cook, waiter, etc., and not simply as laborer, miner, mason, engineer, or tailor, respectively, unless it is positively known that they have never followed any other calling.

Column 25 (Final destination).—Intended destination of alien in the United States. If destination is not definitely known, indicate probable place of settlement.

Column 26 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and, if so, what relative or friend, and whether such relative or friend is in the United States or elsewhere).—The entry should be "Yes" or "No," as the case may be, and if "Yes" should state the name of the relative or friend and the State or country in which he or she is living, as "Yes, to father, John Doe, Chicago, Ill." "Yes, to friend, Richard Roe, London, England." "No, to friend, Thomas Brown, Liverpool, England." "No, to friend, Peter Smith, Boston, Mass." "Yes, to friend, Mary Jones, Cleveland, Ohio." "No, to friend, Joseph Green, Paris, France." "Yes, to friend, Frank Black, Berlin, Germany." "Yes, to friend, Thomas Gray, Rome, Italy." "Yes, to friend, Peter Murphy, Dublin, Ireland." "Yes, to friend, Hans Schmidt, Vienna, Austria." "Yes, to friend, Ivan Petroff, St. Petersburg, Russia." "Yes, to friend, Carl Svensen, Stockholm, Sweden." "Yes, to friend, Olaf Hansen, Christiania, Norway." "Yes, to friend, Jan Kowalski, Warsaw, Poland." "Yes, to friend, Pedro Gomez, Madrid, Spain." "Yes, to friend, Manuel Garcia, Mexico City, Mexico." "Yes, to friend, Juan Rodriguez, Havana, Cuba." "Yes, to friend, Juan Gonzalez, Buenos Ayres, Argentina." "Yes, to friend, Pedro Gomez, Lima, Peru." "Yes, to friend, Jose Rodriguez, Santiago, Chile." "Yes, to friend, Juan Gonzalez, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil." "Yes, to friend, Pedro Gomez, Montevideo, Uruguay." "Yes, to friend, Jose Rodriguez, Caracas, Venezuela." "Yes, to friend, Juan Gonzalez, Bogota, Colombia." "Yes, to friend, Pedro Gomez, Quito, Ecuador." "Yes, to friend, Jose Rodriguez, Lima, Peru." "Yes, to friend, Juan Gonzalez, La Paz, Bolivia." "Yes, to friend, Pedro Gomez, Asuncion, Paraguay at BOSTON HARBOR, MASS.

LIST OF RACES OR PEOPLES

NOTE.—If a surgeon sails with the vessel, this affidavit of examination shall be executed before the commencement of the voyage, by the surgeon who will be in charge of the hospital, if one is carried, and if not, by the surgeon who will be in charge of the principal medical inspection.

If no surgeon sails with the vessel, the affidavit of examination shall be executed at the port of departure before some officer authorized to administer oaths.

LIST OR MANIFEST OF ALIEN PASSENGERS FOR THE UNITED

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
IMMIGRATION SERVICE
Form 6008

List No. 41

ALL ALIENS arriving at a port of continental United States from a foreign port or a port of the insular possessions of the United States, and all aliens arriving at a port of said insular possessions from a foreign port, a port of continental United States, or another insular possession, are required by law to fill out in writing and sign this list or manifest. Aliens who are unable to write their own names must have their names written by some other person. Every question must be answered for each alien, unless specific reference is made to some other person in connection with any question. Any false statement or concealment of fact in answering any question may be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, and will be cause for exclusion and deportation of the alien making it. Write plainly with pen and ink.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING ALIEN MANIFESTS

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, H. B. CLARK MASTER, of the SS PRESIDENT GRANT, from SHANGHAI CHINA, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly SWEAR, that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing lists or manifests of aliens proceeding to the United States on said vessel from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by section three of the Immigration Act of 1917, and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

H. B. CLARK
MASTER

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25 day of MAY, 1921

Immigration Officer.

Column 4 (Age).—The years in each column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be for M (male), F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The words M (married), S (single), DW (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien, as, for example, clerk, mechanic, laborer, farmer, servant, tailor, tailoress, dressmaker, engineer, miner, merchant, grocer, butcher, shoemaker, baker, etc., but not such indefinite descriptions as "laborer," "servant," "student," or other indefinite designations.

A dash line should be made between general items and such items as "servant," "laborer," etc., as above.

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for its use and who assists in its operation.

Explanation concerning manner in which the declaration on the manifest and corrections should be made.

A mistake in the manifest may be corrected before the vessel leaves the dock, but not after the vessel has cleared. If a correction is to be made, the line on which the mistake occurs should be canceled by drawing the pen through it, and the correct statement written in ink immediately above the line canceled. The person making the correction should initial the change. If necessary, the whole page may be rewritten, but in such case the physician must examine the passengers whose names appear on the new page.

Column 8, Nationality.—Give the country to which the alien owes allegiance, as English, French, German, Italian, Russian, Swedish, Turkish, Chinese, Japanese, etc. Do not use such terms as "European," "Asiatic," "African," "Australian," "British," "Austrian," "Hungarian," "Scandinavian," "Canadian," "Mexican," "Central American," "South American," "West Indian," or "Polynesian."

Column 9, Race or people.—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should be the race or people to which the alien belongs, as Negro, Hebrew, Irish, Scotch, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Japanese, Chinese, Russian, Polish, Turkish, Armenian, Bohemian, Magyar, Dutch, Flemish, Finnish, Greek, Syrian, Indian (Hindu), Arab, Bulgarian, Servian, Croatian, Slovak, Dalmatian, Lithuanian, Black, Mulatto, Roumanian, Ruthenian (Russniak), Moorish, Pacific Islander, East Indian, Georgian, Celtic, Welsh, Manx, Cornish, Basque, Pyrenean, Andorran, Lapp, Esthonian, Livonian, Corsican, Maltese, Gipsy, Kurd, Afghan, Beluchistanian, Arabian, Palestinian, Egyptian, Abyssinian, Liberian, Somali, Zulu, Bushman, Australian, Tasmanian, New Zealander, Maori, Hawaiian, Fijian, Tongan, Samoan, Philippine, Patagonian, Fuegian, Mexican, Cuban, Porto Rican, Haytian, Jamaican, Dominican, Nicaraguan, Costa Rican, Panaman, Colombian, Venezuelan, Peruvian, Ecuadorian, Brazilian, Chilean, Bolivian, Paraguayan, Uruguayan, Argentinian, Canadian, Newfoundland, Australian, or any other native country, should be classed as "Italian (north)." "Moor of Tripolitania, Tripolitan," "Negro and Italian mixed," "Italian (south)," or "Italian (Sicily)" are not to be used.

The people who are native to the north of the River Po in northern Italy (i.e., comparatively few) should be classed as "Italian (north)." The people who are native to the south of the River Po (i.e., the Kingdom of Naples, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants should be classed as "Italian (south)."

Columns 10 to 14.—These directions are self-explanatory.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Answer as to the last permanent residence outside the United States of the alien himself, not of his parents, even though accompanying them. The entry in column 15 should show the country and city or town to which the alien has come to this country to take up his permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that thoroughly complete information be given. The entry should not be the last temporary residence merely because it was the last place where a ticket was purchased, or because the alien has resided there for a few months or years, unless he has the intention of permanently residing there. If the alien has resided in more than one country for a year or more with the intention of permanently residing there, the last such country should be given. The entry should not be "United States" unless the alien has resided in the United States for one year or more with the intention of permanently residing therein. If the alien has resided in the United States for one year or more and has since resided in a foreign country for a period or periods aggregating two years or more, the country to which he returned from the United States should be given as the country of his last permanent residence. If the alien has resided in the United States for one year or more and has since resided in a foreign country for a period or periods aggregating less than two years, the country of his last permanent residence before coming to the United States should be given. If the alien has resided in the United States for one year or more and has since resided in a foreign country for a period or periods aggregating two years or more, the country to which he returned from the United States should be given as the country of his last permanent residence

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, or deportation of any such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, to obtain on board any such seaman employed on such vessel before the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival [matter omitted] such examination by the medical officers, to give such information, to answer such questions, and to produce such certificates and documents as shall be required by the Secretary of Labor to be given, asked, or produced by any alien applying for admission, or by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States, with respect to such alien. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse to comply with any such requirement, or to pay the cost of the return of any such alien, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien with respect to whom such refusal occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers [matter omitted] pending the determination of the question of the payment of the penalty imposed, or while any such alien remains on board, unless such penalty is paid or such alien lands in accordance with law.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to have outbound manifest, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a seaman, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or cause to be delivered on demand to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival [matter omitted] such certificate or permit as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived [matter omitted] such alien seaman to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel, whether destined for the United States or not, and whether they intend to land at such port or place or not, and whether they are cabin passengers, second-cabin passengers, or steerage passengers, and to report the sickness and the cause thereof of any such persons during the voyage. Such list or manifest shall show the full name, age, sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of every such person, whether he or she be a citizen or subject of the United States or not, and whether in possession of a valid passport or not, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor; and the master, agent, consignee, owner, or charterer of such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the time of inspection at the port of arrival such additional information as may be required concerning any person on board such vessel. Such list or manifest shall also show which aliens have been examined by the medical officer at the port of arrival and which aliens have been certified by said medical officer, and shall state the condition of mind and body of each alien, whether he is deaf and dumb, or blind, and whether he is a polygamist, and whether he is coming in pursuance of any prearranged plan, and if so, what is the nature of such plan, and whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States, and whether he has ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and if so, when and where, and whether he is a stowaway, and if so, whether he has been examined by the proper officer of the foreign port before embarkation, and what is the result of such examination, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long he remained, and whether he has been deported or excluded and the cause thereof, and whether he intends to return to the United States, and whether he has any relatives in the United States, and if so, what relatives, and whether he has a ticket, and if so, whether it is a through ticket, and whether his expenses are paid for by others, and if so, by whom, and whether he has sufficient money to pay his expenses, and how much money he has, and whether he has been employed, and if so, by whom and where, and whether he is going to join any relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, and their names and complete addresses, and whether he is joining a husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, child, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, cousin, nephew, niece, or any other relative, and if so, what relative, and whether he has been in the custody of any institution or home for the feeble-minded or insane, or supported by charity, and if so, what institution or home, and whether he is a person who has a contagious disease, and if so, what disease, and whether he is a person who has been arrested for any offense, and if so, what offense, and whether he is a person who has a mental or physical defect of such a character as may affect his ability to earn a living, and if so, what defect, and whether he is coming to the United States to perform labor of any kind, and if so, what kind, and what is the condition of his health, mental and physical, and what is the height and complexion of each alien, and whether deformed or crippled, and if so, how, when, and where the deformity occurred, and whether he has a visible scar or mark of identification, and if so, what, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who knowingly or willfully fails to furnish the information required by this section, or who knowingly or willfully furnishes false information or withholds facts in relation to the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 8

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States, except temporarily for inspection, shall deliver to such immigration officer at the port of arrival as the Secretary of Labor may require a complete list of the persons on board such vessel, which list shall contain the name, age, sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of each person who is to be transported or landed in the United States, and such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such list shall be delivered and sworn to before the immigration officer at the port of arrival by the master, owner, agent, purser, or surgeon of the vessel, and the master shall sign the list in person at the end thereof. Any person who knowingly or willfully fails to furnish the information required by this section, or who knowingly or willfully furnishes false information or withholds facts in relation to the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(b) Every alien arriving at a port specified in subdivision (a) of this section shall be subject to such medical examination at the hands of a medical officer of the United States as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe by general rules. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inspection of the passengers by the medical officers, or after the discovery by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel of any sick alien, unless and until a permit in writing so to depart shall have been granted by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. For the physical examination of each alien there shall be collected by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States the sum of $2.12 (8,000 lire, 160 francs, 160 marks, 64 florins, 8 pounds sterling, 40 kroner, 40 crowns, 40 pesetas, 200 drachmas, 200 piastres, 200 milreis, 200 yen, or 400 rubles) for each alien so to be examined, which sum shall be refunded by such immigration officer at the port of arrival to the person who paid the same for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $2.12 (8,000 lire, 160 francs, 160 marks, 64 florins, 8 pounds sterling, 40 kroner, 40 crowns, 40 pesetas, 200 drachmas, 200 piastres, 200 milreis, 200 yen, or 400 rubles) for each alien found upon such examination to be entitled to admission to the United States, and by the collector of customs to the person who paid the same for the head tax of such alien. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inspection of the passengers by the medical officers, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) Any alien who shall come into the United States in violation of the provisions of this section, or who shall fail to submit to the examination provided for by this section, shall be deported as provided by section 19 of this act. If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien examined at the vessel or while attempting to land at a port of the United States will cause undue hardship to such alien, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien to land temporarily under bond in such sum and with such conditions as he may prescribe, but not to exceed $500, and such bond may be renewed beyond the period of one year in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the detention on board vessel of any alien who has been certified by the medical officers to be suffering from a contagious disease, or who is liable to become a public charge, or who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is an anarchist, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining such beliefs or advocating such overthrow, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or group of anarchists, or who is a prostitute or a procurer, or who has been convicted of or admits the commission of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who practices polygamy or believes in or advocates the practice of polygamy, or who is coming to perform any labor if it be determined as provided in this act that there is a sufficient supply of such labor in the locality in which he seeks to perform it.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in section 19 of this act, the decision of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall be final unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. Such appeal must be taken within the time within which and in the manner in which an appeal may be taken from the decision of the Secretary of Labor to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall operate to suspend deportation until the decision thereon. Pending the final determination of the appeal, any alien may be released from custody upon the filing of a bond or undertaking in such amount and with such sureties as may be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, conditioned upon the production of such alien when required for deportation. Rights of appeal may be exercised by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which the alien arrived, or by the alien himself, or by his relatives or friends in the United States.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien examined at the vessel or while attempting to land at a port of the United States will cause undue hardship to such alien, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien to land temporarily under bond in such sum and with such conditions as he may prescribe, but not to exceed $500, and such bond may be renewed beyond the period of one year in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen, arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or proceeding to any such foreign contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except temporarily for inspection, shall deliver to such immigration officer at the port of arrival as the Secretary of Labor may require a complete list of the persons on board such vessel, which list shall contain the name, age, sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of each person who is to be transported or landed in the United States, and such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who knowingly or willfully fails to furnish the information required by this section, or who knowingly or willfully furnishes false information or withholds facts in relation to the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(b) Every alien arriving at a port specified in subdivision (a) of this section shall be subject to such medical examination at the hands of a medical officer of the United States as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe by general rules. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inspection of the passengers by the medical officers, or after the discovery by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel of any sick alien, unless and until a permit in writing so to depart shall have been granted by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. For the physical examination of each alien there shall be collected by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States the sum of $2.12 (8,000 lire, 160 francs, 160 marks, 64 florins, 8 pounds sterling, 40 kroner, 40 crowns, 40 pesetas, 200 drachmas, 200 piastres, 200 milreis, 200 yen, or 400 rubles) for each alien so to be examined, which sum shall be refunded by such immigration officer at the port of arrival to the person who paid the same for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $2.12 (8,000 lire, 160 francs, 160 marks, 64 florins, 8 pounds sterling, 40 kroner, 40 crowns, 40 pesetas, 200 drachmas, 200 piastres, 200 milreis, 200 yen, or 400 rubles) for each alien found upon such examination to be entitled to admission to the United States, and by the collector of customs to the person who paid the same for the head tax of such alien. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inspection of the passengers by the medical officers, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) Any alien who shall come into the United States in violation of the provisions of this section, or who shall fail to submit to the examination provided for by this section, shall be deported as provided by section 19 of this act. If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien examined at the vessel or while attempting to land at a port of the United States will cause undue hardship to such alien, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien to land temporarily under bond in such sum and with such conditions as he may prescribe, but not to exceed $500, and such bond may be renewed beyond the period of one year in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the detention on board vessel of any alien who has been certified by the medical officers to be suffering from a contagious disease, or who is liable to become a public charge, or who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is an anarchist, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining such beliefs or advocating such overthrow, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or group of anarchists, or who is a prostitute or a procurer, or who has been convicted of or admits the commission of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who practices polygamy or believes in or advocates the practice of polygamy, or who is coming to perform any labor if it be determined as provided in this act that there is a sufficient supply of such labor in the locality in which he seeks to perform it.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in section 19 of this act, the decision of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall be final unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. Such appeal must be taken within the time within which and in the manner in which an appeal may be taken from the decision of the Secretary of Labor to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall operate to suspend deportation until the decision thereon. Pending the final determination of the appeal, any alien may be released from custody upon the filing of a bond or undertaking in such amount and with such sureties as may be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, conditioned upon the production of such alien when required for deportation. Rights of appeal may be exercised by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which the alien arrived, or by the alien himself, or by his relatives or friends in the United States.

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and port or place during that transit, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same, and that the said vessel from such port or place has not touched at any port or place not mentioned in the list of ports of call delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and that I have not, nor has any officer, to my knowledge or belief, or any person in the employ of any of them, or any other person, to my knowledge or belief, by my consent, or to my knowledge or belief, offered or given or promised to give any money or other thing of value to any person to induce him to ship or engage in the service of the said vessel, or has paid or agreed to pay any money or other thing of value to any person for the shipment or engagement of any of the crew of said vessel, and that I have not, nor has any officer, to my knowledge or belief, by my consent, or to my knowledge or belief, or any person in the employ of any of them, or any other person, to my knowledge or belief, by my consent, or to my knowledge or belief, directly or indirectly received or agreed to receive any money or other thing of value for or on account of the shipment or engagement of any of the crew of said vessel, and that all the matters and things required by the immigration laws to be done by me before the departure of said vessel from her last port have been duly done, and that I have not, nor has any officer, to my knowledge or belief, by my consent, or to my knowledge or belief, directly or indirectly, received or agreed to receive any money or other thing of value for or on account of the payment of the commutation of the cabin passengers' fare of any of the crew, or the transportation in lieu thereof, or the refunding of the passage money of any of the crew, or any part thereof, and that I have not, nor has any officer, to my knowledge or belief, by my consent, or to my knowledge or belief, directly or indirectly, received or agreed to receive any money or other thing of value for or in connection with the discharge of any of the crew of said vessel, or the procuring of substitutes in their place, except as follows: [If none, so state.] And I do further declare that the said vessel has not been engaged in the carriage of passengers for hire between ports of the United States and foreign ports during the past year, except as follows: [If none, so state.]

I further declare that the accompanying list of the crew of said vessel contains the name of every person who has been engaged or shipped to serve on board said vessel during her present voyage, and that the said list contains a full and true account of the wages which have been paid to each person, and of the deductions which have been made therefrom, and the reasons for such deductions, and that the said list contains a full and true account of the effects left on board by any of the crew who have died or deserted during the said voyage, and of the disposal made of such effects.

I further declare that the said vessel has not been engaged in the transportation of any merchandise or passengers between ports of the United States and foreign ports during the past year, except as follows: [If none, so state.]

The list heretofore printed below shall be furnished on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of each race or people shall be separately numbered, and the total number of aliens on board each vessel shall be recorded at the bottom of each list. Add to the number the total number of cabin passengers, and record the grand total in the proper column. Failure to furnish such list may result in the imposition of a penalty of $10 for each alien not listed.

Any alien arriving aboard a vessel at a port for the purpose of entering the United States who is found to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, which is certified by the medical officer of the port to be of such character as to endanger the public health, shall not be admitted to land, but shall be detained by the master of the vessel on board the vessel or removed to such hospital as may be designated by the medical officer in charge at the port for examination. Such detention shall be at the expense of the master of the vessel, unless the alien shall become a public charge within one year after the date of his admission, in which case the master shall be paid the cost of detention by the Commissioner of Immigration.

Any alien who shall come in violation of section 3 of the immigration act of February 20, 1907, relative to the transportation of aliens under offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, assumption, or contract to perform labor in the United States, shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

Any alien who shall come in violation of section 2 of the act of February 20, 1907, relative to the exclusion of idiots, insane persons, paupers, persons afflicted with certain disease, criminals, persons who have been convicted of certain crimes, polygamists, and persons coming for certain immoral purposes, shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien examined on the vessel on which he arrived, and who seeks to land, cannot be accomplished within the period of the vessel's detention, he may cause such alien to be detained at such place as he may designate until deportation can be accomplished, but such detention shall not exceed five days unless upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge that the sanitary condition of the alien requires detention for a longer period.

(b) Any alien who shall come in violation of the provisions of section 3 of the act of February 20, 1907, relative to the transportation of aliens under offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, assumption, or contract to perform labor in the United States, shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien examined on the vessel on which he arrived, and who seeks to land, cannot be accomplished within the period of the vessel's detention, he may cause such alien to be detained at such place as he may designate until deportation can be accomplished, but such detention shall not exceed five days unless upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge that the sanitary condition of the alien requires detention for a longer period.

(d) Any alien who shall come in violation of the provisions of section 3 of the act of February 20, 1907, relative to the transportation of aliens under offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, assumption, or contract to perform labor in the United States, shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien examined on the vessel on which he arrived, and who seeks to land, cannot be accomplished within the period of the vessel's detention, he may cause such alien to be detained at such place as he may designate until deportation can be accomplished, but such detention shall not exceed five days unless upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge that the sanitary condition of the alien requires detention for a longer period.

(f) Any alien who shall come in violation of the provisions of section 3 of the act of February 20, 1907, relative to the transportation of aliens under offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, assumption, or contract to perform labor in the United States, shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien examined on the vessel on which he arrived, and who seeks to land, cannot be accomplished within the period of the vessel's detention, he may cause such alien to be detained at such place as he may designate until deportation can be accomplished, but such detention shall not exceed five days unless upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge that the sanitary condition of the alien requires detention for a longer period.

(h) Any alien who shall come in violation of the provisions of section 3 of the act of February 20, 1907, relative to the transportation of aliens under offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, assumption, or contract to perform labor in the United States, shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

(i) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien examined on the vessel on which he arrived, and who seeks to land, cannot be accomplished within the period of the vessel's detention, he may cause such alien to be detained at such place as he may designate until deportation can be accomplished, but such detention shall not exceed five days unless upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge that the sanitary condition of the alien requires detention for a longer period.

SEC. 36. That every alien now or hereafter in the United States from any foreign part or place, except those hereinafter exempted, who can not read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $200 and by deportation as provided by law. Any alien apprehended within the United States who can not read as above provided shall be taken for examination before the boards of special inquiry provided for in section 16 of this act, and shall be given opportunity to read in the language or dialect of his choice. Any alien who refuses or willfully neglects to appear when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, or who appears but refuses to be examined as to his right to enter, reside in, or travel in the United States, or who refuses to answer any question relative to his right to enter, reside in, or travel in the United States, or who refuses to submit to the physical examination provided for in this act, shall be taken into custody and deported to the country whence he came, in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens whose right to enter has been duly considered and denied by a board of special inquiry. The decision of such boards of special inquiry shall be final unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor, whose duty it shall be to cause such cases to be reviewed and determined by him with all convenient speed. Such appeals must be taken within the time limit prescribed by the rules of the Secretary of Labor. Pending the final decision of such appeal, the alien shall be detained in such manner as the Secretary of Labor may direct. Nothing in this act shall be construed to require, or authorize the requirement of, a passport visé as a condition precedent to the admission of any alien to the United States.

SEC. 37. That every alien now or hereafter in the United States who shall be found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property, or who shall be affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such doctrine, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this act.

SEC. 38. That every alien now or hereafter in the United States who shall be convicted of violating any law relating to the registration of aliens, or who shall be convicted of violating any law relating to the removal of aliens, or who shall be convicted of violating any law relating to the immigration, exclusion, or expulsion of aliens, shall be deported as provided in this act.

SEC. 39. That no visé fee shall hereafter be collected in connection with the issuance of any immigrant visa.

SEC. 40. That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, establish in connection with any United States immigrant station or station for the examination of aliens in charge of a medical officer a hospital or other proper place, and may appoint such employees as may be necessary to effectively provide for the proper medical examination of aliens coming to the United States, and may enter into contracts with such State, county, municipal, or Territorial boards, commissions, or officers, or with reputable individuals as may be necessary to perform such services in connection with the medical examination of aliens as he may deem advisable: And provided, That the compensation for such services performed by any person not a regular employee of the service shall be fixed in accordance with the head tax provided for in this act.

SEC. 41. That the Secretary of Labor may establish such boards of special inquiry and shall detail such immigrant officers as may be necessary to perform the duties relative to the examination of aliens as provided by this act and by rules and regulations prescribed hereunder.

SEC. 42. That the Secretary of Labor shall have control, direction, and management of all immigrant stations and shall establish such rules and make such regulations, not inconsistent with the laws regulating the admission, exclusion, and deportation of aliens, as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duties of immigrant officers and for the protection of the property of such stations, and shall have charge of the sale of immigrant tickets in the United States for the purpose of preventing fraud or imposition.

SEC. 43. That the Secretary of Labor shall annually report to Congress the number of aliens who have been excluded from admission and the number deported, and the cases in which such exclusion or deportation was made, and he shall also report such other facts and information with regard to the administration of the immigration laws as may be deemed necessary or advisable.

SEC. 44. That the sum of $1,500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by the Secretary of Labor for the enforcement of this act, including the printing of rules, regulations, and decisions, and for the maintenance of the Immigration Service at the several ports and places in the United States and on the borders thereof, and for the rent in the District of Columbia or elsewhere of such buildings as may be necessary, and for the purchase of such law books, periodicals, and books of reference as may be necessary for the use of said service, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of Labor, and for the employment of such attorneys and other persons as may be necessary to assist the United States attorneys in the prosecution of cases arising under the provisions of this act, and for the payment of such witness fees as may be authorized by the Secretary of Labor, and for the payment of fees of interpreters and stenographers employed in connection with hearings before boards of special inquiry, and for the payment of such compensation to such boards of special inquiry as may be authorized by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding $4 for each day actually employed, and for the payment of such compensation to such medical officers as may be employed for the purpose of examining aliens as provided by this act, not exceeding $4 for each day actually employed, and for the payment of such compensation to such clerks as may be employed for the purpose of assisting such boards of special inquiry, not exceeding $3 for each day actually employed, and for the payment of such compensation to such other employees as may be necessary to assist in the execution of the provisions of this act, including the employment of such translators as may be necessary for the Immigration Service, at such rates of compensation as may be fixed by the Secretary of Labor, and for the purchase of such stationery, furniture, typewriting machines, and other articles as may be necessary for the use of said service, and for the exchange of such machines, and for the repair, rental, and maintenance of the same, and for the payment of such actual traveling expenses, including transportation, of officers, employees, detained aliens, and witnesses, and such actual expenses of the Secretary of Labor in the supervision of the administration of this act and of such boards of special inquiry as may be incurred without expense to the United States, as may be approved by him, and for the payment of such other expenses as may be necessary for the enforcement of this act, to be audited by the Auditor for the Treasury Department and paid on his certificate.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival 24 hours before the vessel is due. The list or manifest may be taken from the vessel's regular manifest, provided it contains all the information required by this section. In the case of vessels arriving from foreign ports at ports where there are more than one immigration officer, a separate list must be prepared for each immigration officer. Any person who knowingly refuses to furnish the information required by this section, or who knowingly furnishes false information, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

"Master" as used in this section includes any person in charge or command of any vessel other than a pilot.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander thereof to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the business they respectively took in the ship's company, where and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those so to be landed at said port of arrival are destined to the United States or to some foreign country; and such list shall be prepared and delivered to such immigration officer at the time of arrival of such vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be in addition to any other list required by this Act to be delivered or presented. Such list shall contain such information in regard to each alien therein named as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, commander, or commanding officer of such vessel shall truthfully answer all questions touching the same. Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, commander, or commanding officer who shall refuse to deliver to the immigration officer at the time of arrival of such vessel the list required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully any question touching the same, or who shall knowingly make any false answer thereto, or who shall refuse to deliver to such immigration officer any such list, or who shall refuse to permit such immigration officer to make such examination of the master, owner, agent, consignee, commander, or commanding officer of such vessel as is provided for by this Act, or who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for by this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander of any such vessel shall be severally liable to the head tax provided for by this Act in respect of each and every alien who may be landed from such vessel, whether such head tax shall be collected or not, but the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander of any such vessel to deliver the list required by this section shall not affect the liability of such vessel to the payment of the head tax provided for by this Act. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander of any such vessel shall have a lien upon such vessel for the payment of the head taxes provided for by this Act, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the existence of such lien or the payment or the security for the payment of such taxes, or while such master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander is refused clearance papers on account of the non-payment of such taxes or the existence of such lien.

SEC. 39. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who has been refused a visa by the consular officer to whom application was made for such visa, or who is excluded from admission to the United States by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, shall, if ordered by the Secretary of Labor, return such alien on the vessel bringing him to the port from which such vessel sailed, or to the country where such alien embarked for the United States, or to the country where such alien resides, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander of such vessel. Such return shall be at the expense of such vessel and in case the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commander of such vessel fails to return such alien as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(b) Any alien who shall come to the United States in violation of law, or who shall enter the United States at a time or place other than as designated by immigration officers, or who shall enter the United States by means of a visa issued in consequence of the failure to disclose a fact required to be disclosed by section 2 of this Act, or who shall enter the United States by means of a visa procured by fraud or misrepresentation, may be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act at any time within three years after entry.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be of opinion that any alien who has been admitted to the United States is found to have been at the time of entry a member of any of the classes excluded by law, or to have entered in violation of law, he shall cause such alien to be taken into custody and returned in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country whence he came, at any time within three years after such entry.

(d) Any alien who shall willfully fail or refuse to depart from the United States within a period of six months from the date of any final order of deportation made against him pursuant to law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 35 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by this section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act has been waived, the debenet thereof in lieu thereof has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port shall be permitted to land in the United States except upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be deported on the vessel bringing him to the United States or on any vessel owned by the same interests, upon the certification by the Secretary of Labor of the existence of the facts which prevented his admission, unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that such deportation would be unreasonable. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country whence he came, at any time within three years after such entry

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector detailed from the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master before the vessel is admitted to pratique or allowed to land passengers. The list of passengers of alien descent required by section 8 of the act of February 20, 1907, to be prepared by the master of a vessel (Form 2500) shall not be combined or joined, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

Where no separate manifest is required by the foregoing instructions, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from any possession of the United States to any port therein, it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, their last and future permanent addresses, whether they have been previously in the United States, and if so, how long, whether they have been naturalized or not, their calling or occupation, whether they are able to read or write, whether they have a ticket through to their destination, whether their passage is paid by themselves or others, whether they have in their possession more than $50 in money, whether they are in possession of a through ticket, the country to which they belong, and the country in which they intend to reside, the place of their last permanent residence, and the final destination of each alien, so far as known, and such other information tending to the proper identification of each alien as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to each such alien, before he leaves the vessel, a card containing a printed notice, in such languages as the Secretary of Labor shall direct, stating the provisions of this section and section 37 of this act, and the penalties for violation thereof. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists or cards, or to answer truthfully and correctly any question relative to the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel who shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector to enter such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same and the persons thereon, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board such vessel when requested so to do by such inspector, or who shall refuse to deliver to such inspector any such alien detained on board such vessel, or who shall refuse to carry such alien to the port at which such inspector is stationed for examination, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel who shall refuse to comply with the provisions of this section relative to the delivery of lists of passengers and the procuring of the signature of each alien thereto, and to the production of such aliens to the inspection officers at the time and place required by this section, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered or as to whose production he is not made as above required, and such sum may be recovered by suit or proceeding by the United States district attorney in the district in which the port of entry is located or in which the vessel may be found at the time such suit or proceeding is instituted. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any fine, penalty, or forfeiture, or any part thereof, incurred or accrued under the provisions of this section, upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just and proper. No bond taken for the delivery of any vessel shall be discharged until all the requirements of this section have been complied with, and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers while any fine, penalty, or forfeiture incurred under the provisions of this section remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the payment of any fine imposed for the unlawful landing of any alien, upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to cover such fine, and while the question of the remission of such fine is pending before the Secretary of Labor, but no such clearance shall operate as a remission of any such fine. If a vessel shall depart without clearance, the master, agent, owner, or consignee thereof shall be liable to the same penalty as for failure to deliver lists. The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper execution of the provisions of this section, and may change the form of the lists required by this section, and may require such additional information to be furnished as he may deem necessary for the proper identification of the various classes of aliens coming into the United States.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and shall not then be granted unless returns of inspection by the administrative officers concerned, as required by section 37 of said act, have been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or belonging to such territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States from any foreign vessel or vessel of the United States from any place outside thereof, except temporarily for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such seaman under the immediate supervision of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any such seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, to the country to which his passage is paid or in which he last resided prior to coming to the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or belonging to such territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States from any vessel such seaman (other than a member of the crew) as may be certified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that he is in good health (including freedom from any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease), and that he has been specially examined by him and in his opinion is not afflicted with any mental disease or defect, and that he is not an anarchist, or a person who believes in or advocates or is affiliated with any organization that believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, and that he is not a person who is coming to perform labor contrary to the provisions of section 3 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, and that he is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consular officer at the port of departure, except that the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the production of passports by seamen employed on vessels plying between ports of the United States and foreign contiguous territory. Such seaman shall be entered at the footwise immigration office at the port of arrival and shall be reported by the master of the vessel to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure. Such seaman shall be required to depart on the vessel on which he arrived or on some other vessel leaving the port to the country to which his passage is paid or in which he last resided prior to coming to the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall in his discretion permit him to depart otherwise or to remain temporarily in the United States as a member of the crew of a vessel or otherwise. Such seaman, if not a citizen of the United States, who violates any condition upon which he was admitted or who remains in the United States for a longer time than permitted by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, to the country to which his passage is paid or in which he last resided prior to coming to the United States. Such seaman shall be deported on the vessel bringing him to the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall in his discretion permit him to depart otherwise or to remain temporarily in the United States as a member of the crew of a vessel or otherwise. Such seaman, if not a citizen of the United States, who violates any condition upon which he was admitted or who remains in the United States for a longer time than permitted by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, to the country to which his passage is paid or in which he last resided prior to coming to the United States.

(b) Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel bringing to the United States any seaman who is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities described in subdivision (a) of this section, other than one who has been granted a visé by the consular officer at the port of departure, shall be required to take such seaman back on the vessel on which he arrived or on some other vessel leaving the port to the country to which his passage is paid or in which he last resided prior to coming to the United States, and shall also be required to pay the cost of maintenance while detained at a hospital and the expenses incident to his removal, unless the Secretary of Labor shall in his discretion permit him to land temporarily for medical treatment. Such seaman, if not a citizen of the United States, who violates any condition upon which he was admitted or who remains in the United States for a longer time than permitted by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, to the country to which his passage is paid or in which he last resided prior to coming to the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which the alien arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Hans Olaf Andersen, master of the "Gudrun", do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, brought in said vessel from and port or place during her present voyage, so far as the same can be ascertained by me, and that I have not, nor has any person to my knowledge or belief, secreted or attempted to land any of the crew mentioned in the foregoing list, except as follows: None, and that I will not land any of the crew mentioned in the foregoing list, except as follows: None, without the permission of the proper officer, and that I will deliver to the proper officer at the time of departure of the vessel from this port a correct list of the crew, including any additions that may be made to the crew after the list is signed and before departure, and that I will not carry any person to this country who has been refused a visé to his passport by the consular officer at the port of departure, unless I shall have been authorized to do so by the Secretary of Labor, and that I will not land any person who has been refused admission to the United States by the immigration officers at any port, unless I shall have been authorized to do so by the Secretary of Labor.

Sworn to before me this 23rd day of November, 1927.

Sec. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens on board, which lists shall be in the exact form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof. Such lists shall contain such additional information concerning each alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and the master or commanding officer of each vessel shall answer all questions touching the same. Such lists shall be delivered at each port of arrival in the United States to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port, and no such vessel shall depart from such port until such lists have been delivered: Provided, That in case of the sickness or death of the master or commanding officer, the first officer, second officer, purser, or surgeon, in the order named, shall perform the duties imposed by this section upon the master or commanding officer, and shall be subject to the penalties prescribed for failure of the master or commanding officer to perform such duties: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, require the master or commanding officer of any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place to deliver to the immigrant inspector at such port a list containing the names of all persons on board who are not citizens of the United States, together with such information as he may deem necessary in addition to that required in the manifest prescribed in section 4 of this Act, and may refuse clearance to any vessel the master or commanding officer of which shall fail or refuse to deliver such list or to furnish such additional information.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 30 have been furnished, and not then unless, unless of the alien to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 hereof has been waived, the deposit specified in Rule 55 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

Sec. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any vessel engaged in the coastwise trade, or employed on board any such vessel, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has issued to such seaman a permit to land, which permit shall be granted only upon a certificate by the medical examiner, or upon the affidavit of the master or commanding officer of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived, or of the agent, consignee, owner, or charterer of such vessel, that such alien seaman will be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, and that a sufficient number of the crew of such vessel will be present to identify such alien seaman. Such permit may be revoked by the Secretary of Labor, or by any officer in charge of any port of the United States, at any time within five years after the entry of such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall depart on the vessel on which he arrived or some other vessel in the service of the same owner, or pay the cost of his transportation to the port of departure, unless he shall satisfy the Secretary of Labor that he has become a bona fide resident of the United States. Any alien seaman who fails to depart as required by this section shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall thereafter be refused admission to the United States. Any master or commanding officer who knowingly employs any alien seaman in violation of this section, or who fails to detain any such alien seaman on board his vessel when ordered so to do, or who fails to report the illness or hospital treatment of any such alien seaman, or who fails to deliver any such alien seaman who has been ordered deported to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure of the vessel from the United States, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom any such default occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of any question relating to the payment of any penalty incurred under this section, but clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deposit such readmittance by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman in such cases time to be deducted on another vessel of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act

I, _____, master [or commanding officer, or first or second officer, as the case may be] of the _____, do solemnly swear that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from one port or place during her present voyage. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port, at least [illegible] before the vessel is due to arrive. The list of aliens or alien members of the crews (Form 96) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an alien seaman is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and calling of each alien, as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe. And after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as ascertained, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with the information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed on board at the time of the arrival and who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired or shipped, and the names of those who have left the vessel since the last list was delivered; and for failure to comply with the provisions of this section the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall be severally liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs in the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs in the customs district in which the port of departure is located pending the determination of the liability to the payment thereof, and such clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain shore leave upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or defray alien treatment by the immigration officer of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of a change in the immigration laws, or to the refusal of the country to which he would be returned to accept him, and such vessel shall depart from the United States without the alien seaman, the master, agent, consignee, and owner shall not be granted clearance until such expenses has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Section 35 of the immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, temporarily for shipping, or otherwise, or his assignee to such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has issued a certificate that such alien seaman has been duly registered and has been granted a permit to land temporarily for shipping, or otherwise, or has left the United States. Before such certificate is issued, each such alien seaman shall be examined by the immigration officer, and such examination shall include a physical examination by the medical examiner, or such alien seaman may be required to be detained on board until such examination is completed. Any alien seaman who fails to depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who departs from the United States without having been granted a permit to land temporarily for shipping, or otherwise, or who fails to report to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival from

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, master (first officer, second officer, or engineer) of the _____ "_____" now at _____, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 30 of the United States Immigration Law and of paragraph 2, subdivision (b), Immigration Rule 6, which appears below.

Sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19__.

Immigrant Inspector

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list of changes or alien members of crews (Form 6A) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an alternate seaman is a "noncitizen," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens embarked on such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and destination of each such alien, as far as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigrant inspector, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel. Except a description of such alien, inspectors may further limit the information called for by lists and reports required by this section to be delivered to such immigration officer.

SEC. 39. That it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each alien who may land from such vessel at the time of the arrival but who may later leave for foreign countries the manifest of all aliens embarked who were not originally destined at the time of the arrival but who may later leave for foreign countries, such manifest to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of such alien from the United States. Any person, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to each immigrant alien a manifest as required by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to answer questions relative thereto, or to furnish information in relation to the cost of the passage paid by such alien and the sum of money he has with him upon landing, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offense.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 32 hereof has been furnished, and not then unless, unless the master of the vessel is in the administrative class prescribed by section 31 hereof, has been issued a visa by a consular officer as provided in Rule 22 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 14. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent thereto, temporarily or definitely, or departation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 15. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent thereto, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such physical condition as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, temporary or definitive, of such alien from the United States.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent thereto, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens embarked on such vessel, showing the nationality, last residence, and destination of each such alien, as far as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel. Except a description of such alien, inspectors may further limit the information called for by lists and reports required by this section to be delivered to such immigration officer at the port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of this alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall be required to keep such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Penalties shall be paid as fines and penalties under the provisions of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent thereto, or that he was refunded by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport such alien seaman on board after such inspection by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of this alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall be required to keep such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(f) Penalties shall be paid as fines and penalties under the provisions of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent thereto, or that he was refunded by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport such alien seaman on board after such inspection by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(g) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

(h) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port. The list or lists of passengers of alien immigrants intended for landing at the first port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or lists shall contain the names of all persons, including the crew, who are to be examined on board, but shall be completed by the immigrant inspector at the port.

A "stateroom" is a room or cabin on board a vessel, other than a steerage compartment, used for the accommodation of passengers.

Write an arrival number in the first column before the name of each passenger, beginning with number 1 and numbering consecutively. Write the name of each passenger, including all members of his family and all persons traveling with or under the care of another passenger, in the second column. Write the age of each passenger in the third column, and write "under 1" if the age is less than 1 year. Write the sex of each passenger in the fourth column. Write the calling or occupation of each passenger in the fifth column. Write the nationality of each passenger in the sixth column. Write the last permanent residence of each passenger in the seventh column. Write the final destination of each passenger in the eighth column. Write the name and address of the nearest relative or friend of each passenger who is not going to join him or her at destination in the ninth column. Write the amount of money in possession of each passenger in the tenth column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger has a ticket reaching his or her final destination in the eleventh column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger has been in prison, almshouse, asylum, or hospital, or supported by charity in the twelfth column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger is a polygamist in the thirteenth column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger is an anarchist in the fourteenth column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger has ever been in the United States before, and if so, when and where, in the fifteenth column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger is coming to join a husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, child, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece, and if so, to whom and what relationship, in the sixteenth column. Write "yes" or "no" to show whether each passenger has a ticket or money to pay his or her way to the ultimate destination in the seventeenth column. Write the sex and race or people of each passenger in the eighteenth column, using the words and abbreviations given at the head of the list. Write the height of each passenger in the nineteenth column. Write the complexion, color of hair, and color of eyes of each passenger in the twentieth column. Write any visible marks of identification of each passenger in the twenty-first column. Write the name of the city, town, or village of the native home of each passenger in the twenty-second column.

The Form 6001 list as often examined did not appear about the entering manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any other outlying territory, or island possession of the United States, or from the Panama Canal Zone, or from any foreign port or place, but was prepared by the master of such vessel as a substitute for the list or lists required to be delivered to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival. The Form 6001 list as now used is prepared by the master of such vessel at the port of departure in the United States, or in the Panama Canal Zone, or at the first port of call in case the vessel has touched at a foreign port before arriving at the port of arrival, and is delivered to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival in the United States. The Form 6001 list as now used is not required to show the names of persons who embarked at any port in the United States, Panama Canal Zone, or at any foreign port or place other than the last port or place of departure from which the vessel sailed for the United States, but only the names of persons who embarked at the last port or place of departure from which the vessel sailed for the United States. The Form 6001 list as now used is not required to show the names of persons who have been in the United States before and are returning after a temporary visit abroad, but only the names of persons who have been admitted to the United States for permanent residence and are returning after a temporary visit abroad.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, whether the inspection officer in charge of the port of arrival has or has not boarded such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, and whether such vessel is about to depart or not immediately upon her arrival, and such lists shall be prepared and delivered in such manner and form and contain such particulars concerning each alien employed on such vessel as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe. And after the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States no master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof shall permit any such alien employed on such vessel to land in the United States before the inspection of such alien has been completed and a permit to land has been granted, except in case of accident, illness, or unavoidable delay, or for the purpose of inspection, detention, or hospital treatment, under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe, and any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined for each such violation not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any such alien who lands in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse to permit the landing in the United States of any such alien employed on any vessel arriving at a port of the United States who has been afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and may cause any such alien to be sent back on the vessel bringing him to the port from which such vessel sailed, or to the country to which such vessel belongs, or to the country in which such alien shall have embarked upon such vessel.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and in case of vessels not required to make entry, such lists must be delivered to the collector of customs at the port of departure before clearance is granted. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 32 of this Act has been furnished, and in the event such list is not delivered prior to the actual departure of the vessel from the port, the master shall be fined not more than $1,000.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. (a) Any alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States pursuant to law, employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman who has been employed on board any vessel which arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, and who shall have failed to depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, or who has failed to obtain an immediate transportation to a foreign port, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he were a person who had entered the United States unlawfully. Any such alien seaman (except one who has been admitted to the United States for permanent residence) shall be ineligible to citizenship.

(b) Any such alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he were a person who had entered the United States unlawfully. Any such alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be ineligible to citizenship.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place will not be accomplished by the master of such vessel, or the owner thereof, when required so to do, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall be liable to the collector of customs at the port from which such deportation is effected in the amount of the expenses incurred by the Secretary of Labor in such deportation, which amount may be recovered by the United States in a civil suit. If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman cannot be effected within a reasonable time after the time when he is entitled to be deported, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken before a United States commissioner, and such commissioner shall proceed in the manner provided by section 4 of the Act of February 5, 1917, with respect to the refusal of an alien to depart from the United States. Any such alien seaman who shall not be deported within one year after the time when he is entitled to be deported shall be forever debarred from admission to the United States.

(d) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(e) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(f) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(g) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(h) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(i) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(j) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(k) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(l) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(m) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(n) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(o) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

(p) The Secretary of Labor shall not grant clearance to any vessel which has been notified by the Secretary of Labor that it has on board any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported, or who has been taken before a United States commissioner for deportation, until such alien seaman has been deported or such vessel has been released as provided in this section.

The list does not include persons in transit to foreign countries, persons in charge of cattle, or persons employed in bona fide service in the cabin of any vessel. The list of aliens is to be prepared by the master or agent of the vessel, and a copy thereof delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival at the time of the vessel's entry. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such list, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board of such vessel for the purpose of examining the list, or who refuses to deliver to such inspector a correct list of the aliens on board of such vessel, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien whose name is not correctly stated in the list, and in addition thereto a penalty of $20 for each alien who is not duly reported and for whom a certificate is not produced, or whose failure to report or produce certificate is not satisfactorily explained to the inspector in charge. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses to pay the head tax levied by section 1 of the act of March 3, 1903, upon any alien immigrant entitled thereto under the provisions of said act, shall be liable to the United States for the amount of said tax, which may be sued for and recovered by the United States district attorney in the district in which the port of arrival is located.

SEC. 38. That there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon each and every alien, including alien seamen, now or hereafter admitted into the United States, except those specifically exempted by law, a tax of $8 to be paid into the same fund and to be collected by the same officers as the head tax provided for in section 1 of this Act, which alien shall, at the time of his application for admission to the United States, pay in addition to the head tax provided for in said section 1, and which tax shall be refunded in the event that such alien is not admitted to the United States: Provided, That the tax provided for in this section shall not be levied or collected from any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad: Provided further, That the tax provided for in this section shall not be levied or collected from any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who shall have remained therein continuously for a period of two years subsequent to the payment of the tax which may have been levied or collected upon his admission to the United States, and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad: Provided further, That the tax provided for in this section shall not be levied or collected from any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who shall have remained therein continuously for a period of five years subsequent to the payment of the tax which may have been levied or collected upon his admission to the United States, and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad: Provided further, That no alien who has been admitted to the United States shall be deported, unless such deportation shall be found by the Secretary of Labor to be prejudicial to the interests of the United States, or unless such alien shall become a charge to the public within two years after the date of his entry into the United States from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent thereto.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

That subdivision B of Rule 7 of the Regulations governing the admission of aliens to the United States, approved February 5, 1917, is hereby amended to read as follows:

B. Aliens who are in possession of unexpired visas issued prior to the effective date of the Act of February 5, 1917, may be admitted, if otherwise admissible, upon the presentation of such visas, subject to the provisions of section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and of section 16 of these rules.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and contracting to depart therefrom as a seaman shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization to which he may be taken after such landing, or for such other reasonable cause as may be prescribed by rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be deported on the vessel or other conveyance on which he arrived or on another vessel or conveyance at the cost of the owners of the vessel on which he arrived. Such seaman shall be placed on board such vessel or conveyance before it departs from the port of arrival, and the master or agent of such vessel or conveyance shall be given a receipt for such seaman. Any master or agent of any vessel or other conveyance who refuses or fails to receive on board any alien seaman ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be deported on such vessel or conveyance, or who refuses or fails to deport such seaman as required, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom such failure occurs. Any alien seaman who shall come to the United States in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall cause a careful inspection to be made of each vessel arriving at the ports of the United States from any place outside the United States, before the departure of such vessel therefrom, for the purpose of ascertaining the number of aliens employed thereon, and the sanitary conditions existing with respect to them, and may refuse clearance to any such vessel if the provisions of this section have been violated.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, master, agent, consignee, or charterer of a vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof shall not permit any alien seaman employed on board such vessel to land in the United States from such vessel, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization to which he may be taken after such landing, or for such other reasonable cause as may be prescribed by rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Labor, unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid passport and an unexpired visa, if a visa is required by section 2 of this Act, or is in possession of a special permit issued by the Secretary of Labor in his discretion to such alien seaman entitling him to land, and unless such alien seaman is in the service of the vessel at the time of arrival and intends to depart on the vessel on which he arrives or on some other vessel. Any alien seaman who lands in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States.

(b) The owner, master, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien seaman to the United States who is required by section 2 of this Act to be in possession of a valid passport and visa, or special permit, shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a complete list of all such alien seamen on board, stating their full names, nationalities, last permanent addresses, and such other facts concerning them as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, owner, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who fails to deliver such list, or who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to go on board of such vessel for the purpose of examining the list, or who refuses to deliver to such inspector a correct list of the aliens on board of such vessel, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien whose name is not correctly stated in the list, and in addition thereto a penalty of $20 for each alien who is not duly reported and for whom a certificate is not produced, or whose failure to report or produce certificate is not satisfactorily explained to the inspector in charge. Any master, agent, owner, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who refuses or fails to pay the head tax levied by section 1 of this Act upon any alien immigrant entitled thereto under the provisions of said section, shall be liable to the United States for the amount of said tax, which may be sued for and recovered by the United States district attorney in the district in which the port of arrival is located.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such other vessel to which deportation is authorized by this section to be deported on another vessel at the expense of

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival sufficiently in advance of the vessel's arrival at the port to permit the inspection of the passengers and crew and the collection of the head tax. The list of aliens on other vessels arriving at the port of arrival and shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port. (Form 598) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an affidavit accompanies it a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons on board such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and destination of each such person, and such other information regarding each such person as may be required by the Secretary of Labor and by the rules and regulations prescribed to carry into effect the provisions of this act. Such lists shall be arranged in such manner, and shall contain such additional information relative to each such person, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor and by the rules and regulations prescribed to carry into effect the provisions of this act. Such lists shall be prepared in duplicate, one of which shall be delivered to the master of the vessel upon the completion of the inspection of the vessel by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall be produced by him upon the request of any other immigration officer at any subsequent port at which the vessel may call before the departure for foreign ports. Such additional information shall be furnished by masters of vessels in connection with inquiries made at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of first arrival as to the right of any particular alien to enter the United States, or as may be necessary for the proper enforcement of this act and the rules and regulations made pursuant thereto, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. Any master who shall refuse or fail to deliver any list required of him by this section, or who shall refuse or fail to furnish any additional information required by any immigration officer pursuant to the provisions of this section, or who shall refuse or fail to detain any alien on board his vessel when directed so to do by any immigration officer, or who shall refuse or fail to comply with the regulations of the Secretary of Labor governing the admission of aliens to vessels, or who shall land or permit to land any alien from his vessel at any port in violation of this act, shall pay a penalty of $10 for each such alien with respect to whom any such violation occurs.

SEC. 37. (a) That it shall be unlawful for any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel to bring to the United States from any foreign port or place any alien who is afflicted with any of the loathsome or dangerous contagious diseases hereinafter named, or who has been deported under the provisions of this act, and no such master, agent, owner, or consignee shall allow any such alien to land from such vessel at any port or place in the United States, unless and until such alien shall have been duly inspected by the proper immigration officer and found not to be afflicted with such disease or not to be such deported alien, as the case may be, and shall have been granted a certificate to that effect by such officer: Provided, That in case of the refusal of any such master, agent, owner, or consignee to comply with the provisions of this section with respect to any alien, he shall pay a penalty of $200 for each such alien, and in addition shall be liable to the cost of the maintenance of such alien during the time he is detained by the immigration officers, and in case such alien shall be ordered deported and such master, agent, owner, or consignee shall fail to return such alien to the foreign port from which he came, or to some other foreign port which will accept such alien, he shall pay a penalty of $300 in addition to the cost of maintenance and the cost of the return of such alien.

(b) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section to any alien who was in the United States prior to the date of the passage of this act, and who is found by the Secretary of Labor to have been a bona fide resident of the United States since such date, and who is returning to the United States after a temporary absence.

(c) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section to any alien who is returning to the United States after having been lawfully admitted thereto for permanent residence if such alien was in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa at the time of his last departure from the United States, if such application for waiver is made prior to the sailing of the vessel on which such alien has booked passage.

(d) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien afflicted with any of the diseases named in subdivision (a) of this section, or who shall bring into the United States any alien who has been deported, unless such alien has received from the Secretary of Labor a certificate to the effect that the case of such alien has been duly considered by the Secretary of Labor and that the permit of such alien to enter the United States is not inconsistent with the public welfare, and that such transportation has been authorized by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the information required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and no fines, charges, or exactions of whatever character in excess of the head tax provided by section 34 of said Act shall be imposed upon any such vessel or the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof, nor shall any vessel be detained for any cause after the master has reported and submitted his vessel for inspection, except in the case of quarantine, until the inspection has been completed and the master notified that the vessel may proceed, unless notice of intention to take action is given before the vessel is ready to depart, in which case a reasonable time, not exceeding 24 hours, will be allowed for the completion of the action.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. (a) An alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except under rules, temporary or otherwise, to be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and solely for the purpose of and during the time of the departure of the vessel from such port, or, in the case of his discharge, during the time he is detained for deportation, but for no longer period than five days, unless further detained by the immigration officials or by the order of a court or judge of the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States for any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except under rules, temporary or otherwise, to be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, from any foreign seaman (other than a seaman employed on a vessel plying between ports of the United States exclusively) or from any person (other than a citizen of the United States) employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, a sum sufficient to cover the cost of maintenance, while detained, of each such seaman or person, pending the completion of the inspection of such seaman or person by the proper immigration officers, and the payment of the hospital dues, if any, and the return passage money required by this section in the case of such seaman or person. Such sum shall be refunded to the person who deposited it, or his legal representative, upon the departure of such seaman or person from the United States, or upon the deportation of such seaman or person, as the case may be, or upon the granting to such seaman or person of the right to enter the United States, or upon the payment of the hospital dues, if any, and the return passage money required by this section in the case of such seaman or person. Such sum shall be refunded to the person who deposited it, or his legal representative, upon the departure of such seaman or person from the United States, or upon the deportation of such seaman or person, as the case may be, or upon the granting to such seaman or person of the right to enter the United States, or upon the payment of the hospital dues, if any, and the return passage money required by this section in the case of such seaman or person.

(b) A bond shall be required in the case of each alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, in the sum of $300 for each such alien seaman, conditioned that such alien seaman shall depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel departing for a foreign port within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and that such alien seaman shall not become a public charge before departing from the United States. Such bond shall be executed by the master, agent, owner, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, and by a surety company holding a certificate of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury under sections 1 to 10, inclusive, of the Act of August 13, 1894, as amended (U.S.C., title 6, secs. 6 to 15, inclusive), as surety thereon, in lieu of the deposit required by subdivision (a) of this section. Such bond shall be delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, and shall be available for the deportation of such alien seaman. Suit may be instituted on such bond in the name of the United States in the district in which the port of arrival is located for the recovery of the penalty provided for in this subdivision.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel or within the time allowed by the master, agent, owner, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived is impracticable or inconvenient, or that the best interests of the United States will be served thereby, he may cause such alien seaman to be detained in the United States and may cause suit upon the bond to be instituted in the name of the United States for the recovery of the penalty provided for in this subdivision.

(d) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien seaman who has been deported under the provisions of this act, and who shall not have been specially admitted to the United States by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section, or who shall fail to depart on the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel departing for a foreign port within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(f) If any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section, or who shall fail to depart on the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel departing for a foreign port within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be found at any time thereafter in the United States, he shall be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law.

(g) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien seaman who has been deported under the provisions of this act, and who shall not have been specially admitted to the United States by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(h) If any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section, or who shall fail to depart on the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel departing for a foreign port within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be found at any time thereafter in the United States, he shall be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law.

(i) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section to any alien who was in the United States prior to the date of the passage of this act, and who is found by the Secretary of Labor to have been a bona fide resident of the United States since such date, and who is returning to the United States after a temporary absence.

(j) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section to any alien who is returning to the United States after having been lawfully admitted thereto for permanent residence if such alien was in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa at the time of his last departure from the United States, if such application for waiver is made prior to the sailing of the vessel on which such alien has booked passage.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on said vessel, arranged in the following manner: The names of the members of the crew shall be entered separately, and the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or conveyed, and the capacity in which they intend to land, so far as known; or, if they are continuing on board of such vessel, whether they intend to depart from the port of arrival or from some other port of the United States; and such other information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the proper identification of said members of the crew. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer and by the person who transcribed the same, and shall be delivered in duplicate to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or manager of any such vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the time of the arrival of such vessel the lists required by this section, or who refuses to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed upon such vessel at the time of its departure from the port of arrival and not mentioned in the lists theretofore delivered, or who refuses to make oath to the lists required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or manager of any such vessel who knowingly conceals, removes, or permits the concealment or removal of any alien employed upon such vessel, with intent to prevent the same from being listed and reported to the immigration officer as required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any alien employed upon such vessel who fails to appear before the immigration officer at the time of the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, as shown by the lists required by this section to be delivered to such officer, shall be deemed to be a person who has remained in the United States in violation of law, unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such failure was occasioned by illness or other cause beyond the control of such alien, and that he has not remained in the United States in violation of law.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 4. Quarantine shall not be enforced upon vessels until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been inspected, and not then unless notice of inability to file satisfactory lists prescribed by said section or to land prescribed by section 25 of said Act may have been served, the period specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or intending to ship foreign seamen in the United States coastwise trade, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, casualty, accident, or emergency arising in the United States from any place outside thereof, and then only under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the proper identification and detention on board vessel of such seamen.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if ordered by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district at which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each such seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the district to the purchaser of a vessel sold while under seizure for violation of the immigration laws, or to the master thereof, or to any other person in behalf of such purchaser, until the fine has been paid or remitted or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a member, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival, and shall be so delivered by the master of every vessel carrying passengers to the United States (Form 6k8) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant immigration officer at the port.

When an alternate manifest is authorized by the Secretary of Labor, the master of every vessel arriving at the port of arrival from a foreign port shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a passenger list or manifest in such alternate form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, which shall contain the names of all aliens who have been admitted to the United States at any time previous to the departure of the vessel from the foreign port, and who are on board the vessel when it arrives at the port of arrival, and the names of all aliens on board who have been lawfully admitted to the United States who have been in foreign countries visited by the vessel at any time since their admission, and who are on board the vessel when it arrives at the port of arrival, and the names of all aliens on board who are destined to the United States, and such other information respecting each and all of said aliens as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. All cases in which visa has been granted shall be noted on the manifest.

Any master who knowingly or negligently shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival any such list or manifest which is incorrect or incomplete in any material particular, other than as to matters which may arise after the vessel shall have left the last foreign port at which she touches on her way to the United States, shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom such correct list or manifest is not delivered, in addition to any other penalty which may be imposed by law: Provided, That the master of any vessel who shall have satisfied the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival that he had complied with the requirements of this section as to any alien on board his vessel, and that the failure to deliver a correct list or manifest as to such alien was occasioned by the fraudulent concealment of such alien by any other person, may make oath to that fact before the immigrant inspector, and his vessel shall thereupon be granted clearance papers as though such correct list or manifest had been delivered as to such alien.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival by vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee, or the person in charge of the port of arrival [and conform to the manner in all matters connected therewith] to deliver to the immigrant immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival [and conform to the manner in all matters connected therewith] to deliver to the immigrant immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all aliens [including any accompanying wife or minor children] who may be on board such vessel, whether they have been admitted to the United States or not, and whether they have been lawfully admitted to the United States or not, and whether they have been in foreign countries visited by the vessel at any time since their admission, and who are on board the vessel when it arrives at the port of arrival, and the names of all aliens on board who are destined to the United States, such list or manifest to be prepared in the manner required by the Secretary of Labor, and to be delivered on blanks furnished by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival: or [here conform to manner in which lists are now required to be prepared by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of vessels arriving at the ports of the United States from foreign countries, and delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival] and such list or manifest shall be prepared in the manner and in addition to the matters required by the Secretary of Labor as to the names and nationality of aliens, their last residence, their destination, whether they have been in prison or almshouse or institution for the insane or supported by charity, whether they have a ticket to their destination, whether they have the price of transportation, whether their transportation is paid for by others, whether they are in possession of money, and how much, whether they are coming to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and addresses, whether they have been in the United States before, and if so when and how long they resided here, whether they have been in prison or almshouse or institution for the insane or supported by charity, whether they are coming under contract or agreement to perform labor, their calling or occupation, whether they are able to read or write, their age, sex, marital condition, race, and personal description, and the place of birth of each alien, the name and last known address of the husband, wife, parent, grandparent, or other relative in the country whence he came who is related to him, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien with respect to whom such refusal or neglect occurs. The Secretary of Labor may remit any penalty or portion thereof imposed under this section when it appears that the same was incurred without intention to violate its provisions.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and no such vessel shall depart from the limits of the administrative port intercepted by such section or to that intercepted by section 36 of said act.

Part of paragraph seven, the words stricken out in this 35 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof destined to any port in the United States, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the aliment, and such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917. Any alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917. Any alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the port of arrival from a foreign contiguous territory, or any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall refuse to permit any immigrant inspector to board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has issued a permit therefor, or who shall refuse to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has issued a permit therefor, or who shall refuse to detain any alien seaman (whether immigrant or not) when ordered by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to detain such seaman on board, after such inspection or to deport such seaman if employed by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the determination of the inability to land is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located while any such alien seaman remains on board, after such inspection or after the expiration of such time subsequent to the determination of such inability to land as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted upon the deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That if any alien seaman did not appear upon the conclusion inspection of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or if any alien seaman has been taken from any vessel arriving

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector before the vessel's departure from the port of arrival. The list of aliens on board must be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. If there is no such officer at the port, the master must deliver the list to the collector of customs. Where no list is required, the master must report to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the number of aliens in each class on board.

W'hen an arriving seaman is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel. Separate lists for seamen and for cabin passengers must be delivered if the vessel carries both classes of passengers. The lists of aliens must be verified by the oath of such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to the correctness thereof, and before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival such lists must be delivered to the duly authorized immigrant inspector in charge of such port. Such lists shall be prepared in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such information with respect to each alien, together with any information likely to lead to the apprehension and deportation of any such alien found unlawfully in the United States, as the Secretary of Labor may require. Such information shall be given by each alien when called upon by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival or by any person designated by him for the purpose. Upon the refusal of any alien to answer any question relative to his right to enter the United States, he shall be detained and his case reported for the consideration of the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who refuses to deliver such lists, or refuses to answer any question relative to any alien on board such vessel, or who knowingly or willfully lands any alien in violation of law, or who refuses to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or any officer of the United States authorized to issue such order, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to enter such vessel for the purpose of examining the same, or who refuses to allow any such inspector to question any alien on board such vessel in relation to matters contained in the manifest, or who refuses to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or any officer of the United States authorized to issue such order, or who refuses to allow any such alien to be taken before the proper immigrant inspector, or who refuses to comply with the provisions of this section relating to the payment of the head tax of any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any violation of this section occurs, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master may be arrested either before or after the departure of his vessel from the port, and may be prosecuted and punished in the district in which he is found as if the offense had been committed in that district. Jurisdiction of such offenses is hereby conferred upon the district courts of the United States and the district courts of the Territories, and the United States commissioners shall have power, upon information or complaint, to issue warrants for the arrest of masters, owners, agents, consignees, or masters charged with violations of this section, and to hold them to bail for appearance before the district court of the United States or the district court of the Territory having jurisdiction of the offense.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the alien certificate required by section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless duplicate thereof has been delivered to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to some person designated by section 38 of said Act.

Immigrant inspectors will be stationed at such ports as the Commissioner General of Immigration may from time to time designate, and masters of vessels will be required to report to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port before the vessel is entered at the customhouse. Masters will be required to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port lists of all aliens on board their vessels, which lists shall be prepared in accordance with the following instructions:

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival. Lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival. If there is no such officer at the port, the master must deliver the list to the collector of customs. Where no list is required, the master must report to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival the number of aliens in each class on board.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, touching at any port or place in the United States and then departing therefrom for any foreign port or place, or for any port or place in any insular possession of the United States (except Philippine ports), shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or on account of the vessel being quarantined, or for the purpose of changing vessels, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and such seaman shall be deported as provided in this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States, except as aforesaid, shall be deported as provided in this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States, except as aforesaid, shall be deported as provided in this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States, except as aforesaid, shall be deported as provided in this Act.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien contrary to the provisions of section 18 shall be notified by the Secretary of Labor, or such immigrant inspector as he may designate, of the illegal landing of such alien, specifying the facts relating thereto, and if such alien is not immediately taken on board such vessel and removed from the United States by the vessel on which he arrived or by another vessel owned by the owner of the vessel on which he arrived, or by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, or by some person or persons acting for any of them, within such period of time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding ninety days, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien so landed, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which the vessel may be found. Clearance of the vessel may be withheld or revoked in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor pending the final determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty. Pending such determination, the vessel may be required to furnish a bond in such sum, not exceeding the amount of such penalty, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, conditioned upon the payment of such penalty as may be finally determined upon against such vessel. Clearance may be granted such vessel upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty, or upon the giving of such bond. Upon the payment of such penalty, or any part thereof, the Secretary of Labor may remit such proportion thereof as he may think just and shall have the power to mitigate or cancel any such penalty or to discontinue any prosecution to recover the same. All such penalties shall accrue to the United States and be paid into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor finds that a deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector designated below by the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens on board such vessel, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be retained in the files of the immigration officer.

When an affidavit required by section 23 of the act of February 5, 1917, to be executed by the master or commanding officer, or first or second officer of the vessel, is executed before a consular officer, the consular officer will certify to the execution of such affidavit and shall transmit the list to the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, males and females separately, that may be admitted to land at such port, and specifying the ports at which they have severally been engaged, and the ports at which they intend to land, and also lists containing the names of all aliens employed on any vessel that may be admitted to land at such port, and specifying the ports at which they were last severally landed, the ports at which they intend to land, and the ports to which they are destined, and such information touching the right of any alien employed or to be employed to land in the United States as the Secretary of Labor may require. Such lists shall be produced on demand for examination by any immigrant inspector, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of any vessel failing to deliver such lists or to produce them for examination or for any vessel concerning whom any person has been landed contrary to the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien employed, landed, or concerned in the violation of this section, and may be arrested before such vessel shall be granted clearance by the collector of customs, and detained on board thereof until such penalty is paid or secured to be paid, or such vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States for the district in which such port is situated, and such penalty shall be a lien upon such vessel, and may be recovered by proceedings in rem for the enforcement of such lien; and such vessel may be seized and detained under process issued pursuant to such proceedings by any customs officer or any person authorized by the Secretary of Labor to make such seizure, until such penalty shall be paid or secured to be paid, or such vessel may be released as provided in the case of judicial sales of vessels for violation of the customs laws. The Secretary of Labor may issue to any master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of any vessel such permits and blanks as may be necessary to secure the compliance with the provisions of this section, and may prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this section, and may employ such inspectors and other employees as may be necessary for the enforcement of this section, and may fix their reasonable compensation and allow them necessary traveling expenses. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section, or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor for the enforcement of this section, or who knowingly makes any false statement or false report or false entry in any list required by this section to be delivered to any immigrant inspector, or who knowingly refuses to any immigrant inspector access to any vessel, or who knowingly refuses to answer any question relative to the information required by this section to be given to any immigrant inspector, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(a) Words added by section 38 of the act of February 5, 1917.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 36 of the act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of such vessel has given bond to the collector of customs in a penal sum equal to $10 for each alien concerning whom complaint is made that he has violated the provisions of said section, and for the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is not timely paid, the vessel may be seized and detained under process issued pursuant to the provisions of section 4378 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 1 of the act of February 24, 1911 (36 Stat., 925), and may be released by the Secretary of Labor, but no collector of customs or other officer shall issue a clearance to any vessel while such fine remains unpaid, except upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that such fine has been remitted.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 9. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as a sick or injured member of the crew, or to secure repatriation, or because of shipwreck, or other casualty or circumstance over which he had no control, pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or pending transportation or other disposition made of him by the Secretary of Labor. Such seaman may be required to enter into a bond in such amount and with such sureties as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that he will depart from the United States within the period specified by the Secretary of Labor, and will comply with such reasonable regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Such seaman may be granted a conditional landing certificate by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of obtaining surgical or other treatment, or for the purpose of awaiting transportation or other disposition made of him by the Secretary of Labor. Such certificate may be revoked by the Secretary of Labor at any time and the alien required to depart from the United States within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor. Such seaman may be granted a conditional landing certificate by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. The list of aliens or alien members of crews (Form 6raa) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. The list is not to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival in duplicate.

When an affidavit accompanies it a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival in the United States from any foreign port or upon the departure of any vessel from any port in the United States for any port without the limits of the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer in charge of any such vessel shall be required to deliver to the immigrant inspector at each port of arrival and departure a complete list or manifest of all the persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or members of the crew, and whether citizens of the United States or aliens, and whether they intend to land at such port or not, and shall indicate the sex, age, race, last permanent residence, calling or occupation, whether married or single, whether able to read or write, nationality, final destination if any, whether in possession of money in excess of $30 and the amount of money in his possession, whether in possession of a railroad or steamship ticket reaching to his ultimate destination, whether coming in whole or in part at the expense of the United States Government or any immigrant society or individual or any State or municipality, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, whether in the United States in pursuance of such contract or agreement, whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and his name and complete address, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind by any person or corporation, whether a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, whether a person who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining such a belief or advocating such overthrow, whether a person who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, and such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor regarding the age, literacy, and previous occupation and present location in the United States of relatives whose close relationship to the immigrant is claimed, and such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor may withhold or withdraw the right to any alien to enter the United States if in his judgment the best interests of the country require that such alien be excluded from admission to the United States. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of first arrival the list required by this section, or who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's departure from the United States the list required by this section, or who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's departure from any port in the United States to any port without the limits of the United States a list containing the names of all persons who have been taken on board such vessel at any port in the United States, or who refuses to deliver such additional lists or information concerning persons on board such vessel as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished and the master has made oath to the correctness of the list as required by section 37 of said Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 18. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, Santo Domingo, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Republic of Costa Rica, the Republic of Nicaragua, the Republic of Honduras, the Republic of Salvador, the Republic of Guatemala, the Republic of Colombia, the Republic of Ecuador, the Republic of Peru, the Republic of Chile, the Republic of Bolivia, the Republic of Paraguay, the Republic of Uruguay, the Republic of Argentina, the Republic of Brazil, Newfoundland, or the Dominion of Canada) or any place outside thereof (other than the United States) shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of an emergency, or for the actual period of the vessel's stay in port, or for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours, or for the period of time required to discharge and reship his entire crew, or for the period of time required to comply with the immigration laws, or for the period of time required to make repairs to the vessel, or for the period of time required to take on fuel or supplies, or for the period of time required to land and ship a substitute for the seaman to be replaced, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind on account of illness, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any of the immigration laws of the United States, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any law of the United States relating to the slave trade, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any law of the United States relating to the importation, harboring, or concealment of women for immoral purposes, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any law of the United States relating to peonage, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of the vessel on which any such alien seaman arrives shall deposit with the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a bond in the sum of $300 for each such alien seaman, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrives or on some other vessel within such period of time as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and that such alien seaman will not become a public charge, and that he will pay the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and the cost of his removal from the United States should he become a public charge, and that he will deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at the time of departure of the vessel from the United States on which he arrives or on such other vessel as may be designated by the immigrant inspector, or, if prevented by sickness, injury, or other cause found sufficient by the immigrant inspector from so doing, will present a sufficient substitute to deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at the time of departure of such other vessel, or will deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at such other time and place as may be designated by him: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirement that such bond be furnished in the case of any alien seaman who is a national of a country which has a consular officer at the port of arrival in the United States, if the government of such country will guarantee the return to such country of such alien seaman and the payment of the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and the cost of his removal from the United States should he become a public charge.

(b) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who is required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that immediately before sailing from the United States he be examined by the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of departure, shall pay to the collector of customs the sum of $2 for each such alien seaman (which fee shall be refunded by such immigration officer at the time of the departure of such alien seaman on board such vessel from the United States) for such examination by the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of departure, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $2 (50 cents in the case of a seaman who is a national of a country which has a consular officer at the port of arrival in the United States, if the government of such country will guarantee the return to such country of such alien seaman and the payment of the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and the cost of his removal from the United States should he become a public charge) for each such alien seaman to defray the cost of such examination, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $2 (50 cents in the case of a seaman who is a national of a country which has a consular officer at the port of arrival in the United States, if the government of such country will guarantee the return to such country of such alien seaman and the payment of the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and the cost of his removal from the United States should he become a public charge) for the head tax required by this section to be collected, unless such alien seaman is in transit to a foreign country, or unless such alien seaman has been admitted to the United States and has been granted a permit to land temporarily pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or unless such alien seaman has been granted a permit to land temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of an emergency, or for the actual period of the vessel's stay in port, or for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours, or for the period of time required to discharge and reship his entire crew, or for the period of time required to comply with the immigration laws, or for the period of time required to make repairs to the vessel, or for the period of time required to take on fuel or supplies, or for the period of time required to land and ship a substitute for the seaman to be replaced, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind on account of illness, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any of the immigration laws of the United States, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any law of the United States relating to the slave trade, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any law of the United States relating to the importation, harboring, or concealment of women for immoral purposes, or for the period of time required to land a seaman who has been left behind as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person or persons charged with violating any law of the United States relating to peonage, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of the vessel on which any such alien seaman arrives shall deposit with the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a bond in the sum of $300 for each such alien seaman, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrives or on such other vessel as may be designated by the immigrant inspector, or, if prevented by sickness, injury, or other cause found sufficient by the immigrant inspector from so doing, will present a sufficient substitute to deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at the time of departure of such other vessel, or will deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at such other time and place as may be designated by him: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such bond if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of the vessel on which any such alien seaman arrives deposits with the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a bond in the sum of $300 for each such alien seaman, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrives or on such other vessel as may be designated by the immigrant inspector, or, if prevented by sickness, injury, or other cause found sufficient by the immigrant inspector from so doing, will present a sufficient substitute to deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at the time of departure of such other vessel, or will deliver himself to the immigrant inspector at such other time and place as may be designated by him.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel or which he arrived has been effected to such satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Head taxes and fees collected by the masters of vessels as provided by this section shall be deducted from the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrives before clearance is granted by the immigration officer at the port of departure, shall be paid to the collector of customs, and by him covered into the Treasury of the United States; and if any such vessel shall depart from the United States without the payment of such taxes and fees, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of such vessel shall be liable to the United States for the amount of such taxes and fees.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman who has been granted a permit to land temporarily under the provisions of this section will be unduly delayed by the refusal of any consul to issue a passport to such alien seaman, or by the refusal of the government of the country to which such alien seaman is deported to accept him, the Secretary of Labor may cancel the permit to land temporarily granted such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall thereupon be subject to deportation in the same manner as if no permit had been granted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Records or separate manifests immediately precede the Master's affidavit. Each sheet should be numbered consecutively, and those which are not to be used should be marked "Void." The names of all members of a family should appear on the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

(HTTOE) ZALATA

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the limit of the Pizzo del Diavolo, Cardinale, Adalia, Tarentino, Capitale, Sicily, and Sardinia) and [illegible] (i.e., comprising all of Calabria, Taverna, the Abruzzi, the Campania, Latium, Rome, the Tuscan and the Emilian districts of Italy, Piedmont, Liguria, Lombardy, Venetia, and Istria) [illegible]..

Column 11 (Town or city).—Write Adalo, Tarentino, or Diavolo as the case may be, or the name of the city or town.

Column 12 (Final destination).—Write the name of the city or town in the United States in which the alien intends to reside.

Column 13 (Name of passenger).—Enter surname (family name) and given names in full, as in the following example: "Rossi, Antonio Giuseppe." Do not abbreviate or use initials. Wives and children should be entered in addition to the name of the husband or father, as in the following example: "Rossi, Maria Antonia; Rossi, Giuseppe Vincenzo; Rossi, Teresa Anna." Titles of nobility, such as "Duke," "Count," "Baron," etc., should be entered after the name, as in the following example: "Rossi, Giuseppe Vincenzo, Count."

Column 14 (Age).—Write the age of the person at his last birthday. If under 1 year, write "1/12" or "2/12" or "3/12," as appropriate, to indicate the number of months old.

Column 15 (Sex).—Write "M" for male, "F" for female.

Column 16 (Married or single).—Write "M" for married, "S" for single, "W" for widowed, "D" for divorced, as the case may be.

Column 17 (Occupation).—Write "Farmer" for all persons who have been engaged in farming, whether as owners, tenants, or laborers. Write "Laborer" for all persons who have been engaged in any occupation other than farming, unless they have been engaged in some skilled trade, in which case write the name of the trade, as "Carpenter," "Mason," "Tailor," "Shoemaker," "Blacksmith," "Engineer," "Clerk," "Merchant," "Peddler," "Servant," "Cook," "Barber," "Tailoress," "Dressmaker," "Milliner," "Seamstress," "Housekeeper," etc. Do not write "Laborer" after a trade has been specified.

Column 18 (Can read).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person can read.

Column 19 (Can write).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person can write.

Column 20 (Name of country).—Write the name of the country of which the person is a native. If a native of Italy, write the name of the province in which the person was born, as Adalo, Tarentino, Diavolo, Capitale, Sicily, Sardinia, Abruzzi, Campania, Latium, Rome, Tuscan, Emilian, Piedmont, Liguria, Lombardy, Venetia, or Istria.

Column 21 (Last permanent residence).—Write the name of the country in which the person has had a fixed permanent residence for a period of one year or more immediately prior to embarkation at the present port. Do not write "Italy" unless the person has had a permanent residence in Italy for one year or more. If the person has had a permanent residence for one year or more in any country other than Italy, write the name of such country. If the person has had no permanent residence in any country for one year or more, write "None."

Column 22 (Intending permanent residence).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person intends to become a permanent resident of the United States.

Column 23 (Ever in U. S. before).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has ever been in the United States before.

Column 24 (Ever in U. S., when).—If the person has been in the United States before, write the approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 25 (Ever in U. S., where).—If the person has been in the United States before, write the place in the United States to which admitted.

Column 26 (Ever in U. S., how long).—If the person has been in the United States before, write the length of time spent in the United States on last visit.

Column 27 (Final destination).—Write the name of the city or town in the United States to which the person is going.

Column 28 (Have ticket through).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has a ticket through to the place of final destination.

Column 29 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and name and complete address of such relative or friend).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is going to join a relative or friend, and write the name and complete address of such relative or friend.

Column 30 (Have you $50 in your possession, and how much?).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has at least $50 in his possession, and write the amount of money he has with him.

Column 31 (Whether in possession of railroad ticket to interior destination, and if so, where).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has a railroad ticket to his interior destination, and if so write the name of the railroad company which issued the ticket.

Column 32 (Whether ever before in prison or almshouse, or supported by charitable institution, and if so, what and when).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has ever been in prison or an almshouse or supported by a charitable institution, and if so write the name of the institution and the date.

Column 33 (Whether a polygamist).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is a polygamist.

Column 34 (Whether an anarchist).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is an anarchist.

Column 35 (Whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is coming under a contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States.

Column 36 (Whether deformed or crippled, and if so, how).—Write "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is deformed or crippled, and if so write the name of the deformity or crippling, as "Blind in right eye," "Deaf and dumb," "Lame right leg," "Amputated left arm," "Crippled right hand," "Hunchback," etc.

Column 37 (Height).—Write the height of the person in feet and inches.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port.

Any master of a vessel bringing an alien to the United States who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 12 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of departure the list required by section 7 of the act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States, approved March 3, 1903, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 10 of the act approved May 19, 1921, regulating the number of aliens admitted to the United States from foreign countries, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 2 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien not listed or improperly listed.

Any master of a vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 8 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of departure the list required by section 9 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien not listed or improperly listed.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States to deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, which list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, and any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of the United States such list or manifest, or who delivers a list or manifest which is incomplete, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such complete list or manifest is not delivered: Provided, That the master of any vessel who has on board thereof any alien who is destined to Canada, and who intends to enter the United States by land, shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a list containing the names of all such aliens, but the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall not be liable to any penalty in connection with the admission or rejection of such aliens if the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel has complied with the requirements of this section and the regulations made thereunder with respect to the preparation and delivery of such list: Provided further, That the master of any vessel who has on board thereof any alien who is destined to the United States shall not refuse to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a list containing the names of such aliens for the reason that any such alien is not destined to the port of arrival at which the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel is required by this section to deliver a list, but such master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall indicate in such list the port to which each such alien is destined, and if any such alien is destined to Canada and intends to enter the United States by land, the immigration officer at the port of arrival shall report the name of such alien to the immigration officer at the port at which such alien intends to enter the United States.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for emergency medical or hospital treatment, or because of actual illness during the period the vessel remains in port, unless a bond in the penal sum of $500 with sufficient surety approved by the Secretary of Labor is deposited to guarantee the return of such alien on board before the departure of the vessel from the port: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirement of such bond in the case of any alien seaman who is a native of the country to which he belongs and who is employed on board a vessel of the nationality to which the master of such vessel belongs, if the master shall deposit with the immigration officer at the port of arrival a sum sufficient in the opinion of such officer to pay the cost of the return of such alien to the port from which he came to the United States, and if such master shall furnish such officer with a statement in writing setting forth the name, nationality, and last known address of such alien seaman.

(a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall refuse to obey any order of the Secretary of Labor made under the immigration laws and conformable to the provisions of this section, or who shall refuse to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (unless inspection in all cases shall, pursuant to regulations to be prescribed by said immigration officer, be waived), or who shall refuse to detain such seaman on board after inspection or to deport such seaman if required by said immigration officer at the Secretary's option so to do or shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the payment thereof upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or while the vessel is under detention as provided in this section, or pending an appeal as provided in subdivision (b) hereof, or while any such seaman is detained in a hospital, except upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Upon application in writing duly verified by the master or owner of any vessel or his agent, setting forth that any alien seaman has been unjustly adjudged liable to the payment of a fine under the provisions of this section, the Secretary of Labor may remit such fine, or any part thereof, upon the remission, mitigation, or refund of any fine imposed upon the master of such vessel under the provisions of section 8 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or upon the payment of the cost of the return of such alien seaman to a foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, which list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, and any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 10 of the act approved May 19, 1921, regulating the number of aliens admitted to the United States from foreign countries, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 2 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such complete list or manifest is not delivered: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 38 of the 7th of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless neither of the officers to the administrative functions specified by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said act is detained on board any vessel by quarantine officers.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for emergency medical or hospital treatment, or because of actual illness during the period the vessel remains in port, unless a bond in the penal sum of $500 with sufficient surety approved by the Secretary of Labor is deposited to guarantee the return of such alien on board before the departure of the vessel from the port: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirement of such bond in the case of any alien seaman who is a native of the country to which he belongs and who is employed on board a vessel of the nationality to which the master of such vessel belongs, if the master shall deposit with the immigration officer at the port of arrival a sum sufficient in the opinion of such officer to pay the cost of the return of such alien to the port from which he came to the United States, and if such master shall furnish such officer with a statement in writing setting forth the name, nationality, and last known address of such alien seaman.

(a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall refuse to obey any order made under the immigration laws and conformable to the provisions of this section, or who shall refuse to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (unless inspection in all cases shall, pursuant to regulations to be prescribed by said immigration officer at the Secretary's option so to do or shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the payment thereof upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or while the vessel is under detention as provided in this section, or pending an appeal as provided in subdivision (b) hereof, or while any such seaman is detained in a hospital, except upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Upon application in writing duly verified by the master or owner of any vessel or his agent, setting forth that any alien seaman has been unjustly adjudged liable to the payment of a fine under the provisions of this section, the Secretary of Labor may remit such fine, or any part thereof, upon the remission, mitigation, or refund of any fine imposed upon the master of such vessel under the provisions of section 8 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or upon the payment of the cost of the return of such alien seaman to a foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, which list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, and any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 10 of the act approved May 19, 1921, regulating the number of aliens admitted to the United States from foreign countries, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the list required by section 2 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien not listed or improperly listed.

Any master of a vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival the list required by section 8 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of departure the list required by section 9 of the act approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien not listed or improperly listed.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and which vessel shall not be cleared pending the determination of the question of deportation of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Section 35 of the immigration act of 1917 is repealed, but shall continue in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen, arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

(e) Sections 16 and 17 of the immigration act of 1917 shall not apply to the provisions of this section.

(f) Words used in the singular form in this section shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may demand.

(g) This section shall take effect sixty days after the approval of this Act.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, W. T. BIRCH, of the S.S. ATLANTIS, do depose and say that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, properly filled in and signed by me, and that I have caused to be read to each member of the crew, before signing, the information required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and the provisions of section 12 of the Act, approved May 26, 1924, entitled "An Act to limit the immigration of aliens into the United States, and for other purposes," relating to the penalties for failure to deliver such list, and that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or falsified any of the facts required to be stated therein.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be destroyed or removed, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. "Alien or citizen" opposite names is a notation to show either should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold on the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged, and specifying the ports at which they severally intend to land. It shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master of a vessel to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases of desertion from the vessel, stating a description of the deserting alien, and the circumstances connected with such desertion, and also to report the sickness or injury of any alien employed on such vessel, and whether such sick or injured alien has been left behind, and if so, why, and where such alien is then located. Any person who shall employ any alien on any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall refuse or neglect to report, or make any false report, or who shall refuse to deliver to any such immigration officer a complete list of the aliens employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse to answer any question touching the immigration, nationality, right to land, or the detention on board or removal from the vessel of any alien employed thereon, or who shall refuse to detain on board any alien employed on such vessel when required so to do by such immigration officer, or who shall refuse to allow any such immigration officer to enter such vessel for the purpose of examining any alien employed thereon, or who shall refuse to carry any such alien who has been ordered on board for removal to the port from which he came, or who shall refuse to pay the cost of such removal, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom any such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located pending the examination of the inspection officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, and then by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located pending the examination of the inspection officer or the Secretary of Labor as to the sufficiency of the bond, and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the physical examination by the medical officer of the Public Health Service, if such examination is required by the provisions of this Act, or pending the certification of the diagnosis of such medical officer, if such certification is required by the provisions of this Act, or pending the preparation of the certificate of the inspection officer, if such certificate is required by the provisions of this Act, or pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor on appeal, if such appeal is taken, or pending the physical examination of any alien who has been detained for further observation by the medical officer of the Public Health Service, if such further observation is required by the provisions of this Act, or pending the preparation of the certificate of the medical officer, if such certificate

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival. The list or manifest of aliens required by the immigration laws to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the vessel in which they arrive leaves such port must be made out in the exact order in which the names of the aliens appear on the list or manifest. Each list or manifest must be signed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel. Any changes or additions necessary to be made on the list after the vessel has left the last foreign port must be noted by the master or commanding officer in the manner required by the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

"Port from which vessel sails" means the port at which the alien embarks to come to the United States. "Nationality" means the country to which the alien belongs by birth. "Race" means the descent or ancestry of the alien, such as Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Teutonic, Hebrew, Latin, Slavic, Spanish, Negro, Mongolian, Japanese, Chinese, East Indian, Polynesian, Indian, Ethiopian, Filipino, Mexican, or other race. "Personal description" means the age, sex, color, height, and complexion of the alien. "Final destination" means the place in the United States where the alien intends to reside permanently or for a definite period. "Seaworthy" means that the vessel is in a condition to encounter ordinary weather and sea conditions on the route to be followed without special danger or peril to the vessel or persons on board. "Sanitary condition" means the condition of the vessel, its cargo, passengers, and crew with respect to the existence of any infectious or contagious disease, and the sufficiency and character of the food, water, and other provisions of the vessel for the use of passengers and crew.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing a true manifest of all aliens on board such vessel, showing the full name, age, sex, and place of birth of each such alien, whether he or she is in possession of a passport or not, the nationality of such alien, the country to which he belongs by birth, his calling or occupation, the name and address of the person who paid for his passage, whether he has been in the United States previously, and if so when and how long, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and addresses, whether he has a ticket through to his final destination, whether he has been deported, and if so how many times and the cause thereof, whether he is coming under contract to perform labor, whether he is a polygamist, whether he is an anarchist, whether he believes in or is opposed to organized government, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining such belief, whether he is a person who has been convicted of or admits having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, whether he is coming for an immoral purpose, whether he is mentally, physically, or educationally defective, whether he is in good health, mentally and physically, and such other facts as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the proper administration of the immigration laws. The list or manifest of aliens on ships or other conveyances arriving at the port of entry of the United States from any foreign port or place shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the vessel in which they arrive leaves such port or place. The list or manifest prepared for the vessel at the port of arrival, and which is to supersede the list or manifest prepared at the last foreign port or place, shall be returned to the master or commanding officer of the vessel by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. The list or manifest shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Secretary of Labor. The list or manifest required to be delivered by the master or commanding officer of any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer taken before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. The master or commanding officer of every vessel bringing aliens to the United States from any foreign port or place shall, at the time of the departure of such vessel from such foreign port or place, deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a true copy of the list or manifest required to be delivered by the master or commanding officer

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port a complete, true and exact manifest of all persons carried on such vessel, stating the business and occupation of each, the nationality, the race, the last permanent residence, the final destination of all aliens embarked at any port other than a port adjacent to the United States, and whether they have been in the United States previously or not, and if so, when and how long previously, whether they have been naturalized or not, whether they are in possession of certificates of naturalization or certificates of residence, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor to aid in the enforcement of the immigration laws. The master shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel who will not be landed at that port, and the names of those, if any, who have been detained on board for special inquiry, and in case of the failure of the master to deliver such list when required the vessel may be refused clearance or be subjected to a penalty of $10 for each alien employed upon the vessel or detained on board. Upon the completion of the unloading of the vessel at the port of arrival the master shall deliver a list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel who will be landed at subsequent ports, and shall deliver to the proper officer at each such port a list of those who have been landed at previous ports. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver any list required of him by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge and belief any question concerning any alien on board his vessel asked by any officer charged with the administration of the immigration laws, shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each such offense. The owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien not duly listed by the master as required by this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien not so listed, in addition to the penalty provided for the failure of the master to list such alien. The Secretary of Labor may in his discretion remit any penalty provided for in this section or any part thereof.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

LIST 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 30 have been furnished and not then unless notice of inquiry to the administrative officer has been entered by section 28 hereof, been served, the report thereof received and the clearance checked in Rule 55 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

(7) It is the duty and responsibility of the master to see that the crew is properly instructed in the use of all lifesaving appliances, including the boats, and in the performance of their duties in case of fire or other emergency. Before the vessel leaves port, and at least once a week thereafter, he shall conduct such exercises as may be required by regulations issued by the Secretary of Labor. He shall see that the lifeboats are kept in condition for immediate use and that the crew is familiar with the operation and handling of the boats and the use of the other lifesaving equipment. He shall also see that the provisions of the law relative to the posting of lifeboat and fire drill regulations and the muster list are complied with. He shall report to the Secretary of Labor any failure of the crew to perform lifeboat or fire drill duties in accordance with the provisions of the law and regulations issued thereunder, and any defects in the lifesaving equipment or fire-extinguishing apparatus which he shall discover or which shall be reported to him by any member of the crew. Such reports shall be made in writing and shall be delivered to the Secretary of Labor at the first port of call of the vessel in the United States after the discovery of such defects or failure to perform such drills. Any master who fails to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this section shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each such failure.

Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, upon application in writing by the master, prior to the departure of the vessel from a port, issue a certificate exempting the vessel from the requirements of this section relative to the equipment of lifeboats and the performance of lifeboat drills when, in his judgment, the vessel is not adapted for the use of such lifeboats or drills, or that the peculiar conditions of navigation are such as to render the use of such lifeboats or drills unnecessary or unreasonable, and he may, in his discretion, withdraw such certificate of exemption.

(8) It shall be the duty of the master of any vessel to which this section applies to report to the Secretary of Labor the name of any person employed on board such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to perform his duty as a member of the crew in connection with the operation of the lifeboats or the lifeboat or fire drills required by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to render such assistance as may be in his power to the master in the execution of any lawful order given by him for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this section, and the Secretary of Labor shall cause the name of such person to be entered in the official log book of the vessel, and shall cause such person to be furnished with a certificate stating that such entry has been made. Such certificate or a duplicate thereof shall be delivered by the master to the shipping commissioner at the first port at which the vessel shall arrive after the date of such entry, and such entry shall be admissible in evidence in any judicial proceeding relating to the wages of such person.

(9) Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $100, which may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor upon the application of the master, owner, agent, or consignee of the vessel, made before the vessel shall have cleared from the port at which the penalty was incurred, or, if the vessel shall have cleared before the penalty was incurred, then before the consignment of the cargo of the vessel.

(10) The Secretary of Labor shall cause a copy of this section to be posted in a conspicuous place in the forecastle of every vessel to which it applies.

(11) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(12) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(13) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(14) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(15) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(16) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(17) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(18) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(19) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(20) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(21) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(22) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(23) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(24) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(25) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(26) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(27) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(28) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(29) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

(30) Any vessel which shall be navigated without having on board the certificate of inspection required by this section, or any vessel which shall be navigated contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, for which sum such vessel may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port. Type or write plainly. Insert the name of the vessel at the top of each sheet. Have the list checked by the master or purser, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port. Number the persons listed, beginning with 1 for the first person listed on each sheet. The list of persons in each class must be complete, and the total number of persons in each class must be entered at the footing of the list. Any changes or additions to the list necessary to correct it before the vessel leaves the last port of departure from a foreign country must be noted in ink, initialed by the master or purser, and explained to the immigration officer at the port. Failure to comply with these instructions may result in the imposition of a penalty of $10 for each person not listed, and may also result in the refusal of permission to land any person not listed.

When an alien is destined to a city, state, or locality for which there is a State Commissioner of Immigration, or similar officer charged with the duty of assisting such aliens, the name and address of such officer should be given.

SEC. 38. That alien seamen who have been admitted into the United States may be temporarily permitted by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel in which they arrived to depart therein from one port to another in the United States under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, without being subject to the head tax or visa fee provided for in this Act, and may be required to depart in the vessel in which they arrived or in some other vessel: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit any alien seaman who was admitted into the United States and who has been employed on board a vessel engaged in the foreign trade to depart from the United States on board any vessel of the same nationality as the vessel on which he arrived, upon the filing of a bond in such sum, not exceeding $500, and with such sureties as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States on board the vessel specified therein within such time as may be fixed by the Secretary of Labor, and will comply with all the requirements of this Act and the rules and regulations made thereunder with respect to such alien seaman.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel that has cargo destined for any section or to that prohibited by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, save upon the presentation of a certificate from a consular officer of the United States at the port of departure that the provisions of said section have been complied with.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) Any alien seaman admitted into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, may be temporarily permitted by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to depart therefrom on such vessel within the period of his permit, and may be required to depart therein, or, in default thereof, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917 from the port at which he arrived in the United States or from such other port as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor. Any such alien seaman who departs from the United States during the period of his permit shall be regarded as having complied with the requirements of this section with respect to such permit.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except Canada and Mexico, shall deposit with the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and from time to time thereafter shall keep current, a list or manifest of all persons brought to the United States on such vessel, in such form and manner and containing such additional information relative to such persons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. The list or manifest of persons in each class shall be verified by the oath of the master or purser of the vessel and by the certificate of the surgeon, if any, employed on board the vessel, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who knowingly or willfully makes a false statement in any such list or manifest shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

(b) Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States who refuses or neglects to deposit with the immigration officer at the port of arrival a list or manifest of the persons on board the vessel, as required by this section, or refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions propounded to him by the immigration officer at the port of arrival pursuant to the provisions of this section, or to detain any alien on board the vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, shall pay to the collector of customs or the collector duly authorized to perform the functions pertaining to the office of collector at the port of arrival a sum not exceeding $300 for each such alien, or may be required to enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien, with sureties satisfactory to the immigration officer at the port, conditioned to pay such sum. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of which refuses or neglects to deposit such list or manifest of the persons on board the vessel, or refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions propounded to him by the immigration officer at the port, until the sum imposed upon the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser for such refusal or neglect has been paid to the collector of customs or secured to his satisfaction or remitted by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be granted to any vessel prior to the deposit of the list or manifest of the persons on board thereof, or the giving of bond for the payment of the sum which may be imposed therefor, if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel shall make oath that he has made due search and inquiry and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the list or manifest deposited is complete and includes all persons on board the vessel at the time of its departure previous to the sailing of the vessel from the last port at which it touched, and that he does not know or believe that any person on board has not been included in the list or manifest deposited by him.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have made final determination of the cases of the persons on board any vessel to which the provisions of this section are applicable, and such vessel shall depart from the United States without the permission of the immigration officer at the port, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $300 for each person on board thereof, or may be required to enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each person, with sureties satisfactory to the immigration officer at the port, conditioned to pay such sum. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of which refuses or neglects to pay the sum imposed upon him by this section for the departure of such vessel without permission, unless such sum shall have been remitted by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the cases of persons detained in order that the head tax and visa fee may be collected and covered into the Treasury, and refunded in case the persons detained are allowed to land. If the vessel shall depart without the payment of the sum imposed upon the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser thereof, the same may be recovered in the name of the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) Any person who knowingly or willfully aids or abets any alien to violate the provisions of this section, or who knowingly or willfully aids or abets any alien in concealing himself or attempting to conceal himself from any officer charged with the duty of enforcing the immigration laws, or who harbors any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall have made final determination of the cases of the persons on board any vessel to which the provisions of this section are applicable, and such vessel shall depart from the United States without the permission of the immigration officer at the port, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $300 for each person on board thereof, or may be required to enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each person, with sureties satisfactory to the immigration officer at the port, conditioned to pay such sum. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of which refuses or neglects to pay the sum imposed upon him by this section for the departure of such vessel without permission, unless such sum shall have been remitted by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the cases of persons detained in order that the head tax and visa fee may be collected and covered into the Treasury, and refunded in case the persons detained are allowed to land. If the vessel shall depart without the payment of the sum imposed upon the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser thereof, the same may be recovered in the name of the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Food shall be furnished to all alien seamen who may be detained by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of any vessel, and to any alien seaman who may be required by the immigration officer at the port to depart on board the vessel on which he arrived, while such vessel shall remain in port, and the cost of such food shall be reported, paid, and taxed in the same manner as the cost of the maintenance of such alien seamen is reported, paid, and taxed in the case of the detention of aliens in the United States.

(g) Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, or who shall not be found on board the vessel when it is ready to depart from the United States, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(h) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(i) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(j) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(k) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(l) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(m) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(n) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(o) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(p) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(q) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(r) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(s) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(t) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(u) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(v) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(w) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(x) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(y) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(z) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

(aa) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be ineligible to readmission to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not desert with intent to remain permanently in the United States, or that he was prevented from departing from the United States by sickness or injury or by reason of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section, or that he was otherwise unable to depart from the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not be liable to the head tax or visa fee.

Each alien must be listed on a separate line, and the information called for by each column must be answered as to each alien. Write in ink. Do not use abbreviations. Number the aliens consecutively, beginning with 1. Where there are no aliens to be reported, write "None" on the first line. Write in duplicate. Do not fold. Do not roll. Do not write on back. Each sheet must be signed by the master or commanding officer. Any omission or false statement may subject the master to a fine of $100 for each offense.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspection officer in charge of the port of arrival true manifests of all aliens on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether married or single, whether in possession of a ticket through to such destination, whether the passage is paid by himself or by other persons or by the transportation company, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and what each alien has been doing, where he has been, and whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and the immigrant inspection officer at the port of arrival may thereupon detain for further examination or exclude from admission to the United States any such alien in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such manifests shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Commissioner General of Immigration, which forms shall be filled out with typewriter or pen and ink, and shall be signed by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of such vessel, and sworn to before a United States consular officer at the port of departure of such vessel, or, if there be no such officer at such port, then before a United States consular officer at the nearest port adjacent to the port of departure. Such consular officer shall certify on such manifests that the same were sworn to before him, and shall deliver one copy thereof to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of such vessel, and shall forward one copy to the Commissioner General of Immigration at Washington, District of Columbia, and one copy to the immigrant inspection officer at the port of arrival of such vessel in the United States. Such manifests shall be corrected to conform to the entries of the commissioner of aliens at the seaboard port of arrival in the United States from any place outside thereof. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver manifests in the manner herein prescribed, or who shall refuse to allow the immigrant inspection officer to come on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the manifests and the aliens entitled to be inspected, as provided in section 25 of this Act, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board such vessel when required so to do by such officer, or who shall refuse to prevent any such alien from landing in the United States in violation of law, or who shall refuse to carry back any alien who may be excluded from admission to the United States by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any such default occurs, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of any such vessel who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien who has been refused admission and ordered returned by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to obey such order of the Secretary of Labor, may be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, and may be imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of any such vessel who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such violation, and such penalty shall be a lien upon such vessel, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States for the district in which she may arrive; and clearance may be withheld or granted and such vessel may be allowed to depart from any port of the United States notwithstanding the provisions of any other act upon the filing of a bond or undertaking sufficient in amount and with sureties satisfactory to the collector of customs for the district in which such vessel is found, conditioned for the payment of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted without the filing of such bond or undertaking upon the payment of such penalty. The words "vessel" and "master" as used in this section shall be construed to include all vessels and masters, respectively, arriving at ports of the United States, whether such vessels be engaged in the transportation of passengers or merchandise or both, or be employed in any other business, and whether such masters be masters, captains, or other persons in charge of such vessels.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 9.

No. 9. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 have been furnished and the aliens mentioned therein inspected, and no alien shall be allowed to land from any vessel at any port or place in the United States except at such port or place, unless specially authorized by the Secretary of Labor, or by such officer as he may designate for the purpose, or to such immigrant inspector as may be placed on board for the purpose of inspection. Masters of vessels bringing aliens who are destined to points in the interior may be required to deposit with the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival sufficient money to pay the transportation of such aliens to their destination, and to provide them with food during detention on board or after landing.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 8.

No. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 have been furnished and the aliens mentioned therein inspected, or in lieu thereof the following certificate executed by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer of such vessel:

I hereby certify that I have carefully examined the list of aliens who have taken passage on the _____ at _____ for the United States, and that I have not knowingly or intentionally omitted the name of any alien who has taken passage or intends to take passage on said vessel to the United States.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the U.S.S. _____, _____ master, first or second Officer, do depose and say: That the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, including the Immigration Inspector, and of all persons who have signed on board this vessel at any port, and that the following is a correct statement of the date and place of birth of each of them, so far as the same can be ascertained from the ship's papers and from inquiry made by me of the persons themselves; that no person has been taken on board this vessel at any port or place, whether for the purpose of working or as a passenger, except as appears from the said list; that no person has been left behind at any port or place from which he was brought or intended to be brought by me on board this vessel, except as appears from the said list; that I have complied with all the requirements of the Immigration Laws of the United States relating to the shipping and discharging of seamen, and with all the requirements of the said laws relating to the boarding and inspection of this vessel by officers of the United States Immigration Service at the port of arrival; that I have delivered to each alien crewman employed on board this vessel a true and correct copy of the notice required by section 30 of the United States Immigration Law, and that I have complied with the requirements of said section with respect to the posting of said notice on board this vessel; that I have delivered to each alien crewman employed on board this vessel a Crewman's Landing Permit, Immigration Form No. 430, and that I have complied with the requirements of section 31 of said Immigration Law with respect to the issuance of said permits; that I have delivered to each alien crewman employed on board this vessel a Crewman's Identification Card, Immigration Form No. 431, and that I have complied with the requirements of section 32 of said Immigration Law with respect to the issuance of said cards; that I have delivered to each alien crewman employed on board this vessel a Crewman's Certificate of Identity, Immigration Form No. 432, and that I have complied with the requirements of section 33 of said Immigration Law with respect to the issuance of said certificates; that I have complied with the requirements of section 34 of said Immigration Law with respect to the posting of the Immigration Law and the Rules and Regulations issued thereunder; that I have complied with the requirements of section 35 of said Immigration Law with respect to the posting of the Immigration Rule 2, copies of which appear below.

Sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19__.

_____
Immigrant Inspector.

_____
Master, First or Second Officer.

The list hereof must be prepared on plain white writing paper and shall be so arranged that the name of each alien appears on a separate line, and the columns shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with the first alien on the list. The list of names of alien members of crews (Form 430) shall not be restarted on each subsequent day, but shall be duplicated by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list must be typewritten or written in ink, and must be legible. Any erasure, interlineation, or other change must be initialed by the master. Where an alien member of a crew is known by a nickname, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 3a. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel, to detain on board thereof all aliens who are not lawfully entitled to enter the United States; and before any such vessel shall be granted clearance papers, or the same shall be delivered to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel, by the collector of customs or other officer of the United States charged with the duty of granting clearance papers, he shall exact from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel a certificate that all aliens who have been employed on such vessel, and who are not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, have been duly discharged from such vessel, and that the full complement of aliens who were shipped or engaged to be employed on such vessel have been duly landed at the port of arrival; and before any such certificate shall be granted by the Secretary of Labor, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to pay the cost of the return of each alien employed on such vessel who may be found unlawfully in the United States, such sum to be determined by the Secretary of Labor, and in default of such deposit the certificate required by this section shall not be granted: Provided, That clearance may be granted before the return of any alien if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel shall deposit sufficient funds to pay the cost of the return of each alien employed on such vessel, and such deposit shall be considered a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which the vessel may arrive: Provided further, That clearance may be granted before the return of any alien employed on such vessel if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel shall furnish a bond sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to guarantee the return of such alien when required by the Secretary of Labor: but no bond required shall be deemed sufficient which is in excess of $300 for each alien employed on such vessel: and provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refund any deposit or cancel any bond made or given under the provisions of this section: and provided further, That clearance may be granted before the return of any alien if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel shall furnish a bond sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to guarantee the return of such alien when required by the Secretary of Labor, and such vessel shall be granted clearance papers notwithstanding the refusal of any alien to return to the United States when required so to do, or the refusal of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel to pay the cost of such return, if such refusal is based upon the fact that such alien has been ordered deported from the United States and that such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser or other officer or agent of such vessel has been notified of such order of deportation prior to the granting of clearance papers to such vessel.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on Lined Paper furnished by the Government and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be the original of the list. A duplicate copy of the list shall be retained by the master of the vessel. If a list of passengers is not delivered as required by law, the master of the vessel at the port of arrival will be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien whose name should have been included in such list but was not included therein.

When an alien's name is a "surname" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival at which such vessel shall first arrive the names of all aliens concerning whom information is required by the Secretary of Labor, and to deliver to the immigration officer at such port a complete list of such aliens, containing such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and prepared on such forms and in such detail as he may prescribe. All coals to which any such alien may be entitled or entered, and thereafter to be taken on board the vessel at the port of arrival; or into contraband to which such information officer, or master to report to such immigration officer, or master as soon as discovered

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list appearing below shall be observed by every master or person in charge of any vessel in the service of the United States in the matter of the number of persons to be carried in the several classes of accommodation. The number of persons in each class shall not exceed the number stated in the certificate of inspection of the vessel, and in no case shall the number of persons carried exceed the number for which the vessel is certificated. The number of persons carried in each class shall be plainly posted in a conspicuous place in each compartment where passengers are carried, and shall be legibly marked on each berth. No person shall be carried in any space not assigned to the class for which he has paid fare, except by permission of the master, and then only when there is room for them without discomfort. Any person who shall refuse to leave a space which he has not paid for, when requested to do so by the master, shall be punished as provided by section 4472 of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 30. That after getting clear of the Detroit River, and before passing into the Lake Erie, all vessels navigating the waters of the Great Lakes, and their connecting and tributary waters, shall be required to keep their steering apparatus, whether by steam, hand, or other power, connected and in working order, and shall have on board a sufficient crew, consisting of not less than two able seamen, and shall also have a competent engineer for each watch, whose duty it shall be to remain in the engine-room while the engines are under steam, and shall not be employed on deck or elsewhere in the management of the vessel; and shall have a sufficient number of competent firemen, who shall not be employed on deck or elsewhere in the management of the vessel, to keep a sufficient head of steam for the proper working of the engines; and shall have a sufficient number of competent deck hands, who shall not be employed in the engine-room or as firemen, to manage the vessel, and to perform the usual work of deck hands; and shall have a sufficient number of competent persons to act as watchmen, who shall not be employed in the engine-room or as firemen, or deck hands, or in the management of the vessel, and whose duty it shall be to remain on deck and awake during the whole time the vessel may be in port, and to report any violation of the provisions of this section to the proper officers of the vessel; and shall have a sufficient number of competent persons to act as lookouts, who shall not be employed in the engine-room or as firemen, or deck hands, or in the management of the vessel, and whose duty it shall be to remain on deck and awake during the whole time the vessel may be in motion

The list appearing below shall be prepared on board every vessel arriving from any foreign port or from any port in Canada, Cuba, Mexico, or Newfoundland, and shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of first arrival. The list is commenced with the name of the master, and contains the names of all persons on board, including the members of the crew, the cabin passengers, and the steerage passengers, in the order in which they are to be examined by the immigration officer at the port. The master will be required to report the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each person named in the list, and to exhibit such baggage to the officers when requested to do so. Every question must be answered, and the answer recorded, opposite the name of the person to whom it refers. Any master who refuses to answer any question asked him by an immigration officer, or who makes, or connives at making, any false answer in regard to any matter about which inquiry is authorized by law, will be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, and may be prohibited from bringing any other alien to the United States. Any master who lands, or permits to be landed, any alien at a time or place not designated by the immigration officer at the port, or who lands, or permits to be landed, any alien who has not been duly admitted by the immigration officers, will be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed. Every alien who may be refused a landing from any vessel must be detained on board such vessel and returned to the country whence he came, by the master of the vessel bringing him to the United States, unless the immigrant inspector in charge at the port shall grant him a temporary permit to land for treatment in a hospital or for such other special reason as may be deemed sufficient. Any master who lands, or permits to be landed, any alien who has been refused a landing, except as provided by law, will be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed. Every master, before reporting his vessel for examination by an immigrant inspector, will be required to cause the vessel to be properly fumigated, if such action be deemed necessary, by a competent person approved by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, and to secure a certificate of fumigation, to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of examination. Any master who fails to comply with the requirements of this section will be liable to a penalty of not more than $500 for each such failure.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from any port in Alaska, Porto Rico, or the Canal Zone, the master of the vessel or agent of the transportation company shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry manifests containing such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall also deliver to such inspector lists or manifests of all aliens who have been taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place or at any port or place in Alaska, Porto Rico, or the Canal Zone, destined to the United States, but who have not been so taken on board at the port of departure of the vessel, which lists or manifests shall show the names of all such aliens, their final destinations, and the names and addresses of the persons who paid for their passage, and from whom they received, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, the money with which to pay for the same, and shall state whether the passage of any such alien was paid for by the master, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees of the vessel, and whether any such alien has been refused a visa by any consular officer, and the reasons therefor. Any master who shall refuse to deliver any such list or manifest, or who shall fail to include therein the name of any alien who may be found on board his vessel, or who shall fail or refuse to answer truthfully and fully any question which may be asked him by any immigrant inspector concerning any alien who may be on board his vessel, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such refusal or failure. Any master who shall land, or permit to be landed, any alien on any foreign territory contiguous to the United States, or who shall refuse to detain on board his vessel any alien when ordered so to do by any immigrant inspector, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed or detained. Any master who shall land, or permit to be landed, any alien at any port or place in the United States, except in case of accident, stress of weather, or other unavoidable cause, without first having reported the presence of such alien on board his vessel and secured a permit for the landing of such alien from an immigrant inspector, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed. Any master who shall land, or permit to be landed, any alien at any port or place in the United States, except as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed. Every alien who may be refused a landing from any vessel must be detained on board such vessel and returned to the country whence he came, by the master of the vessel bringing him to the United States, unless the immigrant inspector in charge at the port shall grant him a temporary permit to land for treatment in a hospital or for such other special reason as may be deemed sufficient. Any master who lands, or permits to be landed, any alien who has been refused a landing, except as provided by law, will be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed. Every master, before reporting his vessel for examination by an immigrant inspector, will be required to cause the vessel to be properly fumigated, if such action be deemed necessary, by a competent person approved by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, and to secure a certificate of fumigation, to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of examination. Any master who fails to comply with the requirements of this section will be liable to a penalty of not more than $500 for each such failure.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deterioration of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen in case they were detained on board, he may, in his discretion, cause them to be detained on shore, in a hospital designated by the Secretary of Labor, at the expense of the vessel or master, until such time as he may deem their detention on board no longer necessary: Provided, That the cost of such detention shall not be exacted of the master, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees of the vessel unless such alien seamen shall be found to be suffering from a disease which was not known to exist prior to the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port at which she shall have been cleared, and which could not have been detected by the exercise of due diligence: Provided further, That the cost of such detention shall not be exacted of the master, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees of the vessel unless the immigrant inspector in charge at the port shall, at the time of the examination of such alien seamen, certify in writing to the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of the vessel, as the case may be, that such alien seaman is suffering from a disease which was not known to exist prior to the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port at which she shall have been cleared, and which could not have been detected by the exercise of due diligence: And provided further, That the cost of such detention shall not be exacted of the master, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees of the vessel unless, within forty-eight hours after the certification of the immigrant inspector in charge, the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of the vessel shall have been notified in writing by the Secretary of Labor that such detention is required: And provided further, That the cost of such detention shall not be exacted of the master, owners, agents, charterers, or consignees of the vessel if the Secretary of Labor shall find that the vessel could not have been reasonably expected to have been inspected by the immigrant inspector at the port of departure, and that the vessel has been inspected by the immigrant inspector at the first port of arrival in the United States

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and may be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of departure at a time not more than 24 hours before the departure of the vessel. The list of citizens of alien countries in transit through the United States in accordance with section 23 of the act of February 5, 1917, may be prepared on passenger lists of vessels arriving at ports of the United States from foreign countries.

Write an affirmative answer in a "yes" column, a negative answer in a "no" column to all questions not applicable to females. Write "unknown" in answer to questions to which the master can not obtain answers after reasonable inquiry.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from a island possession of the United States any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by this Act or regulations made thereunder, or other travel document required by the President under section 1 of the Act of May 22, 1918, as amended, or who does not establish to the satisfaction of the immigration officer at the port of arrival that he is entitled to enter under some exception contained in this Act or regulations made thereunder, or who is afflicted with any of the mental or physical defects or diseases specified as grounds for exclusion in this Act, or who has come in violation of any provision thereof, may be taken or detained for examination before a special board of inquiry, which shall have, in addition to the powers conferred upon boards of special inquiry by section 16 of this Act, power to administer oaths and to take evidence touching the right of any alien to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, and such board shall have authority to call for papers, administer oaths, take evidence, and require the attendance of witnesses, including any person claiming the right to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, before such board or immigration officer by means of subpoena issued under the hand of the Secretary of Labor or such officers as he may designate for the purpose, which subpoena shall be served by any person or persons designated by him or them, anywhere within the United States, in the same manner as subpoenas issued by United States commissioners are served. Any person who neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to testify, in response to such subpoena shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Any person who shall knowingly or willfully make false entry or statement in reference to any matter under investigation by such board or immigration officer, or who shall neglect or refuse to answer any question relative to the right of any alien to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, or who shall knowingly or willfully deliver or cause to be delivered to such board or immigration officer any false certificate or document purporting to relate to the right of any alien to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Any alien who shall willfully refuse or fail to appear before such board or immigration officer upon the subpoena of the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to answer any question relative to his right to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, or who shall refuse to submit to physical examination or to be vaccinated, or to submit his baggage for examination or inspection, or who shall in any way willfully obstruct or hinder the proper examination of himself or his baggage, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly entered at a time or place designated by immigration officers, or who shall bring into the United States any alien who has been excluded from admission and deported in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Any person who shall assist or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of this Act, or who shall conceal or harbor, or attempt to conceal or harbor, any alien who has entered the United States in violation of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien who is afflicted with any of the mental or physical defects or diseases specified as grounds for exclusion in this Act, or who has come in violation of any provision thereof, may be required to take such alien back to the foreign port from which he came, or to any other foreign port at which such alien is admissible, at the option of the master of the vessel, and the cost of the maintenance while in the United States and of the return of such alien shall be borne by the master of the vessel. Any master who refuses to receive back any alien required to be taken back by him under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Any master who fails to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a complete list of all the passengers, including those in transit through the United States, and full information required by such list, concerning each alien passenger before such passenger is admitted to landing in the United States, shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom such information is not furnished, and no clearance shall be granted to such vessel by the collector of customs until such penalty is paid or the payment thereof is secured to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor. Any master who shall refuse to allow any immigration officer to enter the vessel for the purpose of inspection, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered to do so by such officer, or who shall land or permit to land any alien on board his vessel at any port in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory in violation of the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

SEC. 39. That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and shall have power and authority to establish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the provisions of this Act relating to the powers, duties, and functions of officers and employees of the Department of Labor in the administration and enforcement of this Act, and all other necessary powers now conferred upon such officers and employees by the rules and regulations in force at the time of the passage of this Act, so far as the same may be consistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby continued and conferred upon such officers and employees until changed or modified by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 40. That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to enter into contracts with any State or Territory or political subdivision thereof, or any State board or commission, for the support and care in a suitable manner, until returned to their homes, at the expense of the appropriation hereby made, of such aliens as become insane after their entry into the United States and before the expiration of three years thereafter, and for the temporary care and support of such aliens pending examination as to sanity and the final disposition of cases of such aliens as become insane within three years after their entry into the United States, and for the necessary burial expenses of such aliens as die before such disposition can be made, and the Secretary of Labor shall have power to establish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the provisions of this section.

That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to enter into contracts with transportation companies for the return to the ports from which they departed of aliens who become public charges from causes existing prior to their entry into the United States, and for the return of such aliens who are found to be illegally in the United States, and the cost of such return shall be borne by the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

SEC. 41. That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, and on the recommendation of the Public Health Service, cause any alien certified to him under the provisions of section 25 of this Act to be taken before a special board of inquiry for examination.

SEC. 42. That the Secretary of Labor may appoint, in addition to the officers now authorized by law, such other officers, clerks, and employees as may be necessary for the enforcement of this Act, and may make such rules and regulations governing the admission of aliens to the United States as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, and may establish such boards of special inquiry and appoint such members thereof as may be necessary to decide, in accordance with this Act and such rules and regulations, the cases of aliens who may be detained for further inquiry.

That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, and on the recommendation of the Public Health Service, waive the application of the provisions of paragraph (1) of section 3 of this Act relating to the exclusion of persons likely to become a public charge, and of section 21 of this Act, in the case of any alien who is the spouse, child, or parent of a citizen of the United States, or of a person who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, who is found admissible in every other respect, and who, in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, may properly be admitted to the United States.

SEC. 43. That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to establish regulations, prescribe forms of bond, reports, entries, and other papers, issue instructions, and perform such other acts as he deems necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Act relating to the powers, duties, and functions of officers and employees of the Department of Labor.

SEC. 44. That the Secretary of Labor shall annually report to Congress the number of aliens arrested during the fiscal year, the number deported, the number admitted upon appeal after having been excluded by boards of special inquiry, the cost of such deportations, the number of aliens who have become public charges from causes existing prior to their entry into the United States, and the number of aliens who have been admitted notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of section 3 of this Act relating to the exclusion of persons likely to become public charges, and of section 21 of this Act, and such other information relating to the enforcement of the provisions of this Act as Congress may from time to time request.

SEC. 45. That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to enter into contracts with foreign transportation companies for the detention in foreign countries of aliens who may be excluded from admission to the United States under the provisions of this Act, and for the return of such aliens to the ports from which they departed or to other foreign ports at which they may be admissible, at such rates as may be agreed upon, not exceeding in any case the sum of $30 for each alien so detained and returned, and for the payment of such rates out of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

SEC. 46. That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to enter into contracts with foreign transportation companies for the return to the ports from which they departed of aliens who become public charges from causes existing prior to their entry into the United States, and for the return of such aliens who are found to be illegally in the United States, and the cost of such return shall be borne by the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

SEC. 47. That the Secretary of Labor shall have power to establish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the provisions of this Act relating to the powers, duties, and functions of officers and employees of the Department of Labor in the administration and enforcement of this Act, and all other necessary powers now conferred upon such officers and employees by the rules and regulations in force at the time of the passage of this Act, so far as the same may be consistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby continued and conferred upon such officers and employees until changed or modified by the Secretary of Labor.

The Department has received reports that persons claiming to be employed on vessels are soliciting from seamen certain moneys for the procurement of discharges. Such solicitation is unauthorized and improper, and seamen should not be induced to pay any money for the procurement of discharges. Any person who solicits money from seamen for the procurement of discharges should be reported to the nearest Shipping Commissioner's office at the port.

SEC. 36. That every master of any vessel of the United States from any foreign port or any port of the Canal Zone, or of the Panama Railroad Steamship Line, bound to any port of the United States, shall, before or immediately upon the entry of such vessel, deliver to the shipping commissioner, or other officer acting in his place, at the port of entry, a list or manifest, subscribed by him, containing the name of each person on board such vessel, or who has been on board during such vessel's call at any port, the capacity in which he served, the place of his birth, his last known residence, and such other facts as may be required by the regulations of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, approved by the Secretary of Labor, concerning each alien. Such list or manifest shall be sworn to before the shipping commissioner, or other officer acting in his place, by the master, and shall be delivered to the shipping commissioner, or other officer acting in his place, by the master, before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers. Any master who fails to deliver such list or manifest, or who fails to include therein the name of any person on board his vessel, or who knowingly or willfully gives false information concerning any person on board his vessel, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. Any master who fails to deliver such list or manifest at the time of departure of his vessel from any port of the United States shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $10 for each person concerning whom such information is required, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be withheld or recovered by suit. The Commissioner-General of Immigration shall furnish to masters of vessels the blank forms to be filled out and delivered by them in pursuance of the requirements of this section.

(a) Every alien arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or any port of the Canal Zone or of the Panama Railroad Steamship Line shall be examined by the immigrant inspectors. Every such alien who may not appear clearly and beyond a reasonable doubt to be entitled to admission shall be detained and given a hearing before a special board of inquiry, consisting of three immigrant inspectors, whose decision shall be subject to review only by the Secretary of Labor. Such hearing shall be commenced within two days after the vessel shall be ready to discharge its passengers at the port of arrival, and shall be concluded with all reasonable speed. Such board of inquiry shall have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. Such alien shall have the right to be represented before such board of inquiry by counsel or other representative of his own choosing, but no expense shall be incurred by the United States in connection therewith. Such alien may be required to furnish a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000, and with such sureties as may be required, conditioned that he will not become a public charge within five years after entry and will not violate any of the provisions of the immigration laws. Such alien may be required to deposit with the collector of customs the sum of $10 to cover the cost of his maintenance for a period not exceeding two months pending the decision of the board of inquiry. If the decision of such board be adverse to the admission of such alien, and he shall not furnish such bond and deposit, if required, within ten days after such decision has been rendered, he shall be deported in the manner prescribed by law. Pending the decision of such board, such alien shall be detained in the custody of the immigration officials, but shall be released from such custody upon furnishing such bond and deposit. Any such alien may, at any time within one year after entry, be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, after a hearing before a board of inquiry, if, within three years subsequent to his entry, he becomes a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his entry.

(b) Any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of any prohibition contained in this Act shall be deported in the manner prescribed by section 19 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause a warrant to be issued for the apprehension of such alien, and, after a hearing before a board of inquiry, if such board shall find that such alien is within any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Quarantinable diseases.—Aliens who are found to be suffering from a quarantinable disease in the form or stage specified in the regulations issued by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service shall be excluded from admission to the United States. Such aliens may be admitted to hospitals established by the United States or by States, municipalities, or other agencies, for the treatment of such diseases, if the facilities of such hospitals are sufficient for the purpose and the admission thereto can be effected under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. (a) No alien seaman shall be admitted into the United States unless he is in possession of a valid seaman's visa, which shall be issued by a consular officer, upon the application of such alien seaman, if such alien seaman is admissible under the provisions of this Act and is coming to the United States temporarily as a bona fide seaman and solely in pursuance of his calling as a seaman, and has a definite shipping commissioner's agreement, or other evidence of employment as a seaman on board a vessel bound for a port of the United States, or has been certified by the Secretary of Labor or by such agent as he may designate for the purpose, as a seaman who has been employed on board a vessel which has arrived at a port of the United States and which is about to depart therefrom for a foreign port, and who is destined to the vessel on board which he was employed. Such visa shall be granted only upon the production of such evidence as may be required by the rules and regulations governing the issuance of such visas.

(b) Every alien seaman granted a visa shall be examined by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and, if found to be admissible under the provisions of this Act, shall be admitted for the period of his agreement, for not more than twelve months, and for such further period as may be necessary to enable him to secure passage to his foreign port of departure, if he shall depart within such period on a vessel other than a vessel of the United States, unless prevented from departing within such period by illness or other cause beyond his control, which illness or other cause shall be certified by a United States medical officer, if practicable. Such alien seaman may be granted one additional period of not more than twelve months in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, upon the recommendation of the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival. Such alien seaman may be required to deposit with the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $300 to insure his departure from the United States within the period of his admission, and such deposit may be applied to the payment of any hospital expenses or other expenses incurred on behalf of such alien seaman by the United States. Such alien seaman may be required to furnish a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000, and with such sureties as may be required, conditioned that he will not become a public charge within five years after entry and will not violate any of the provisions of the immigration laws. Such alien seaman may be required to deposit with the collector of customs the sum of $10 to cover the cost of his maintenance for a period not exceeding two months pending the decision of the board of inquiry. If the decision of such board be adverse to the admission of such alien, and he shall not furnish such bond and deposit, if required, within ten days after such decision has been rendered, he shall be deported in the manner prescribed by law. Pending the decision of such board, such alien shall be detained in the custody of the immigration officials, but shall be released from such custody upon furnishing such bond and deposit. Any such alien may, at any time within one year after entry, be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, after a hearing before a board of inquiry, if, within three years subsequent to his entry, he becomes a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his entry.

(c) If the master of any vessel shall fail to deliver to the immigrant inspectors any list or manifest required by section 36 of the act of February 5, 1917, or shall refuse to allow the immigrant inspectors to board the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the list or manifest, he shall pay to the collector of customs $10 for each alien not listed in the manifest, or for whom a proper list or manifest is not delivered, or for each alien not allowed to be inspected, unless it is shown that the master has complied with the requirements of section 36 of the act of February 5, 1917, and has used due diligence to prevent the departure of any alien not listed in the manifest, or not allowed to be inspected, and that the master has no reasonable ground to believe that any alien not listed in the manifest, or not allowed to be inspected, intended to depart from the United States. The payment of such sum may be enforced by withholding the clearance papers of the vessel, or in addition to that object should the same be refused, by suit.

(d) Any person who knowingly brings into the United States any alien not duly listed in the manifest, or who knowingly assists any alien to land in the United States in violation of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of any prohibition contained in this Act shall be deported in the manner prescribed by section 19 of this Act.

(f) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(h) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(i) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(j) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(k) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(l) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(m) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(n) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(o) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(p) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(q) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(r) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(s) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(t) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien has been deported, and that such alien at the time of deportation was a member of any of the classes of aliens mentioned in section 3 of this Act, and that such alien entered the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof after the passage of this Act, he shall cause such alien to be deported in the manner prescribed by law at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That alien arrival is any person in the United States from any foreign port or from if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver at the immigration office at . . . . . of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, and whether able to read or write, the last permanent residence, whether married or single, the name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence he came, the name and address of the person or persons to whom he is going, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, whether he has a ticket reading to his destination, whether his passage is paid by himself or by others, whether in possession of money, and if so, how much, whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether under a contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, whether in the United States or coming in pursuant to such contract or agreement, whether a skilled laborer, and if so, what occupation, whether a person of good health, mental and physical, and such other facts as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be prepared on blanks furnished by the Secretary of Labor, which blanks shall be printed on both sides and in such form as to permit the answers to the questions to be plainly written in the English language. The master of each vessel shall cause one of the lists to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel is granted clearance papers, and the master of each vessel shall cause the other list to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival at the time of the departure of the vessel from the port. Upon the refusal of the master of any vessel to deliver the lists required by this section, he shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom such refusal occurs. The head tax of $8 and the certificate required by section 2 of this Act shall be collected by the master of the vessel from each alien listed

The list of races and peoples before which the words "UNITED STATES" are printed is prescribed by the Department and the immigrant must be asked to which race or people he belongs before he is landed. The physician is required to see that the word "UNITED STATES" is written before the name of the race or people to which each immigrant belongs, and the inspector at the dock will be governed by the entry made by the physician. Any question as to the correctness of the entry should be referred to the Commissioner-General of Immigration, Washington, D. C. The word "CITIZEN" is not to be used in describing the race or people to which an immigrant belongs, but the country of which he is a citizen or subject should be given. For example, a native of Germany, naturalized in the United States, should be described as a German, and not as a citizen of the United States. The word "NEGRO" should be used in describing all persons of African descent, and the word "MULATTO" in describing all persons of mixed white and negro blood.

SEC. 38. That every person of the age of sixteen years or more, physically capable of reading the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish, who can not read and write such ordinary language, and who has come into the United States or who may hereafter come into the United States and who is not lawfully entitled to admission under any existing law or who may hereafter be excluded therefrom, shall be taken, carried, or kept by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of the vessel or other vessel bringing him to the port at which he arrives, or by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of the vessel in which he departs from the United States, to a board of special inquiry for examination. Such board shall be composed of three immigrant inspectors, any two of whom may act, and shall have authority to determine whether such person may enter or shall be deported from the United States, which determination shall be final unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. Such appeal must be taken within ten days after the decision appealed from is rendered. Pending the final determination of such board or on appeal, such person shall be detained in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such boards shall have authority to administer oaths, to take testimony concerning the right of any person to enter, pass through, or reside in the United States, and to issue warrants for the arrest of any person who may be found in the United States in violation of this Act, at any time within three years after his entry, and for his deportation in the manner provided in this Act. Such warrants may be issued and executed by any person authorized by the Secretary of Labor or by any immigrant inspector, without expense to the United States, and shall run throughout the United States. The decision of any two members of such board shall be considered the decision of such board, subject to appeal as herein provided. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, appoint one or more boards of special inquiry at such ports of entry as he may deem necessary, and may detail immigrant inspectors to act as members of such boards in addition to their duties in connection with the inspection of immigrants. The Secretary of Labor may also, in his discretion, order any such board to sit at any time and place for the purpose of hearing any particular case or cases. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 and imprisoned not more than one year, and may be deported as provided in this Act.

SEC. 39. That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, establish a temporary board of special inquiry at any place in the United States for the purpose of hearing and determining cases of aliens who have been certified to the Secretary of Labor by the Public Health Service as being mentally defective, feebleminded, epileptic, insane, or afflicted with constitutional psychopathic inferiority, or with chronic alcoholism, and for the purpose of hearing and determining cases of aliens who have been arrested within three years after entry on the warrant issued by the Secretary of Labor, and for the purpose of hearing and determining cases of aliens who have been certified to the Secretary of Labor by the Children's Bureau as being unable to care for themselves and likely to become public charges. Such boards shall have the same powers and duties as boards of special inquiry appointed by the Secretary of Labor at ports of entry, and the decision of any two members of such board shall be considered the decision of such board, subject to appeal as herein provided. The Secretary of Labor may also, in his discretion, order any such board to sit at any time and place for the purpose of hearing any particular case or cases. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 and imprisoned not more than one year, and may be deported as provided in this Act.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien arrested on the ground of being afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease will require the detention of such alien for a period longer than one year, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien to be removed to the country whence he came, at any time within three years after his entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien arrested on the ground of being afflicted with tuberculosis will require the detention of such alien for a period longer than one year, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien to be deported to the country whence he came, at any time within three years after his entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien arrested on the ground of being afflicted with any form of mental disease will require the detention of such alien for a period longer than one year, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien to be deported to the country whence he came, at any time within three years after his entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(d) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall become a public charge from cause not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his entry into the United States, at any time within two years after such entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(e) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been found in the United States in violation of this Act, or any amendment thereto, at any time within three years after such violation, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(f) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude committed before entry, but only if sentence may be imposed or actually imposed therefor within five years after such entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(g) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of two crimes involving moral turpitude committed before entry, but only if sentence may be imposed or actually imposed therefor within five years after such entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(h) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of a violation of or a conspiracy to violate any law regulating or prohibiting the traffic in narcotic drugs within five years after such entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(i) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating or conspiring to violate the provisions of section 19 of the Act approved March 3, 1917, entitled "An Act to regulate the importation, manufacture, production, compounding, sale, possession, use, and distribution of opium for smoking purposes, to prohibit the importation and use of opium for other than medicinal purposes, and to provide for the registration of, with, and the imposition of special taxes on importers, manufacturers, producers, compounders, sellers, possessors, users, and distributors of opium for medicinal purposes," at any time after entry, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(j) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved September 15, 1918, entitled "An Act to exclude and expel from the United States aliens who are members of the anarchistic and other classes," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(k) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating or conspiring to violate any provision of the Act approved October 6, 1917, entitled "An Act to prohibit the sale of arms and ammunition in the Philippine Islands, and for other purposes," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(l) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved June 15, 1917, entitled "An Act to punish acts of interference with the foreign relations, the neutrality, and the foreign commerce of the United States, to punish espionage, and better to enforce the criminal laws of the United States, and for other purposes," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(m) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved May 16, 1918, entitled "An Act to punish seditious conspiracies," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(n) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved October 22, 1919, entitled "An Act to prohibit certain persons from entering the United States, and for other purposes," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(o) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved June 5, 1920, entitled "An Act to prohibit the importation and use of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes during the period of demobilization," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(p) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved June 4, 1920, entitled "An Act to regulate the issuance and validation of transportation orders by the Director General of Railroads, and to forbid the circumvention or evasion thereof," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(q) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be deported any alien who shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of the Act approved February 28, 1920, entitled "An Act to prohibit the manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, or gift of intoxicating liquor in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," at any time after such conviction, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector stationed at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be delayed by reason of the vessel. The list of aliens of whom complete information is required by section 33 of the act of May 26, 1924, must be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before any such alien shall be allowed to land. Any master who refuses to deliver such list, or who knowingly and willfully delivers a false list or who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to board his vessel for the purpose of examining the list, shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. The word "northward," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry a list or manifest correctly showing the number of all aliens employed on such vessel, whether they are to be landed or not, and specifying the ports at which they were severally shipped or engaged, and the ports at which they are severally to be landed; and it shall be the duty of the master of such vessel to report and deliver to the proper immigration officer at the time of the arrival of such vessel at each port in the United States at which any such alien may be landed from such vessel, except a description of such alien, forfeited with any immigration officer to any collector of customs, or master to depart to such immigration officer at the port of first arrival in the United States, in addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, the sum of $10 for each such alien not specified in such list, to be recovered as a part of the penalty imposed by section 2 of the act entitled "An act to regulate the immigration of aliens to, and the residence of aliens in, the United States," approved February 5, 1917, and to be remitted or refunded in like manner upon the production of such proof of the departure, death, or nonarrival of such alien within the United States as may be required by the Secretary of Labor under general regulations to be prescribed by him: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit the penalty or any part thereof incurred under this section in any case in which it shall appear to his satisfaction that there was no intentional failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 38. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States and employed on board such vessel shall, before the immigration officer at the port of arrival has completed the examination of the manifest (which examination shall not be delayed for the purpose of examining any alien), deliver to such officer a list containing the name of every alien employed on board such vessel, and such other information regarding each such alien as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. Any master who refuses to deliver such list, or who knowingly and willfully delivers a false list or who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to board his vessel for the purpose of examining the list, shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to the penalty or while any such penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted under bond approved by the collector.

(b) Proof that an alien employed did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port or place, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver a list as required by this section, unless it appears that the alien was employed on a vessel engaged in trade between ports of the United States and that the master has complied with the provisions of this section with respect to the departure of such alien from the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that the failure of any master to deliver a list as required by this section was excusable, he may remit any penalty incurred thereby.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. The list or manifest of aliens shall be signed by the master, or person in charge of the vessel, and verified by his oath before the principal immigration officer at the port.

No alien or arriving steamer is at "quarantine" a violation of that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing as many of the following particulars concerning each and every alien on board such vessel, whether such alien be a passenger, or a member of the crew or otherwise, and whether entitled to admission to the United States or not, as the inspector may require: Name in full; age; sex; married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; race; last permanent residence; seaport for landing in the United States; final destination, if any, beyond the immediate port of landing; whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and his name and complete address; whether having a ticket directly to destination; whether the expenses of the alien are paid for by himself or others, and if others, by whom; whether in possession of $50 in money or not, and if less than $50 the amount possessed; whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia; whether a skilled laborer or not, and what trade or profession he or she has followed; whether in good health, mental and physical, and whether deformed or crippled, and if so, how; height; complexion; color of hair and eyes; and marks of identification. The said lists shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Commissioner of Immigration, with such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be signed by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, or by his authorized representative, and verified by the oath of such master, agent, consignee, or owner, or his representative, before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such lists may be written, typewritten, printed, or partly written and partly printed, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. If the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists, or shall refuse or neglect to answer truthfully and correctly any question concerning each alien specified in such lists propounded to him by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such refusal or neglect occurs. The vessel may be detained at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor until the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof shall have complied with the requirements of this section and paid any fine imposed, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the amount of fine to be imposed, nor while any such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall be under arrest charged with violation of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

FEB. 5. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to do administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said act prevails, good cause appearing therefor, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as a necessary incident thereto, or when certified to the Secretary of Labor by the appropriate diplomatic or consular officer of the country to which such seaman belongs that the case of such seaman has been given careful consideration by him and that he is satisfied that such seaman is not likely to become a public charge, and that his admission is not contrary to the interests of the United States, and such certification has been approved by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel upon which any alien seaman employed on board thereof is permitted to land in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who deserts from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who fails to remain on board such vessel when she departs from port, unless such seaman shall have been granted shore leave under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of such question nor while any such seaman on board thereof is detained for special examination by the Secretary of Labor, unless there be deposited with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $12,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of such question nor while the penalties in the case of any such seaman are in excess of the value of the vessel and her appurtenances, unless a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(a) Land ports in alien seamen did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port, or that he was detained by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain a certificate of discharge in his favor from the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such vessel shall be subject to the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman so detained, but such penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the _____, do depose and say that I am the foreign-going [illegible] of said vessel; that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew thoroughly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the word "none" opposite the name of each person who has died or deserted or been discharged since leaving the last port of departure, and the cause of death or desertion so far as known to me, and the destination of each person discharged, and the date of such discharge; and that the information required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 18 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, will not appear below.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, or the person in charge of the port of arrival [here continue as in section 36 of the act of February 5, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy on page 11 and 50, Inf. of May 26, 1924, rather than page 50].

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 6. Aliens entitled to enter the United States solely in pursuance of treaty stipulations, or as officers, seamen, or members of the crew of a vessel arriving in the United States, or as bona fide visitors for pleasure, or as persons in transit through the United States, shall be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and no person who is found to be suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease shall be admitted into the United States, except that temporary admission may be granted to such persons under bond in such manner and for such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who is certified by the medical officer to be suffering from any such disease or to be mentally defective shall be detained and treated at the expense of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which he arrives, and shall not be admitted to the United States or be permitted to land at any port in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, unless such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall furnish a bond in such sum as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding $500, conditioned that such person shall not become a public charge within five years after landing, and that if he shall become a public charge within such time the money deposited as security for such bond may be applied to his support. Any person who becomes a public charge within five years after landing from causes existing prior to his entry shall be returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the person or persons or corporation who brought him to the United States, or of the vessel on which he arrived, and such person shall not be admitted to the United States at any subsequent time except upon application as provided in the case of other aliens. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien who is afflicted with any such disease or mental defect, or who is a public charge, or who is excluded from admission to the United States by the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while detained by the United States authorities, and the cost of his return to the country whence he came, and the person or persons or corporation who brought such alien to the United States shall not be entitled to make entry of any merchandise imported in the vessel in which such alien was brought to the United States until the said penalty and cost of maintenance and return have been paid. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien who is afflicted with any such disease or mental defect, or who is a public charge, or who is excluded from admission to the United States by the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while detained by the United States authorities, and the cost of his return to the country whence he came, and the person or persons or corporation who brought such alien to the United States shall not be entitled to make entry of any merchandise imported in the vessel in which such alien was brought to the United States until the said penalty and cost of maintenance and return have been paid. In the case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deposit the bond required by the Secretary of Labor, but to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1.25 for each alien covered by such bond, but in the event such bond is not made as above required, then no such vessel shall be granted clearance while such condition shall exist. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of any alien to land temporarily in the United States in case of accident to the vessel in which he arrives or other cause beyond his control, under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, but no such alien shall be permitted to land except temporarily and under such supervision as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien who is afflicted with any such disease or mental defect, or who is a public charge, or who is excluded from admission to the United States by the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while detained by the United States authorities, and the cost of his return to the country whence he came, and the person or persons or corporation who brought such alien to the United States shall not be entitled to make entry of any merchandise imported in the vessel in which such alien was brought to the United States until the said penalty and cost of maintenance and return have been paid. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of any alien to land temporarily in the United States in case of accident to the vessel in which he arrives or other cause beyond his control, under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, but no such alien shall be permitted to land except temporarily and under such supervision as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien who is afflicted with any such disease or mental defect, or who is a public charge, or who is excluded from admission to the United States by the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while detained by the United States authorities, and the cost of his return to the country whence he came, and the person or persons or corporation who brought such alien to the United States shall not be entitled to make entry of any merchandise imported in the vessel in which such alien was brought to the United States until the said penalty and cost of maintenance and return have been paid. In the case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deposit the bond required by the Secretary of Labor, but to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1.25 for each alien covered by such bond, but in the event such bond is not made as above required, then no such vessel shall be granted clearance while such condition shall exist

THE list of aliens below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port.

Immediately upon the arrival at the port of entry, each alien so enumerated shall be examined by the immigration officer at the port.

It is the duty of the master, commander, or agent of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States from any foreign port to the United States to prepare and deliver to the immigration officer at the port of entry a manifest of all aliens on board such vessel, whether destined to the United States or to some foreign country, in which manifest the following shall be set down in the order and manner hereinafter specified:

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port at any port of entry the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry a separate manifest for each such port of entry at which the vessel is to discharge, in which manifest shall be set down the name and last residence of all aliens who have been taken on board at any foreign port, whether they are destined to the United States or to some foreign country, and the name of the vessel in which they arrived at such port. The information called for by this section shall be given in answer to separate headings, which shall be arranged in the order and form prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be printed or typewritten in the English language. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall sign and swear to the manifest before the immigration officer at the port of entry. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to any such immigration officer any such manifest, in the form and manner and at the time required by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to answer truthfully and completely any question touching the matters about which information is required by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to furnish such additional information relative thereto as may be required by any such immigration officer, shall pay to the Secretary of Labor, for the use of the immigrant fund, a sum not exceeding $10 for each such refusal or neglect, and shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each and every alien concerning whom any such omission occurs, or concerning whom any false statement is knowingly made, or who lands or attempts to land in the United States without inspection, and may be arrested before any such alien lands from such vessel and detained on board or at the port of arrival by any immigration officer until such fine is paid. The Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper execution of the provisions of this section, and shall furnish to masters, agents, consignees, or owners of vessels forms to be filled out by passengers and crew in compliance therewith. Such rules and regulations shall require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of each vessel, before granting any such passenger or member of the crew a permit to land from such vessel, to deliver to the immigration officer in charge a list containing a full and correct record of all such passengers and crew granted permits to land, which list shall be signed and sworn to by such master, agent, consignee, or owner. Such rules and regulations shall require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of each vessel, before such vessel shall depart from a port of the United States for a foreign port, to deliver to the immigration officer in charge a list containing a full and correct record of all aliens who have been granted permits to land from such vessel, stating the additional information called for by the blank forms prescribed for the record of such aliens at the time of their arrival. Such rules and regulations shall require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of each vessel upon which any alien detained on board or at the port of arrival shall depart from the United States to deliver to the immigration officer in charge a list containing the name of each such alien so detained who departs on such vessel, and the manner in which and the vessel on which such departure is made. Such rules and regulations shall require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of each vessel which shall carry any alien who has been ordered excluded from the United States by the Secretary of Labor, or by any board of special inquiry, to deliver to the immigration officer in charge a list containing the name of each such alien so excluded who shall be on board such vessel, and the manner in which and the vessel on which such alien is to be deported, and the port to which such alien is to be deported. Such rules and regulations shall require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of each vessel which shall carry any alien who has been ordered deported from the United States to deliver to the immigration officer in charge a list containing the name of each such alien so deported who shall be on board such vessel, and the manner in which and the vessel on which such alien is deported, and the port to which such alien is deported. Such rules and regulations shall require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of each vessel which shall bring to the United States any alien who has been refused admission to the United States by the Secretary of Labor, or by any board of special inquiry, to deliver to the immigration officer in charge a list containing the name of each such alien so refused admission who shall be on board such vessel, and the manner in which and the vessel on which such alien arrived at such port, and such other information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port. Independent penalties for passengers at the port of arrival, but shall not be inserted on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 523) shall not be furnished by the transportation company. The list of aliens is often incomplete. When an alien manifest is a "manifest" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival like information concerning all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether they intend to land or not, and the intended destination in the port of arrival, or place contiguous as near as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe, and what, if any, moneys they have with them or have sent forward from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information which may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the identification of such aliens; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further certificate or list, signed by the master of the vessel, containing the name of every alien who may have been discharged from the vessel during its stay in port, and the cause of such discharge, and the destination of such alien, and such other information in regard to such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, but no such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall be required to furnish any information not contained in the list or lists furnished by the master before the vessel shall depart from the port at which such additional information is required by the immigration officer: Provided, That in the case of the failure of such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to deliver the list or lists required by this section, or the failure of the master to furnish any information required by the immigration officer, or the furnishing of incorrect information, such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $10 for each case of such failure or incorrect information, and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the payment of such sum has been satisfactorily proved to the Secretary of Labor, but in the case of the failure of such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to deliver the list or lists required by this section, or the failure of the master to furnish any information required by the immigration officer, or the furnishing of incorrect information, such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $10 for each case of such failure or incorrect information, and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the payment of such sum has been satisfactorily proved to the Secretary of Labor, but to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated, who may remit the whole or any part of such sum upon such terms and conditions as he or the Secretary of Labor may think proper: Provided further, That the master may be required to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a certified list of the names of all persons employed on board the vessel who are not citizens of the United States, specifying the nationality of each, the capacity in which employed, and the wages per month contracted to be paid to each, and the amount paid on account thereof, and the amount still due thereon, which list shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the time of the vessel's departure from the last foreign port touched at before arriving at the port of first arrival in the United States, and the immigration officer at the port of first arrival may require the master to produce the certificate of discharge of any alien employed on board such vessel who may be under the age of sixteen years, or who may be incapacitated for labor, or who may be afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and may refuse to allow such alien to land in the United States, and may require the master to return such alien to the country to which the vessel is bound, or to the country from which it came, or to the country of which such alien is a subject or citizen, at the option of such master, and the master shall be liable to the same penalties for refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section relative to such alien as for refusing to return any alien brought to the United States on such vessel: And provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section requiring the physical examination of any class of aliens as to whom he shall be satisfied that such examination can not be conducted at the port of arrival without unreasonable delay, and may provide for such examination at such other place as he may designate, whether or not such place be a port of entry for aliens other than seamen.

SEC. 37. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien, other than an alien lawfully admitted to the United States or who has a right to enter the United States without a visa, shall be required to detain such alien on board the vessel at such port as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival pending examination of such alien by a medical officer, and certification by such medical officer as to the probable ability of such alien to land lawfully, unless such alien shall be certified in transit through the United States to a foreign country, or unless such alien shall establish to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that he is a bona fide resident of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Central or South America, or adjacent islands, and intending to reside therein, or that he is a seasonal agricultural laborer coming from Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Central or South America, or adjacent islands, and intending to reside during the season of agricultural labor in the locality into which he proposes to enter, and to depart therefrom upon the completion of his labor, or that he is in possession of a return ticket and is coming to the United States solely as a temporary visitor for business or pleasure, or that he is in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another, and has the requisite documents for such journey, or that he is a bona fide alien seaman seeking to enter the United States solely in pursuance of his calling as a seaman and intending to depart on board the vessel or some other vessel within the period of time allowed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or that he is a member of the crew of a vessel which has arrived at a port of the United States and intends to depart on board the vessel or some other vessel within the period of time allowed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or that he is in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, unless the immigration officer has reason to believe that such alien is afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease which would be a cause for his exclusion from the United States under the provisions of this Act, or that such alien is an anarchist or is within one of the other classes excluded from admission to the United States under this Act, or that the admission of such alien is prohibited by section 3 of this Act. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the alien therein named to enter the United States, but shall not be conclusive upon the immigration officers at the ports of entry. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the detention of aliens in the case of vessels touching at ports in the United States for the purpose of taking on board passengers destined to foreign countries, or for the purpose of transferring such aliens in transit to other vessels for such destinations.

(b) Any such alien who shall come in violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act.

(c) Any master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board his vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor or any immigration officer, or who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for by section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any violation occurs. The vessel shall be liable for the payment of any fine or penalty imposed upon the master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee thereof, and may be libeled therefor in the United States district court for any district within the jurisdiction of which the vessel may arrive, and such vessel may be seized and detained under the process of such court until such fine or penalty shall have been paid or sufficient bond given to insure the payment thereof. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any fine or penalty imposed under the provisions of this section, or any part thereof, upon such terms and conditions as he may deem proper.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

THE 6. Charterers shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 have been furnished, and not then unless, before the departure of the vessel, the immigration officer in charge has received from the master of the vessel a certificate that the list is correct and complete in every particular.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, or who has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of a bona fide emergency, during the period such vessel remains in port, unless specially admitted as an immigrant under the provisions of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall be ineligible to citizenship.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than an alien lawfully admitted to the United States or who has a right to enter the United States without a visa, shall be required to detain such alien on board the vessel at such port as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival pending examination of such alien by a medical officer, and certification by such medical officer as to the probable ability of such alien to land lawfully, unless such alien shall be certified in transit through the United States to a foreign country, or unless such alien shall establish to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that he is a bona fide resident of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Central or South America, or adjacent islands, and intending to reside therein, or that he is a seasonal agricultural laborer coming from Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Central or South America, or adjacent islands, and intending to reside during the season of agricultural labor in the locality into which he proposes to enter, and to depart therefrom upon the completion of his labor, or that he is in possession of a return ticket and is coming to the United States solely as a temporary visitor for business or pleasure, or that he is in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another, and has the requisite documents for such journey, or that he is a bona fide alien seaman seeking to enter the United States solely in pursuance of his calling as a seaman and intending to depart on board the vessel or some other vessel within the period of time allowed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or that he is a member of the crew of a vessel which has arrived at a port of the United States and intends to depart on board the vessel or some other vessel within the period of time allowed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or that he is in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, unless the immigration officer has reason to believe that such alien is afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease which would be a cause for his exclusion from the United States under the provisions of this Act, or that such alien is an anarchist or is within one of the other classes excluded from admission to the United States under this Act, or that the admission of such alien is prohibited by section 3 of this Act. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the alien therein named to enter the United States, but shall not be conclusive upon the immigration officers at the ports of entry. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the detention of aliens in the case of vessels touching at ports in the United States for the purpose of taking on board passengers destined to foreign countries, or for the purpose of transferring such aliens in transit to other vessels for such destinations.

(b) Any such alien who shall come in violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act.

(c) Any master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board his vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor or any immigration officer, or who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for by section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom any violation occurs. The vessel shall be liable for the payment of any fine or penalty imposed upon the master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee thereof, and may be libeled therefor in the United States district court for any district within the jurisdiction of which the vessel may arrive, and such vessel may be seized and detained under the process of such court until such fine or penalty shall have been paid or sufficient bond given to insure the payment thereof. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any fine or penalty imposed under the provisions of this section, or any part thereof, upon such terms and conditions as he may deem proper.

(d) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall continue in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all acts, matters, and things heretofore done and omitted to be done by them, and as to all penalties and forfeitures heretofore incurred under the provisions of that Act.

The list specified below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port. Information pertaining to the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of persons of alien immigrant class (Form 529) shall not be destroyed or mutilated, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an attorney assumes to sign a "statement" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a complete list of the names of all persons on board such vessel, stating the particulars thereof, both at the time of sailing and arrival, in answers to questions which may be put by such officer or by any other officer designated by the Secretary of Labor, touching the right of any person to enter the United States, and before the immigrant inspector proceeds to examine any of the persons mentioned in such list, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a certificate, signed by him, stating the number of persons on board the vessel at the time of her arrival and the number who have died on board during the voyage, and the names of those who died, and the cause of death in each case. Such certificate shall also state the number of births that have occurred on board during the voyage, and the sex, color, and nationality of each child born. Such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further certificate, to the same effect, with respect to persons who may have died or births which may have occurred subsequent to the execution of the certificate first required, and before the vessel leaves her last port of call for the United States. Such certificates shall be prepared in quadruplicate upon forms furnished by the Secretary of Labor, and the physician of the vessel shall certify to the correctness of the entries relating to deaths and births. Such physician shall be a medical officer of the vessel, if there be one, and if there be none, then some other competent person designated by the master of the vessel. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel failing to deliver such certificates or to report the cause of death of any person on board shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each and every such offense. Such certificates shall be produced by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to the immigrant inspectors at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of first arrival in the United States, and in default thereof such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each and every such offense. The Secretary of Labor may in his discretion remit any fine or penalty provided for in this section or any part thereof.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Quarters shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 36 have been furnished, and not then unless the deposit specified in Rule XX has been made.

The administrative fine prescribed by said section 36 to that prescribed by section 33 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen, arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of that Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, or arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of the necessities of the vessel, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the proper safeguarding of the public interest, or deportation of such alien seaman.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except from foreign contiguous territory, or because of the necessities of the vessel, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the proper safeguarding of the public interest, or deportation of such alien seaman, employed on such vessel after examination by the immigration officer in charge at the foreign port of departure, and found to be afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be ground for exclusion under section 3 of this Act, shall be required to deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $120 for each such alien seaman on board, after such examination or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the port of departure, or if the vessel shall depart from the United States without the permission of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or fails to deport any

The list checked below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port immediately upon the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of (Form 6551) shall not be accepted in lieu of the list required by section 12 of the act of February 20, 1907. Any master of a vessel who refuses to deliver the list required by this section, or who fails to report the sick or injured persons on board, or who refuses to the immigrant inspectors the information required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 for each such offense.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, custodian, or commander of such vessel, within the hours hereinafter specified, to report and present to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival, or at such other port or place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, the full list of all persons on board such vessel, whether as cabin passengers or in the steerage, concerning or in relation to their right to enter the United States, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and to subscribe and take and sign oaths to the truth of the statements by them made in answering the questions contained in such list in relation to each and every person named therein, which said list shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before any person or persons shall be allowed to land from said vessel, whether such destination be known to be such port or not, and such immigration officer shall have the right to go on board such vessel for the purpose of examining the master and the members of the crew and the passengers, and to administer oaths and examine them touching matters relative to such list and the right of any and all persons to enter the United States, and to take testimony touching the same, which said testimony shall be reduced to writing and filed with said list. Such list shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information called for thereby touching the right of any and all persons named therein to enter the United States, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such list shall be prima facie evidence of the right of any person named therein to enter the United States, but the same may be controverted and the right of any person to enter the United States may be inquired into and determined notwithstanding the entry of such person.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor shall not have provided a list as herein provided, then the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing any alien to the United States shall deposit with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a bond in the penal sum of $10,000 for each alien named in the manifest of such vessel, conditioned that such alien shall not become a public charge within three years after landing, and that if such alien shall become a public charge within three years after landing, the cost of his maintenance and support shall be paid by the obligors on said bond, or in default thereof that the amount of said bond shall be recovered of them by the United States in an action to be brought for that purpose. Such bond shall be executed by such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer, and by a surety company authorized to do business as surety under the laws of the United States, and approved by the Secretary of Labor. Said bond shall be delivered to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located within the time of 612 to 618 hours after the arrival of such vessel at such port, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and in default of the delivery of such bond the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be liable to the penalty of $200 for each alien on board such vessel, to be recovered by the United States in an action to be brought for that purpose. Upon the delivery of such bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the time of 612 to 618 hours after the arrival of such vessel at such port, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and in the event such time is shortened, within such shorter time as may be prescribed, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be released from all liability for the penalty of the bond. Nothing herein contained shall be held to relieve any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer from the payment of the head tax provided for in section 1 of this act.

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the time required by section 38 of the act of February 5, 1917, have been complied with and not then while notice of inability to do so continues, or pending administrative determination, unless otherwise provided in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has embarked on board any vessel at a foreign port for the United States or any alien seaman who has been granted a temporary landing permit in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States, or intending to ship on any vessel until the immigration officer at the immediate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than from foreign contiguous territory, or touching at any port or place in Mexico, Cuba, or Newfoundland, or adjacent islands, shall, before such vessel shall depart from the port, place, or district in which it may be, or within such time thereafter as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, cause all aliens on board such vessel (whether destined to the United States or not) to be examined by the immigration officer or the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization at the port, place, or district in which such vessel may be, or by such other officer as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose, and no such vessel shall depart from the port, place, or district in which it may be until the immigration officer in charge at the port, place, or district shall have given a permit for the departure of such vessel, which permit may be granted by telephone, telegraph, wireless, or otherwise. Any such vessel departing without such permit, or without the consent of the immigration officer in charge at the port, place, or district, shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien on board thereof, to be recovered by the United States in an action to be brought for that purpose. Upon the refusal or neglect of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel to pay any such penalty, the Secretary of Labor may withhold or withdraw the clearance papers of such vessel, and may refuse the granting of clearance papers for any vessel then or thereafter owned, chartered, managed, or consigned by any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer, and such vessel shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture to the United States in any district into which she may enter or be found, by proceedings in accordance with the provisions of the customs laws. Any such vessel may be granted clearance until such penalty has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall not have provided a list as herein provided, then the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing any alien to the United States shall deposit with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a bond in the penal sum of $10,000 for each alien named in the manifest of such vessel, conditioned that such alien shall not become a public charge within three years after landing, and that if such alien shall become a public charge within three years after landing, the cost of his maintenance and support shall be paid by the obligors on said bond, or in default thereof that the amount of said bond shall be recovered of them by the United States in an action to be brought for that purpose. Upon the delivery of such bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located within the time of 612 to 618 hours after the arrival of such vessel at such port, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and in the event such time is shortened, within such shorter time as may be prescribed, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be released from all liability for the penalty of the bond. Nothing herein contained shall be held to relieve any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer from the payment of the head tax provided for in section 1 of this act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall not have provided a list as herein provided, then the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing any alien to the United States shall deposit with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a bond in the penal sum of $10,000 for each alien named in the manifest of such vessel, conditioned that such alien shall not become a public charge within three years after landing, and that if such alien shall become a public charge within three years after landing, the cost of his maintenance and support shall be paid by the obligors on said bond, or in default thereof that the amount of said bond shall be recovered of them by the United States in an action to be brought for that purpose. Upon the delivery of such bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located within the time of 612 to 618 hours after the arrival of such vessel at such port, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and in the event such time is shortened, within such shorter time as may be prescribed, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be released from all liability for the penalty of the bond. Nothing herein contained shall be held to relieve any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer from the payment of the head tax provided for in section 1 of this act.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound vessel of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain clearance until such evidence has been had or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector presenting himself at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of churches or other institutions of learning (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an alternative manner is a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged or shipped, and the names and residences of all persons who intend to become residents of the United States, and such information shall be given as to the sex, age, and marital condition of each alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of such vessel from any port of the United States the master thereof shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port a list containing the names of all persons who have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival and who will leave such port thereon, together with such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. It shall be the duty of the master of each vessel to report to such immigration officer, at such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, the name of all persons who have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival and who will leave such port thereon, together with such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master who shall refuse to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival a complete list of the persons employed on such vessel at the time of the arrival of the vessel at such port, or who shall refuse to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of departure from the United States a complete list of the persons employed on such vessel at the time of its departure, or who shall refuse to report to such immigration officer any additional persons employed on such vessel after the departure of such vessel from such port, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully any question relative to the information required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in relation to whom such violation occurs.

(b) That the master of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States shall cause a surgical examination to be made of such aliens prior to the departure of such vessel from the last port at which such aliens shall be landed, and shall certify to the fact of such examination in the list required by this section, stating the number examined. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence in any proceeding under this Act of the facts therein stated.

(c) That the Secretary of Labor shall have the power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the return to the country whence they came of aliens who may become public charges within one year after their entry into the United States from causes existing prior to their entry, and to pay the cost of their return out of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(d) That the Secretary of Labor shall have the power to establish regulations, and any violation thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $200 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(e) That the Secretary of Labor shall have the power to prescribe additional rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and shall decide all questions arising under the administration of this Act, and his decision upon all questions of law shall be subject to review by the United States courts only upon writ of habeas corpus sued out within six months after his final decision.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Chinese shall not be admitted into the United States unless they belong to one of the following classes:

1. Government officials, their families, attendants, couriers, and servants.
2. Merchants, their families, and servants.
3. Students.
4. Travelers for curiosity or pleasure.
5. Laborers who were in the United States on November 17, 1880, or who came prior to ninety days thereafter, and who have remained or have gone and returned within ninety days from the date of their departure.
6. Laborers who, having departed from the United States prior to November 17, 1880, shall within one year thereafter return to the United States.
7. Laborers who were in the United States on November 17, 1880, and who remained therein until the date of the passage of the Act of May 6, 1882.
8. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of May 6, 1882, and who remained therein until the date of the passage of the Act of July 5, 1884.
9. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of July 5, 1884, and remained therein until the date of the passage of the Act of October 1, 1888.
10. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of October 1, 1888, and remained therein continuously until the date of the passage of the Act of May 5, 1892.
11. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of May 5, 1892, and have remained therein continuously until the date of the passage of the Act of November 3, 1893.
12. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of November 3, 1893, and have remained therein continuously until the date of the passage of the Act of April 29, 1902.
13. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of April 29, 1902, and have remained therein continuously until the date of the passage of the Act of March 3, 1903.
14. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of March 3, 1903, and have remained therein continuously until the date of the passage of the Act of February 20, 1907.
15. Laborers who were in the United States on the date of the passage of the Act of February 20, 1907, and have remained therein continuously until the date of the passage of the Act of February 5, 1917, and have not been absent from the United States for more than one year at any one time.

Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit any Chinese person or person of Chinese descent, who was lawfully admitted to the United States or who lawfully entered the United States prior to November 17, 1880, and who has resided therein continuously since such admission or entry, and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad, to return within one year from the date of his departure without being subject to the head tax or other charge provided for in section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and without having to obtain the certificate provided for in section 37 of said Act.

Any Chinese person or person of Chinese descent arrested under the provisions of this Act or the Act of which it is amendatory, who shall refuse or fail to establish his right to remain in the United States to the satisfaction of the United States court or commissioner before whom he is taken for examination, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, unless the Chinese person claims the right of appeal to the Secretary of Labor, in which case he shall be granted a reasonable time in which to exercise such right of appeal.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States, who knowingly brings to the United States any alien seaman (whether nonimmigrant or not) not in possession of a valid passport and a valid nonimmigration visa, or who fails to deliver such alien from the vessel at the port of entry, and shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien so landed, and any such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1924. Such penalty shall not be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

(b) That an alien seaman shall not depart from the continental territory of the United States under the provisions of the immigration laws unless in possession of a valid passport and a valid nonimmigration visa, or such other document as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman who departs or attempts to depart in violation hereof, and such penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be libeled therefor in the United States district court of the district in which the vessel may arrive or depart. Clearance may be granted such vessel prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien seaman on any vessel arriving in the United States intends to enter the United States unlawfully, or to remain therein unlawfully, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs, he shall cause such alien seaman to be detained on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has completed the examination of such alien seaman (which examination shall be completed prior to the departure of the vessel on which he arrived), or such other time as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of such examination, and may cause such alien seaman to be removed to a station maintained by the Service for the detention of aliens for examination by the immigration officers at the port of arrival or pending action by the Secretary of Labor on the case of such alien seaman, and may require such alien seaman to enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $500 for each alien seaman, with sufficient surety, to secure the payment of the penalty provided for in this section, and may cancel such bond upon the departure of such alien seaman. Such detention shall be at the expense of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, and shall not be considered as a detention of the vessel. All aliens so detained on board vessels may be required by the master thereof to be detained on board while in port, and may be removed to and detained on board the vessel on which they arrived or other vessel before departure from the United States. Such detention on board shall be at the expense of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel. If any alien so detained on board escapes before the departure of the vessel from the United States, the master shall not depart from the port without first obtaining the written consent of the immigration officer in charge of the port, and he shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien so detained who escapes before the departure of the vessel from the United States.

(d) That the master of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States shall cause a surgical examination to be made of such aliens prior to the departure of such vessel from the last port at which such aliens shall be landed, and shall certify to the fact of such examination in the list required by this section, stating the number examined. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence in any proceeding under this Act of the facts therein stated.

(e) That the Secretary of Labor shall have the power to prescribe additional rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and shall decide all questions arising under the administration of this Act, and his decision upon all questions of law shall be subject to review by the United States courts only upon writ of habeas corpus sued out within six months after his final decision.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, AUGUST EKHOLM, of the AMERICAN MOTORSHIP NORCO, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from and by port or place making her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Pt. 10, Mar. 26, 1918, which appear below.

Sworn to before me this TWENTY NINTH day of MARCH, 19 22.

Immigrant Inspector.

Master, first or second officer.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list heretofore below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector posted at the vessel at the hour of arrival, and shall be so inspected by the inspector to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 508) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 508) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of a vessel at a place of inspection of the port of arrival there shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel in which any alien arrives to deliver to the immigrant inspector posted at the vessel at the hour of arrival, or if not convenient so to deliver to such immigrant inspector at such time and place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port, a complete and accurate list or manifest of all aliens employed on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, sex, marital condition, race, last occupation, and the country of which they are citizens or subjects, the country to which they severally belong, the final destination of each such alien, whether he has a ticket through to such destination, whether his passage is paid for by himself or by any other person or corporation or by any society or other body, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and complete addresses, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, whether in the United States in pursuance of any such contract or agreement, and whether the alien has been deported and if so when and where, whether the alien has a ticket to the place to which he says he is going and whether he has sufficient money to pay his way to such place, and how much money he has with him, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so when and how long he remained, and whether he intends to return to the country from which he comes after temporary absence, and whether he is coming for the purpose of performing labor if so what kind, whether he is joining a husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, child over sixteen years old, brother, or sister already in the United States, and if so to whom, and whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States, and whether he is a skilled laborer or not, and whether he is a member of the races or peoples mentioned in the following list, and such other facts as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, which list shall be prepared by the master or other officer in charge of the vessel, and the truthfulness of the statements therein contained shall be sworn to by the master or other officer in charge of the vessel before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival at the time of the vessel's entry at such port, and the master or other officer in charge of the vessel shall be required to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a passenger list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel at any port or place where the vessel may touch in connection with the journey, and the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival shall be furnished with a copy of such list by the master or other officer in charge of the vessel before such vessel touches at any other port or place in the United States, and failure to furnish such list or any part thereof, or the making of any false statement in connection thereto, shall be punished as provided in section 37 of this Act for failure to submit to examination by the immigrant inspectors, or to answer questions, or to furnish information before the boards of special inquiry hereinafter provided for, or for making false answers or statements before such boards, as the case may be, and any such master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to deliver such list, or any part thereof, or who refuses to allow the immigrant inspectors to come aboard such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or to detain such vessel at quarantine or elsewhere for the purpose of such inspection, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses to allow the removal of any alien from such vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for by this Act, or who refuses to comply with any of the provisions of this Act relating to the bringing of aliens into the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master fails to furnish information required by this section, or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof, and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is not paid the vessel shall be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States in the district in which the port of arrival is located and may be seized and sold to pay such fine, or a bond with sufficient sureties may be required to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector.

(b) Every alien arriving at a port specified in this section who does not appear from the ordinary inspection to be clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to admission shall be detained at the port of arrival a sufficient time to enable the boards of special inquiry hereinafter provided for to make a determination as to whether he belongs to one of the classes excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and ought to be allowed to land or shall be deported under the provisions of this Act. Such boards shall also have power to determine whether any alien who has been admitted to the United States shall be deported as having been found in the United States in violation of this Act, or in violation of any rule, regulation, or order made pursuant to the provisions of this Act, or whether he was at the time of entry a member of one or more of the classes excluded by law; and the decision of any such board of special inquiry, when approved by the head of the bureau of immigration, shall be final unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. Such appeal must be taken within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor may establish such boards of special inquiry and appoint such employees as may be necessary to assist in the examination of aliens arriving at any port of the United States, but such boards shall consist of not less than three members, a majority of whom shall be citizens of the United States. The Secretary of Labor may, whenever in his judgment the necessity exists, detail immigrant inspectors to act as members of boards of special inquiry in addition to the boards provided for by this section. Such boards may sit at any place within the United States, including on board any vessel in the service of the United States or any vessel arriving at a port of the United States, for the purpose of hearing cases of aliens arriving at such port. The decision of such boards shall be based upon the majority vote of the members present, but the chairman shall have power to call in the case of any alien the concurring vote of a second board of special inquiry. The chairman of each board shall have power to administer oaths and to take and consider evidence touching the privilege of any alien or other person to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, or touching any matter material or necessary to the inquiry, which evidence shall be taken in such manner and recorded in such form and preserved among the records of the board as the Secretary of Labor may by regulation prescribe; and such record shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in any proceeding before a court. The Secretary of Labor shall have power to prescribe rules and regulations governing the conduct of proceedings before boards of special inquiry not inconsistent with law.

(c) Any person who knowingly or wilfully by himself or another, directly or indirectly, brings or assists, aids, or abets the coming to the United States of any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(d) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(e) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(f) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall establish a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs, such bond shall be valid for the payment of such head tax, or of a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(h) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(i) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(j) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(k) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(l) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(m) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(n) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(o) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(p) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(q) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(r) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(s) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(t) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(u) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(v) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(w) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(x) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(y) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

(z) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall, if such alien has been admitted to the United States, pay a head tax of $8 in addition to any penalty imposed by this section, unless such alien shall have been in the United States for two years or shall have become a naturalized citizen thereof.

The list of nationals below shall be inserted in plain Roman letters approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors presenting the vessel in the port of arrival. Any alien not listed, but liable to be returned on vessel, shall be listed by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival as the "OTHERWISE" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That from and after 6 days from the taking effect of this Act it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or commanding officer of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place to cause to be delivered to each alien intending to depart from the United States by such vessel before the departure thereof from each port at which such alien shall take on board such vessel, a certificate in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, which certificate shall be signed by such alien, and shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the identification of such alien, including a description of such alien, and the purpose for which such alien has been admitted into the United States, and shall be prima facie evidence of the right of such alien to enter the country whose government issued the passport on which he was admitted into the United States, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Before any such alien shall be granted a clearance for a vessel to depart from any port of the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a list containing the names of all such aliens, and shall obtain the certificate of each such alien before granting such clearance, and shall deliver such certificates to the immigration officer at the port of departure. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any such vessel who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien in respect of whom such violation occurs: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, issue certificates in lieu of certificates lost, mutilated, or destroyed: Provided further, That no certificate shall be required of any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who intends to return to the United States after a temporary visit abroad: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the certificate required of any alien in transit through the United States: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the certificate required of any alien who has been in the United States two years or more and who intends to return after a temporary visit abroad.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Certificates shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been collected, and no fees unless notice of intention to the administrative officer prescribed by section 36 of this Act shall have been given at least 24 hours before the vessel is ready to depart.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under this Act, or who shall have been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or who, having come to the United States as a seaman, shall have deserted his vessel, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or be granted a visa as an immigrant unless he is in possession of a valid immigration visa and a valid passport viséed by the consular officer at the port or place at which he last embarked, and at the time of his application for admission he establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is entitled to enter some foreign country other than the United States, and will be admitted thereto upon the expiration of his permission to land temporarily in the United States. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States in violation of the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel.

SEC. 11. (a) Every alien seaman (other than an alien seaman employed on a vessel plying between the United States and foreign contiguous territory) who arrives in the United States shall, before being granted shore leave, be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, or by a surgeon designated by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be certified by such medical officer to be free from any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease. Any alien seaman who is certified to be suffering from any such disease shall be detained on board or at quarantine until he is certified by such medical officer to be free from such disease, unless he elects to withdraw his application for admission and depart on the vessel on which he arrived or on some other vessel.

(b) Any alien seaman who is found by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be suffering from a mental disease, defect, or deficiency of such a character as to affect his ability to earn a living, or who is found by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, shall be certified by the immigrant inspector to the Secretary of Labor, and shall be detained on board or at quarantine until the Secretary of Labor shall have given notice in writing that he has been informed of the case and has determined that the alien may be permitted to land temporarily or may be sent to a hospital for treatment, or may be deported, as the case may be. Any alien seaman who is certified by the Secretary of Labor to be afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease shall be deported as provided by section 19 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on any vessel at the expense of the vessel will not be required, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment thereof guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ..... do declare that I have carefully examined the foregoing list of aliens, containing ..... names, and that it is a full and true list of all the crew, including myself, now on board the said vessel, and that the said list contains the name of every alien employed on board said vessel at any time during the period of ..... days immediately preceding the date hereof, and that the said list contains the name of every alien who has been left behind at any port in the United States from which the said vessel has departed

The list of races and peoples printed below shall be inserted on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival beginning December 1, 1924. Any alien who may be refused admission to the United States should be given a printed card stating the reason for detention and the manner of obtaining review. (Sec. 16 of the immigration act of 1917.)

The list as printed below is that required by section 23 of the immigration act of 1924, and carries out the provisions of section 11 (c) of the act. Nothing in the list shall be construed to change the right of any alien who is admissible under section 4 (c) of the act to enter the United States solely for the purpose of carrying on trade between the United States and the foreign state of which he is a national, and his wife and children, if accompanying or following to join him, and any alien who is admissible under section 4 (d) of the act to enter the United States solely in pursuance of the services he will render to the United States as an officer or employee of the government of a foreign state, and his wife and children if accompanying or following to join him.

LIST OF RACES OR PEOPLES

SEC. 36. That after March 1, 1917, every person, including those returning after temporary absence, who may come to, or arrive at, any port of the United States from any foreign port or place shall be examined by the immigrant inspectors as to whether he is entitled under the provisions of this act to enter the United States, and every person who may not appear to the satisfaction of the immigrant inspectors at the time of his application for admission to be entitled to enter the United States under any of the provisions of this act shall be detained for further examination in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be subject to such further examination and inspection by the immigrant inspectors at any time prior to the final action by the board of special inquiry hereinafter provided for, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, but such examination shall be completed within two hours after the arrival of such person at the port of first arrival unless additional time be reasonably required for such completion.

SEC. 37. That the Secretary of Labor shall appoint a board, to consist of three boards of special inquiry, which shall have authority to determine whether aliens who may be temporarily detained at ports of arrival shall be allowed to enter the United States or shall be deported as provided in this act. Said boards shall also have such other duties as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be subject to such administrative supervision as he may direct. Each board shall consist of three members, who shall be appointed without regard to the provisions of the civil-service laws and regulations, and who shall each receive a salary of $4,000 per annum and actual traveling expenses and subsistence while traveling on official business. One member of each board shall be a medical officer of the Public Health Service, designated by the Secretary of Labor on the recommendation of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, one member shall be selected from the citizens of the United States who have special knowledge of immigration problems, and one member shall be a person of suitable experience selected from the general service of the Department of Labor. Boards of special inquiry shall have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses, take testimony, and receive such evidence as may be submitted to them touching the right of any alien to enter the United States. Such boards shall sit at such times and places as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may authorize to direct the operations of boards. The decision of any two members of a board shall be the decision of the board, subject to such review as may be provided for by the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, appoint one or more additional boards of special inquiry at any port of arrival where in his judgment the same may be necessary to secure the prompt examination of aliens seeking admission to the United States. Pending the appointment of such boards, the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival shall perform the duties imposed upon boards of special inquiry by this act. The Secretary of Labor may also, in his discretion, detail boards of special inquiry to inquire into the cases of aliens at any place within the United States.

SEC. 38. That the head tax of $8 provided for in section 2 of this act shall be paid by every alien entering the United States, including aliens in transit through the United States, and by every alien who departs from and returns to the United States, unless specifically exempted by the provisions of this act, and by every alien who shall be allowed to enter the United States upon a nonimmigrant visa as provided in section 3 of this act and who shall later be admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant without having paid the head tax, and by every alien who shall be admitted to the United States in pursuance of the provisions of section 4 (c) of this act and who shall later be admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant without having paid the head tax, and by every alien who shall be admitted to the United States in pursuance of the provisions of section 4 (d) of this act and who shall later be admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant without having paid the head tax. The head tax shall be paid to the collector of customs of the district at the port of arrival, or if there be no collector at such port, then to the collector of customs nearest to the port of arrival, by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel in which the alien arrives, or by the alien himself if he arrives otherwise than by vessel. The head tax shall be refunded to any alien who is refused a landing from the United States, or who withdraws his application for admission within two days after his arrival at the port, or who is admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant and who departs from the United States within two days after his arrival at the port, or who is admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant and who departs from the United States within two days after the time limit granted him by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may authorize to grant such extension of time, or who is admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant and who, prior to the expiration of two days after the time limit granted him by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may authorize to grant such extension of time, changes his nonimmigrant status in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe.

SEC. 39. That any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien who has been refused admission to the United States shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the cost of the maintenance of such alien while in the United States and of his transportation to the country whence he came, unless such alien is admitted to the United States by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may authorize to grant such admission, or unless such alien is admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant and the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel in which he arrives shall give a bond satisfactory to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located, in such sum, not exceeding $300, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned for the payment of such cost of maintenance and transportation in case such alien shall not depart from the United States within such time as may be granted him for such purpose by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may authorize to grant such extension of time. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the payment of the cost of maintenance of any alien who is admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant and who, prior to the expiration of two days after the time limit granted him by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may authorize to grant such extension of time, changes his nonimmigrant status in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe.

TAX. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and no vessel shall be granted clearance while any head tax imposed by section 38 of said act remains unpaid.

PENALTY. 7. Masters neglecting or refusing to comply with the requirements of the immigration laws as to the payment of head taxes, or who shall violate any of the provisions of section 36 of said act relating to the detention of aliens, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom such violation occurs.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel touching at a port of the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien seaman in connection with the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or on account of illness, injury, or other cause found sufficient by the Secretary of Labor, under such conditions as he may prescribe, for the granting of a temporary permit to land.

(b) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported to the country whence he came to the United States on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such country, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the provisions of this act, unless the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that such alien seaman will not become a public charge and that his deportation at such time will be unduly injurious to the interests of the United States, in which case he may grant such alien seaman a temporary permit to land in the United States, under such conditions as he may prescribe, for such period of time as he may deem necessary for such purpose.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and which vessel shall not be ready to depart from the port for a period of thirty days, will result in undue loss to the owners of such vessel, he may cause such alien seamen to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the provisions of this act.

(d) That any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States as a member of the crew of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on another vessel within the period specified by the Secretary of Labor, and who shall thereafter come to the United States as a passenger, shall be deported as provided in this act, and shall be ineligible to become a citizen of the United States.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on another vessel will result in undue loss to the owners of such vessel, he may cause such alien seamen to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the provisions of this act.

(f) That any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States within the period specified by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported as provided in this act, notwithstanding the provisions of section 19 of this act.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, E. LANDSTROM, of the AMER. S.S. RUTH ALEXANDER, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from and port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, neither appear below.

Sworn to before me this 18TH day of MARCH, 19 25

Immigrant Inspector.

_____
Master, First [illegible] Officer.

The list prescribed below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. One blank shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry (form 598) shall not be examined or passed, but shall be detained by the inspector in charge at the port of arrival. Each continuation sheet must be numbered consecutively, beginning with number 1, and the total number of sheets used must be stated on the last one used. Any erasure, alteration, or omission may cause delay in the landing of passengers. Make all entries plainly in ink.

"Alien in transit" means a person in actual possession of a through ticket, and in the case of a vessel scheduled to depart within twenty-four hours, a person who has been inspected and admitted to the United States, but who has not passed through the customs.

SEC. 36. That from arrival in any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, under what watch they were respectively shipped or engaged, and such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival at any such port said vessel shall be subject to such inspection by immigrant inspectors, to be conducted as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or other officer authorized to grant clearance papers until the master thereof has delivered to such collector a certificate from the principal immigration officer to the effect that such lists have been received and that the provisions of this section have been complied with on the part of such vessel and master. Any master who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists, or who refuses to such inspection, or who refuses to deliver to each alien such certificate as may be required by the next section hereof, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 hereof shall be liable to the United States for the amount thereof, which may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in a civil action.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 19. (a) Every alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be detained on board or at such port or place as the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival may direct until a certificate has been issued by the Secretary of Labor permitting him to land, or until he has been otherwise lawfully landed or shipped, or until he has been returned to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, or until he has been admitted to the United States under bond as provided in subdivision (b) of this section. Every alien seaman who is ordered detained on board or at such port or place shall be given a certificate to that effect by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and upon request shall be furnished with a list of the vessels or other means of transportation upon which he may be returned to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States. Any such alien seaman who refuses to be so detained or who departs from such port or place without permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival before he is lawfully entitled to land, or before he is shipped or otherwise lawfully removed from the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Any such alien seaman may be permitted to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival under bond, with such limitations as to residence within the United States, subject to such revocation, and upon such notice to the master or agent of the vessel as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, but no such bond shall be required as a condition precedent to the granting of such temporary permission to land. Such bond shall be in a sum not exceeding $500 and shall be conditioned upon the return of such alien seaman to the vessel or other means of transportation upon which he arrived, or upon the departure of such alien seaman from the United States under such other means of transportation as may be satisfactory to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, within such period of time as may be prescribed by the immigration officer at the time of the granting of such temporary permission to land. Such bond may be given by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel upon which such alien seaman arrived, or by a surety company holding a certificate of authority as an acceptable surety on Federal bonds, approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. Upon the giving of such bond the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall issue to such alien seaman a certificate identifying him as the person in whose favor such bond has been given, and specifying the vessel or other means of transportation upon which he arrived and the period of time within which he is required to depart from the United States. Such certificate shall be surrendered by such alien seaman upon his departure from the United States to the master or agent of the vessel or other means of transportation upon which he arrived, and by such master or agent delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port from which such alien seaman departs. Upon the failure of such alien seaman to depart within the period of time specified in such certificate, or upon his failure to report to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival when required so to do, the bond given for his temporary landing shall be forfeited. Such bond may be sued for and recovered by the United States in the name of the Secretary of Labor in the district in which the port of arrival is located. The amount of the bond so forfeited shall be not less than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or other officer authorized to grant clearance papers until the determination of such question upon the report of the immigration officer at the port of arrival is received and complied with by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman has been unlawfully landed in the United States, or has been permitted to land temporarily under bond and has failed to depart therefrom in accordance with the terms of such bond, or has been found in the United States in violation of this section, such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States. Deportation proceedings may be instituted against such alien seaman within five years after the cause arises.

(d) The master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman who is required by this section to be detained on board or at such port or place until a certificate is issued by the Secretary of Labor, or who has been permitted to land temporarily under bond, shall report the departure of such alien seaman from the United States to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, and unless such report is made and the departure of such alien seaman from the United States is verified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure before the vessel on which such alien seaman departs shall have left the last port in the United States, the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. Clearance may be granted such vessel prior to the payment of such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the same with the collector of customs.

(e) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this section, and may employ such additional medical officers, matrons, and other employees in the Immigration Service as may be necessary for the proper medical examination of alien seamen.

(f) Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deliver any alien seaman for medical examination, or to detain any alien seaman on board or at such port or place, or who shall refuse or fail to report the departure of any alien seaman, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 hereof, or who shall refuse or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or with any rule or regulation made thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman has been unlawfully landed in the United States, or has been permitted to land temporarily under bond and has failed to depart therefrom in accordance with the terms of such bond, or has been found in the United States in violation of this section, such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States. Deportation proceedings may be instituted against such alien seaman within five years after the cause arises.

(h) The master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman who is required by this section to be detained on board or at such port or place until a certificate is issued by the Secretary of Labor, or who has been permitted to land temporarily under bond, shall report the departure of such alien seaman from the United States to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, and unless such report is made and the departure of such alien seaman from the United States is verified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure before the vessel on which such alien seaman departs shall have left the last port in the United States, the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. Clearance may be granted such vessel prior to the payment of such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the same with the collector of customs.

(i) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this section, and may employ such additional medical officers, matrons, and other employees in the Immigration Service as may be necessary for the proper medical examination of alien seamen.

(j) Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deliver any alien seaman for medical examination, or to detain any alien seaman on board or at such port or place, or who shall refuse or fail to report the departure of any alien seaman, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 hereof, or who shall refuse or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or with any rule or regulation made thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or temporarily to ship as a member of the crew of a vessel departing from the United States, or involuntarily to ship as a member of the crew of a vessel departing from the United States, or to be returned to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, or until he has been admitted to the United States under bond as provided in subdivision (b) of section 19 of the immigration laws and regulations, or to be treated in a hospital, or to be cared for by an institution or society, or to be deported to a foreign port.

(b) Every alien seaman who, after having been admitted to the United States, deserts the vessel on which he arrived, or any vessel upon which he has subsequently shipped, or who remains in the United States for a longer period than that for which he was granted permission to land, shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States. Deportation proceedings may be instituted against such alien seaman within five years after the cause arises.

(c) Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deliver any alien seaman for medical examination, or to detain any alien seaman on board or at such port or place, or who shall refuse or fail to report the departure of any alien seaman, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 hereof, or who shall refuse or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or with any rule or regulation made thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(d) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman has been unlawfully landed in the United States, or has been permitted to land temporarily under bond and has failed to depart therefrom in accordance with the terms of such bond, or has been found in the United States in violation of this section, such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector in charge at the port of arrival [here insert name of port] at least 24 hours before the vessel arrives. The list of aliens on board (Form 598) shall not be returned on demand, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee, or transportation officer, to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the information required by section 12 of this Act as to each person who was a member of the crew or other person employed on such vessel, and such additional information relative to such persons as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, at such time before the vessel's departure as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and no such person shall be allowed to land from such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has granted a permit for such landing, except as provided in section 37 of this Act. Any person who violates any provision of this section, or knowingly makes any false statement in any list required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any vessel which shall arrive at a port of the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or shall depart from the United States for any foreign contiguous territory, shall be required to comply with the provisions of this section, but the Secretary of Labor may by regulations provide for the omission from the lists required to be delivered by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or transportation officer at the time of departure from the United States of persons whose names appear on the lists delivered at the time of arrival.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Crewmen shall not be granted more than one shore leave while in any port of the United States except upon the written permission of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or transportation officer, and then only to such crewmen as are not required for duty. Permits for shore leave shall be issued only to crewmen who present passports containing a valid unexpired visa, if a visa is required by the rules governing the admission of aliens to the United States, and who are in possession of the certificate of identification provided for in section 8 hereof. Permits for shore leave shall be granted only to crewmen who are clothed in such manner as not to attract undue attention ashore. Permits for shore leave shall not be issued to more than 5 per cent of the crew at any one time, nor to more than 10 per cent of the crew of vessels carrying passengers, except that in the discretion of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival the number of crewmen to whom permits may be issued may be increased to 15 per cent of the crew. Permits for shore leave shall be issued only to crewmen whose names appear on the lists delivered to the immigration officer at the time of arrival, and the number of permits issued to the crew of any vessel shall be noted on the lists delivered to the immigration officer at the time of arrival. Permits for shore leave shall be issued only during the period between sunrise and sunset, and shall be limited to the port of arrival. Crewmen who have been granted shore leave shall be required to return to the vessel before sailing time, and failure to return to the vessel before sailing time shall be reported to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and, if the crewman is not found on board the vessel when ready to sail, he shall be reported as a deserter. Masters, owners, agents, consignees, or transportation companies bringing crewmen to the United States in violation of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided in section 37 of the Act of February 5, 1917.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States shall be permitted to land at that port of the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of the necessity for repairs to the vessel, or pending the departure of the vessel, unless a bond in the penal sum of $300 with sufficient surety or sureties, approved by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, conditioned that such seaman shall depart on board the vessel or some other vessel within such period of time as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, is deposited with such immigration officer. Such bond shall be returned to the depositor when the Secretary of Labor is satisfied that such seaman has departed from the United States within the time specified. Such bond may be forfeited in the event of the failure of such seaman to depart within the time specified, and the amount thereof recovered and paid into the Treasury as other bonds are forfeited and recovered. Pending the deposit of such bond or the departure of such seaman, he may be detained in such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel at a port of the United States from any foreign port the master, owner, agent, consignee, or transportation officer in charge of the vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a complete list of all the crew members employed on board the vessel, showing the name, nationality, last permanent address, and such other information regarding each as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any such person who fails to deliver such list or who refuses to permit any immigration officer to board such vessel for the purpose of examining the crew list, or who refuses to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge any question relative to the crew list propounded to him by any such immigration officer, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each offense. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located until the master of such vessel has been served by the immigration officer at the port with a written notice that clearance papers will be withheld until the provisions of this section have been complied with. Upon the refusal of the master to deliver the crew list, or upon the refusal of any member of the crew to answer truthfully any question propounded to him by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival relative to the crew list, such immigration officer shall report the facts to the collector of customs, who shall withhold clearance papers from such vessel until notified by the immigration officer that the immediate departure of such vessel will not be prejudicial to the interests of the United States. Any master who violates the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each offense.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival and alien immigrants entering at such port shall be examined by him before they are allowed to land. The list or manifest of aliens required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival must be signed by the master or agent of the vessel (Form 598) and the following oath or affirmation must be administered to the master by the immigration officer at the port of arrival:

"You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the manifest of alien passengers now delivered by you to the immigration officer at this port is in all respects true and correct, and contains the name of every alien who has been engaged in procuring passage for himself or herself or for any alien on board this vessel, and of every alien who has paid or agreed to pay the cost of such passage, so far as you have been able to ascertain the same, and that no information which you have received concerning any such alien has been withheld."

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival lists containing a full manifest of all aliens on board of such vessel, whether the destination of such aliens be the United States or not, and whether they were originally signed for the voyage or were transferred from other vessels, specifying the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether in possession of money and how much, whether possessed of railroad ticket and how much, whether in good health, mentally and physically, whether deformed or crippled, and if so, how, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether connected with any criminal institution or organization, whether a polygamist, whether in the United States or any other country at the time of the passage of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and his name and complete address, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be filled out in the English language by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, or by the person who shall sign the list for the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and each person named therein shall be questioned concerning the several matters required to be specified therein, and the answers shall be recorded by the person writing the list. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port of first arrival in the United States from any foreign port or place a certified copy of the list or lists of all passengers who were not included in the lists delivered at such port, and shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at each subsequent port in the United States at which such vessel may arrive before landing any passengers a certified copy of the list or lists of passengers who may be landed at such port, and shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure from the United States a certified copy of the list or lists of passengers who have been landed at intermediate ports. Such lists shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be open to the inspection of the immigrant inspector at the port. The list or manifest of aliens required to be delivered at the port of departure in the United States shall contain a statement by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel as to the number of aliens who have been landed at intermediate ports, and the failure to deliver such list or manifest, or to correctly state therein the number of aliens who have been landed at intermediate ports, shall be punished as provided in section 37 of this act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 37 of said act has been waived, the deposit directed in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, during the period such vessel remains in port, unless specifically authorized by the Secretary of Labor and then only under such conditions as he may prescribe.

SEC. 30. (c) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof bringing any seaman (except immigrants in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to deliver on board such vessel such seaman employed on such vessel upon the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and immediately upon learning of the illness, injury, or quarantine requirements during the period such seaman remains in the port of arrival is located the sum of $2,000 for each alien so to do or, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers or granted prior to the determination of such question upon the report of the medical officer of the public health service, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel at a port in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing a full manifest of all aliens on board of such vessel, whether the destination of such aliens be the United States or not, and whether they were originally signed for the voyage or were transferred from other vessels, specifying the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether in possession of money and how much, whether possessed of railroad ticket and how much, whether in good health, mentally and physically, whether deformed or crippled, and if so, how, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether connected with any criminal institution or organization, whether a polygamist, whether in the United States or any other country at the time of the passage of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and his name and complete address, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be filled out in the English language by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, or by the person who shall sign the list for the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and each person named therein shall be questioned concerning the several matters required to be specified therein, and the answers shall be recorded by the person writing the list. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port of first arrival in the United States from any foreign port or place a certified copy of the list or lists of all passengers who were not included in the lists delivered at such port, and shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at each subsequent port in the United States at which such vessel may arrive before landing any passengers a certified copy of the list or lists of passengers who may be landed at such port, and shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure from the United States a certified copy of the list or lists of passengers who have been landed at intermediate ports. Such lists shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival and shall be open to the inspection of the immigrant inspector at the port. The list or manifest of aliens required to be delivered at the port of departure in the United States shall contain a statement by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel as to the number of aliens who have been landed at intermediate ports, and the failure to deliver such list or manifest, or to correctly state therein the number of aliens who have been landed at intermediate ports, shall be punished as provided in section 37 of this act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Women as military seamen is a violation to clear ships should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a complete manifest, duplicate in form and form, of all persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or steerage, including the names of all persons who may have been landed or died during the journey, and the sex, age, nationality, last residence, and final destination of each person who may be detained under the provisions of this act, and the manifest shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of such vessel, taken before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, which oath may be administered by him; and the master or commanding officer of such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival such information as he may have in his possession concerning any person who may be found to be unlawfully in the United States or who may not have been lawfully admitted thereto, and such other information as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master who refuses to deliver such manifest, or to furnish such information, or who refuses to allow the immigrant inspector to come on board for the purpose of inspecting the manifest, or who refuses to detain any alien on board when required so to do by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to allow any such alien to be taken before the proper immigrant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to the payment of any fine or penalty imposed on account of the violation of the provisions of this section, or while such fine or penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or penalty or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That when an alien seaman shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent island, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien so unlawfully remaining, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 hereof has been furnished, and the deposit specified in Rule 55 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of sickness or injury certified by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival from the vessel, or because of such certification by a medical officer of the Public Health Service, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the control and removal of such aliens. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of any vessel who shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to the payment of any fine or penalty imposed on account of the violation of the provisions of this section, or while such fine or penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or penalty or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent island, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien so unlawfully remaining, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or penalty or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according to sex; those whose races are or do not speak English; those who are literate and those illiterate. The names of all members of a so-called tourist class, across races, speak the English of Scotland, America, and they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Head-tax status).—Alongside these should make no entries in this column. The space is for use by government officials only.

Column 2 (Nos.).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Relation or status).—The usual should be M (married), S (single), DW (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrived, as for example "Lawyer," "Clerk," "Mason," as appropriate to designate the calling, trade, or profession followed by the alien. Such terms as "Laborer," "Farmer," "Merchant," "Engineer," "Housewife," "Student," and the like, are not sufficiently descriptive. Aliens formerly engaged in gainful occupations, but not actually so engaged, should be described as "Laborer, formerly engaged in ——," or "Housewife, formerly engaged in ——," as the case may be.

A dash should be made in every instance where information is lacking or the question is not applicable.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the most part for wages.

Agricultural pursuits include those persons farming their own property, regardless of the amount of money earned, as well as those persons farming on shares and paying rent in produce.

Column 5 (Nationality).—Aliens of different races, even though they may be citizens of the same country, should be described as to their racial origin, such as Scotch, Irish, English, German, French, Spanish, Italian (Latin), Negro (African), Chinese, Japanese, Hebrew, East Indian, Arabian, Turkish, Armenian, Finnish, Russian, Polish, Croatian, Servian, Bohemian (Czech), Slovak, Dalmatian, Greek, Lithuanian, Portuguese, Roumanian (Roumanian), Ruthenian (Russniak), Magyar, Hungarian, Bulgarian, Servian, Montenegrin, Slovenian, Syrian, Mexican, Cuban, West Indian, Scandinavian (Swedish, Norwegian, Danish), Dutch, Flemish, etc. Such terms as "Austrian," "German," "African," "American," and "British" are insufficient to indicate the race or people to which the alien belongs. Thus, the term "British" includes natives of England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Canada, Australia, and other British possessions, and the majority belong to distinctly different races. Specific information should be obtained and recorded.

Column 6 (Last residence or domicile).—Country of last permanent residence of alien who has resided in another country for one year or more. The entry should be the name by which the country is commonly known, as for example, "England," "Germany," "Italy," "Mexico," "Cuba," "Japan," "China," "Ireland," "Scotland," "Wales," "Russia," "Poland," "Turkey," "Greece," "Portugal," "Spain," "France," "Belgium," "Switzerland," "Holland," "Norway," "Sweden," "Denmark," "Finland," "Hungary," "Austria," "Roumania," "Bulgaria," "Servia," "Montenegro," "Slovenia," "Dalmatia," "Croatia," "Bohemia," "Czechoslovakia," "Ruthenia," "Syria," "Arabia," "India," "Siam," "Australia," "New Zealand," "Africa," "Central America," "West Indies," "Cuba," "Mexico," "Canada," "Newfoundland," "Philippine Islands," "Hawaii," "Porto Rico," "Panama," "Canal Zone," "Tutuila," "Guam," "Virgin Islands of the United States," or "Alaska," as appropriate to designate the country of last permanent residence.

Column 7 (Immigration visa).—Enter here the number of the immigration visa and the date issued, as for example, "No. 1," "No. 2," "No. 3," as appropriate to designate the order in which the immigration visa was granted by the American consular officer.

Column 8 (Name and complete address of person or company from whom alien last procured passage ticket).—Enter here the name and complete address of the person or company from whom the alien last procured the ticket on which he is coming to the United States. If the ticket was procured by the alien himself, the word "Himself" should be entered. If the ticket was procured by a relative, the word "Relative" should be entered. If the ticket was procured by a friend, the word "Friend" should be entered. If the ticket was procured by the master of the vessel, the word "Master" should be entered. If the ticket was procured by the United States Government, the words "United States Government" should be entered. If the ticket was procured by a foreign government, the words "Foreign Government" should be entered. If the ticket was procured by a steamship company, the name of the company should be entered.

Column 9 (Final destination).—The purpose is to show the ultimate final destination of the alien who is coming to the United States. If he is coming to a definite address, such address should be given, as for example, "Mrs. Mary Smith, 1234 Main Street, Boston, Mass." If he is coming to a definite city, such city should be given, as for example, "Chicago, Ill." If he is coming to a definite State, such State should be given, as for example, "Texas." If he is coming to the United States for a visit, the words "For visit" should be entered. If he is coming to the United States in transit to a foreign country, the words "In transit" should be entered.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Separate attention should be called to the distinction between race and the country of which aliens are citizens or subjects. Persons of the same race frequently have different citizenship, and persons of the same citizenship frequently belong to different races. For instance, "Germany," "Russia," "Hungary," "Austria," "Turkey," "Canada," "Mexico," "Cuba," "Japan," "China," "Ireland," "Scotland," "Wales," "Africa," "Australia," "India," "Siam," "Arabia," "Central America," "West Indies," "Panama," "Canal Zone," "Philippine Islands," "Hawaii," "Porto Rico," "Tutuila," "Guam," "Virgin Islands of the United States," "Alaska," and the like, indicate countries of which the inhabitants belong to various races. Persons born in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Japan, China, Panama, Canal Zone, Philippine Islands, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Tutuila, Guam, Virgin Islands of the United States, Alaska, and the like, belong to various races, and the race or people to which they belong should be entered in this column.

The term "Canada" refers to the Canadian people (not Germans).

NEW YORK

The term "New York" refers to the people of the State of New York, including those born in the United States and those who have become citizens thereof, and also those who have come to the United States and have not become citizens thereof, but have resided in the State of New York for sufficient time to become residents thereof under the laws of the State of New York.

PENNSYLVANIA

VIRGINIA (BLACK)

"African (Black)," refers to the African Negro, whether born in Africa or America. Not all of these people are Africans, but all are Negroes. Also, all persons of mixed African and white blood should be entered as Negroes.

MARYLAND

GEORGIA

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

VIRGINIA (BLACK)

"African (Black)," refers to the African Negro, whether born in Africa or America. Not all of these people are Africans, but all are Negroes. Also, all persons of mixed African and white blood should be entered as Negroes.

NORTH CAROLINA

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than Cubans or Spanish Americans.

MARYLAND

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

VIRGINIA (BLACK)

"African (Black)," refers to the African Negro, whether born in Africa or America. Not all of these people are Africans, but all are Negroes. Also, all persons of mixed African and white blood should be entered as Negroes.

(NEGRO) MULATTO

The people who are known to have in their bodies a mixture of white and Negro blood. Also, all persons, except Negroes, who have in their bodies a mixture of Indian blood and white blood. Also, all persons who have in their bodies a mixture of Indian blood and Negro blood.

To (1) Chinese immigrants of Chinese, Japanese, Hindus, Malays, Filipinos, Caribbean Negroes, and Haitians; (2) Japanese immigrants of Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos, Caribbean Negroes, and Haitians; (3) Hindu immigrants of Hindus, Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos, Caribbean Negroes, and Haitians; (4) Filipino immigrants of Filipinos, Chinese, Japanese, Hindus, Caribbean Negroes, and Haitians; (5) Caribbean Negro immigrants of Caribbean Negroes, Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos, Hindus, and Haitians; (6) Haitian immigrants of Haitians, Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos, Hindus, and Caribbean Negroes.

Column 11 (Name of ship).—The status should be entered as "Alien" (Head).

Column 12 (Name of steamship company).—Enter here the name of the steamship company by which the alien arrived, as for example, "U.S." or "P.," "U.S." or "P.," "U.S." or "P.," as appropriate to designate the steamship company by which the alien arrived. If by a foreign transportation line, the name of the country to which the vessel belongs should be entered, as for example, "French," "German," "Italian," "Spanish," "Portuguese," "Belgian," "Dutch," "Norwegian," "Swedish," "Danish," "Finnish," "Russian," "Polish," "Greek," "Turkish," "Roumanian," "Bulgarian," "Servian," "Montenegrin," "Austrian," "Hungarian," "Japanese," "Chinese," "Siamese," "Hindu," "Arabian," "Australian," "New Zealand," "Mexican," "Cuban," "Panamanian," "Canadian," "Newfoundland," "Philippine," "Hawaiian," "Porto Rican," "Tutuilan," "Guamanian," "Virgin Islands of the United States," or "Alaskan," as appropriate.

Columns 13 and 14.—Enter the number of the page and line of the document on which the name of the alien appears.

Columns 15–25.—The information required by these columns is self-explanatory.

Columns 26–27.—Enter here any remarks which may be necessary to explain any of the entries made in the foregoing columns.

The list of names below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival of each vessel. The list of aliens to whom immigration officers desire to give special attention will be furnished by the inspector in charge at the port of arrival.

Immigrant inspectors pay record of the head of arrival and shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. Each alien must be listed, and the list must be signed and sworn to by the master or purser of the vessel or by the surgeon, if there be one. Each list must be numbered consecutively, beginning with number 1 for the first alien listed on each vessel. Each page of the list must be signed by the master or purser. Any failure to comply with the requirements of this section will be punished by a fine of $10 for each alien concerning whom such failure occurs. The list of aliens required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival must be delivered before the vessel shall be granted pratique, and failure to deliver such list before the vessel is granted pratique will be punished by a fine of $10 for each alien concerning whom such failure occurs. The master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien not listed, or for failure to deliver the list, or for failure to prevent any person from going on board the vessel before the inspection of the same by the immigrant inspectors, or before pratique is granted. The immigrant inspectors shall have the right to go on board of any vessel at any time for the purpose of inspecting the same, and to question any person on board thereof in relation to any matter connected with the provisions of this act. The compensation of immigrant inspectors shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, which list or manifest shall contain, in addition to the name, age, sex, calling, or occupation, and nationality of each alien, the following additional information: Whether such alien is married or single; the name and residence of the person, relative or friend, whether in the United States or elsewhere, whom such alien intends to join; whether such alien has a ticket reading to destination; whether such alien has been in the United States before, and, if so, when and where; whether such alien has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether such alien is a polygamist; whether such alien is an anarchist; whether such alien believes in or is opposed to organized government or belongs to any organization entertaining such belief; whether such alien is coming in pursuance of a previously existing contract, and if so, what and with whom such contract exists; whether such alien has a ticket or sufficient money to pay his way to his destination, and if not, how much he has; whether such alien has been deported, and if so, how often and the cause for each deportation; whether such alien is coming by reason of any relative having sent for him, and if so, what relative; whether such alien intends to return to the country whence he came after engaging in labor for a limited period; whether such alien is a skilled or unskilled laborer, and what is his occupation; whether such alien is married or single, and the age of wife and children of such alien, if any; whether such alien is able to read or write; the height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and all visible distinguishing marks of such alien; the name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence such alien came; whether such alien has a ticket through to the place in the United States to which he is destined; whether such alien intends to become a citizen of the United States; whether such alien has a farm, and if so, whether he owns the farm or rents it; whether such alien intends to return to the United States after visiting abroad; whether such alien has been in the United States before, and, if so, when and where; whether such alien has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether such alien is a polygam

Any list or manifest before filed to purchase or obtain foods otherwise than by the Department and to supply for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 36. That when written application is made to the Secretary of the Treasury by the master of any vessel arriving at the port of arrival that the immigrants destined to the United States have been carefully inspected by the proper officers of the country from which they came before embarkation and at the port of departure, and that in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury the immigrants may be landed without danger to the public health, and that the vessel is likely to arrive at the port of arrival within ten days from the date of such application, the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, issue to the master of such vessel a certificate to that effect, which certificate shall be presented to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the immigrants are landed from such vessel, and in such case the immigrants may be landed from such vessel without detention on board for observation by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may withdraw any certificate issued under the provisions of this section whenever in his judgment the public health may be endangered by the landing of immigrants from such vessel, and may refuse to issue certificates under this section for vessels coming to ports which in his judgment are not properly equipped for the detention and treatment of immigrants who may be detained on board or at quarantine.

Sec. 38. That when written application is made to the Secretary of the Treasury by the master of any vessel arriving at the port of arrival that the immigrants destined to the United States have been carefully inspected by the proper officers of the country from which they came before embarkation and at the port of departure, and that in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury the immigrants may be landed without danger to the public health, and that the vessel is likely to arrive at the port of arrival within ten days from the date of such application, the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, issue to the master of such vessel a certificate to that effect, which certificate shall be presented to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the immigrants are landed from such vessel, and in such case the immigrants may be landed from such vessel without detention on board for observation by the immigrant inspector at the port: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may withdraw any certificate issued under the provisions of this section whenever in his judgment the public health may be endangered by the landing of immigrants from such vessel, and may refuse to issue certificates under this section for vessels coming to ports which in his judgment are not properly equipped for the detention and treatment of immigrants who may be detained on board or at quarantine. All certificates issued under the provisions of this section shall be prima facie evidence that the immigrants therein described are entitled to land from the vessel named therein, and the decision of the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival shall be final as to the right of any immigrant to land who has been certified to land by the Secretary of the Treasury, unless upon the certificate issued by the Secretary of the Treasury it shall appear that the immigrant inspector has been guilty of fraud or misrepresentation affecting the health or other qualification of any immigrant who has been certified to land, or unless the immigrant shall be afflicted with some contagious disease which was not known to the Secretary of the Treasury or to the immigrant inspector at the time of the issuance of the certificate and which would be likely to endanger the public health if such immigrant be landed. Any master who shall refuse to receive back on board his vessel any immigrant who may be certified to land under the provisions of this section, or who shall fail to remove any immigrant certified to land under the provisions of this section to the port from which such vessel came to the United States, shall pay to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival the cost of the return transportation of such immigrant, and such cost shall be recovered from the master in the form of a penalty: Provided, That masters of vessels shall not be required to return any immigrant who has been certified to land at the port of arrival, and who has been subsequently found to be afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease which was not known to exist at the time of the examination of such immigrant before leaving the foreign port, and which would be likely to endanger the public health if landed: Provided further, That masters of vessels shall not be required to return any immigrant who may become a public charge after the expiration of one year after his arrival in the United States.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. (Immigrants in transit.) Any alien entering the United States solely for the purpose of passing through the United States in immediate and continuous transit through the country to a foreign port, or to a port in a contiguous territory, and who is in possession of a through ticket or has sufficient money to pay for such ticket, and who is not destined to the United States or to any island possession thereof, shall be permitted to land temporarily in the United States under such rules as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and may be required to furnish a bond in such sum as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, conditioned upon the departure of such alien from the United States within such time as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Such alien shall be subject to a head tax of $8 and to such physical and mental examination and such other inspection as may be necessary to determine whether he belongs to any of the excluded classes enumerated in section 3 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, except that he shall not be required to pay the head tax prescribed by that section if he establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is in transit through the United States to a country other than the United States in which he has a right to enter, and will depart therefor from a port of the United States within the period of his admission hereunder, and that he has not acquired residence in the United States. Any such alien who shall be found by the Secretary of Labor to be within any of the classes excluded by section 3 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, except the head tax, or who shall fail to depart from the United States within the period of his admission hereunder, or who shall return to the United States from foreign contiguous territory after having departed therefrom, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that his failure to depart within the period of his admission was due to circumstances over which he had no control

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to report to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival the names and nationalities of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company; when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and the names of the ports at which they have severally been discharged; and upon the arrival of such vessel at the port of final destination of the alien seaman the master shall report to the Secretary of Labor, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the vessel shall leave the port of arrival the master shall report to the Secretary of Labor, in writing, the name of any such alien who has been left behind, and the cause of his detention, so far as known, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien not so reported, detained, or delivered on board the vessel at the time of departure, unless the Secretary of Labor certifies that such alien has been lawfully detained in the United States or has died or escaped: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 3. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines referred to in section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, paid, or provided for, and not then unless the master of the vessel has complied with the requirements of section 38 of said Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) That every alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Panama Canal Zone, or any insular possession of the United States (except Guam, Samoa, or the Virgin Islands of the United States), shall be required, before such vessel departs from the United States, to secure a certificate from the Secretary of Labor, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, stating that such alien seaman has complied with all the requirements of this section. Such certificate shall be issued to any such alien seaman who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is lawfully entitled to enter the United States, is not destined to a country in which he will be subject to persecution because of race, religion, or political opinions, and is not coming to the United States for the purpose of performing labor. Such certificate shall be granted only upon the production by such alien seaman of a valid passport and such other evidence as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such certificate shall be granted to any such alien seaman who is found upon examination by the United States immigration officer at the port of arrival to be entitled thereto, unless such alien seaman is afflicted with a contagious disease which would be detrimental to the public health, or is a stowaway, or has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or is a member of the anarchistic or other classes excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws of 1924, or unless the master or owner of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived refuses or fails to deposit the bond required by section 2 of the Seamen's Act of March 4, 1915, as amended by section 4 of the Act of March 4, 1923, or refuses or fails to pay the tax required by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1922, as amended by section 4 of the Act of March 4, 1923, or refuses or fails to pay the tax required by section 1

DEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's company, crew, and whom they were respectively shipped or engaged, and discharge those so to be hired on and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens, as the case may be, which lists shall be delivered by the master to the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized agent before any such alien shall be employed on such vessel, and before any such alien shall be allowed to land from the vessel. Every such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list of all such aliens employed on such vessel who were not employed at the time of the arrival but who may leave port thereon before the departure of the vessel from the last port at which such vessel touches before sailing for the United States, and before the departure of such vessel if such be the last port of departure from the United States for foreign countries. Such lists shall be prepared in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain the name in full of every such alien employed on such vessel, the last foreign port from which he came, the vessel on which he arrived, the date of his arrival, the port at which he landed, his sex, age, nationality, race, last occupation, the country of which he is a citizen or subject, the country to which he belongs, the final destination of every such alien, whether he has been in the United States previously, and if so, when and where, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether he has been assisted in coming by any person or corporation, society, or government, and if so, what the amount of such assistance was, whether he has any relatives in the United States, and if so, what relatives, whether he intends to return to the United States, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or an institution or hospital for the care of the insane or supported by charity, whether he is a polygamist, whether he is an anarchist, whether he believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, whether he is coming in pursuance of a previous promise, agreement, or solicitation, and whether he is connected with any institution or society, and which, and such other facts or particulars in regard to each alien so listed as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of each vessel shall also furnish to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the names of all aliens on board who are to be admitted to the United States, and the information required in respect to each of such aliens. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of each vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the names of all aliens on board who are to be admitted to the United States, and the information required in respect to each of such aliens. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of each vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the first port of arrival in the United States a list containing the names of all aliens on board who are to be admitted to the United States, and the information required in respect to each of such aliens.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of intention to do so administrative has prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

DEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the guidance of the immigrant inspectors, and every master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall be responsible for the deportation of any such alien from the United States.

DEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof having such seaman (whether immigrant or not) on board such vessel shall furnish the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and immediately before such vessel departs from such port, a complete list of all such seamen on board such vessel, stating their full names, ages, nationalities, last permanent residence, and such other facts concerning each such seaman as may be required by the Secretary of Labor to enable the immigration officer to determine whether such seaman is subject to be excluded from admission to the United States or to be deported hereunder. Such list shall be subject to the examination of any immigration officer at any time, and a true copy thereof shall be delivered by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to the immigration officer at the time of departure of such vessel from the United States. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who refuses to deliver such list or copy thereof to any immigration officer, or who fails to detain on board any alien seaman specified by any such officer, or who lands or permits to land any such seaman except as provided by this Act, or who refuses to return on board such vessel any such seaman specified by any such officer, or who fails to pay the cost of maintenance of any such seaman while detained under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to have such alien on board when such vessel departed from such port, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be liable to the penalty provided in subdivision (a) hereof, unless such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that due diligence was used by him or it to prevent the departure of such alien, or that such alien was not a member of the crew of such vessel, or that such alien was prevented from landing by reason of illness, quarantine, or other cause beyond the control of such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the time required for the usual method of travel between the United States and the country to which such seaman belongs, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or it has otherwise satisfactorily accounted to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a complete list of all the passengers who may be landed therefrom, which list shall contain the name of all persons who may be landed or who die on board, their sex, age, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether they can read or write, whether they have been in the United States previously and how long, whether they have a ticket through to their destination, whether their passage is paid by themselves or others, whether in possession of money and how much, whether in possession of a railroad ticket or ticket showing through connections, whether coming by reason of any offer, promise, agreement, or solicitation to labor in the United States, whether they are joining any relative or friend and, if so, what relative or friend and the name and complete address of such relative or friend, whether they have ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether they are connected with any institicution or society, whether they are coming for the purpose of joining any society or organization, whether they have been deported before and the reason therefor, whether they have a ticket through to the place they intend to go to, whether they are in possession of a return ticket, whether they have been in the United States before and when and where, whether they have been in any other country within six months and which country, whether they have been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether they are coming to the United States to avoid persecution on account of religious belief, whether they are coming to the United States to avoid military service, whether they are married or single, the age, sex, and relationship of those accompanying them, the height and complexion of each immigrant, the nearest living relative in the country whence he came, and whether he has ever been in the United States before, and if so, when, where, and how long he remained, and whether he has been deported or has ever applied for deportation, and if so, when and why, and whether he intends to return to the United States, and such other facts as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a complete list of all the passengers who may be landed therefrom, which list shall contain the names of all persons embarked on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, the names of all persons who may be landed or who die on board, and whether such deaths occur from accident or otherwise, and the cause thereof, and the names of all stowaways found on board before the vessel shall have left her last port of departure, and the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival shall be furnished with a list of all passengers who may have been transferred at sea to such vessel from any vessel which may be subject to the provisions of this act, and the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival information in writing concerning the sanitary condition of the vessel, the number of cases of contagious disease which have occurred on board during the voyage, and the names of the persons who have suffered therefrom, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse to furnish the information required by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 39. That the master, captain, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a true and correct manifest of all persons on board such vessel, which manifest shall be subject to the same inspection and examination by the immigrant inspectors as the passengers themselves, and no person shall be allowed to land from any such vessel until the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof shall have obtained from the immigrant inspector a permit stating that such person has been duly inspected and admitted, which permit shall be delivered to the collector of customs at the port of entry before a clearance for the vessel shall be granted. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the custody of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to any foreign port or place until the immigrant inspector has certified that all the provisions of this section have been complied with, which certificate shall be delivered to the collector of customs at the port of entry before a clearance for the vessel shall be granted. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel liable for head tax imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, [here been inserted, and] not then under bonds to the satisfaction of the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to that effect, or the certificate prescribed by section 38 of said act shall not have been issued, the deposit required by section 36 of said act shall have been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, to be certified by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival [and shall be deported to the country to which the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall be required to return such alien seaman, unless the Secretary of Labor shall in his discretion permit such alien seaman to land in the United States for the purpose of entering the service of some other vessel then in port and shall be certified to be in need of such seamen by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization at such port, and shall furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $500 for each alien seaman, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the departure of such alien seaman on a vessel needing such seaman within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, and upon the payment of the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and of his deportation in case he shall become a public charge, and upon the faithful performance by such alien seaman of the conditions of his bond].

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel when scheduled to depart any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has granted such alien seaman (whose inspection is not necessary in order to determine his admissibility to the United States) a certificate in writing that the case of such alien seaman has been reported to the Secretary of Labor, or who fails to deport on board such vessel such alien seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of her departure from the United States, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question or while any such alien seaman remains on board, but such clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front [that an alien seaman did not abscond upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from the Secretary of Labor that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman unless reimbursed by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived is impracticable or inadvisable, he may cause such alien seaman to be transferred to any vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ..... do declare that I have carefully prepared the foregoing list or manifest of all the persons who have been taken on board the said vessel at ..... and that the said list or manifest is in all respects true and correct, and contains the name of every person who has been taken on board the said vessel at any port or place, whether a citizen of the United States or not, and the cause of detention of each person who has been detained at any port or place; and I further declare that I have not, nor has any person to my knowledge or belief, destroyed or secreted any part of the said list or manifest or any copy thereof.

I have marked the copy of section 36 of the act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, act of May 26, 1924, marked as directed.

ALIien SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multiple departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall bring to the United States any alien who has been refused admission to all ports in the United States by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and who has been certified by the medical officer of the Public Health Service (hereinafter referred to as the "medical officer") to be afflicted with any contagious disease, or who shall bring to the United States any alien who has been certified by the medical officer to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien so brought, unless such alien shall be duly certified by the medical officer to be in transit through the United States to a foreign country and to be in no way a menace to the health of the people of the United States, and unless such alien shall be in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by section 2 of the immigration act of 1924, and a valid passport, if a passport is required by the rules and regulations issued thereunder, and unless such alien shall be in possession of a ticket or transportation warrant for his entire journey to a country other than the United States.

(b) Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital, to which removed at the time of arrival, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this act, and shall be deported as soon as practicable after the date of his arrival in the United States, and pending such deportation shall be detained on board vessel or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port.

The list described below must be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be delayed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 828) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of inspection.

When an attorney acquires a lien, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or commanding officer of the immediate transportation thereof from the port of arrival to the inspection officer at the port of arrival, and it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, commanding officer, or consignee of any such vessel to report the sanitary condition of the vessel, the sanitary history of the crew, the ports touched at during the voyage, the intended length of stay in port, and such other information relative to the vessel, its crew, and its passengers as may be required by the Secretary of the Treasury, and to produce the bill of health required by the regulations of the country from which the vessel sails, and to answer such questions relative to the vessel, its crew, and its passengers as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and to submit the crew and passengers to such medical examination as may be required by the Secretary of Labor at the port of arrival or at such other time or place as he may designate: Provided, That in the case of vessels touching at ports in foreign contiguous territory for the purpose of taking on board passengers destined to the United States, the medical examination of such passengers may be made by the medical officers of the United States at such foreign contiguous territory, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and certificates issued therefor by such officers, which certificates shall be accepted by the inspection officers at the ports of arrival in the United States in lieu of the medical examination provided for herein, except in cases where the medical officer at the port of arrival has reason to believe that the certificate was improperly issued or that the holder has developed or contracted a contagious disease subsequent to the date of the certificate, in which cases the alien may be subjected to such medical examination as may be deemed necessary: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause to be detained on board vessel or at the immigrant station, for the purpose of examination, any alien who is not in possession of an unexpired immigration visa, if required by section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or who is not in possession of a valid passport, if a passport be required by the rules governing the issuance of passports in force at the time of the alien's application for admission to the United States, or who is not in possession of a certificate from a consular officer of the United States, if such certificate be required by such rules

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival [and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel]. The list of aliens of alien immigrants of crews (Form 523) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an affidavit required is a "MOTHERWELL" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival [and customs officer at the port of arrival] manifests and such other documents pertaining to the persons carried in the vessel as may be required by rules or regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such manifests shall be made out and delivered before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers, and any master, agent, consignee, or owner who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such manifests or other documents, or who shall refuse to answer questions touching the same, or who shall make any false answer or statement in response to such questions, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Upon the refusal of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to deliver the manifests required, or upon the refusal to answer questions touching the same, or upon the making of any false statement in connection therewith, such vessel may be refused clearance by the collector of customs or other officer authorized to grant clearance, and may be detained until such manifests are delivered or such questions are answered, or such false statements are corrected, unless the master shall have satisfied the Secretary of Labor that he had no knowledge of the existence of such false statements and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained the existence thereof.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 8

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 36 have been furnished, and not then unless, before sailing, the master has delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge a correct list, prepared in accordance with the regulations, of all aliens employed on board the vessel, specifying the nationality, last permanent residence, and intended destination of each alien. Such list shall be verified by the master by his oath or affirmation administered by the collector of customs or his deputy, and shall be in substantially the following form:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew employed on board the ..... now in port, specifying the name of each person, his nationality, and his last permanent residence, and the intended destination of each alien who is not a citizen of the United States; that no person has been omitted from said list to secure for any person a certificate of clearance; that no person has been taken on board the said ..... at any foreign port or place except as stated in said list; that no person on board said ..... has been put under hatches or otherwise confined to prevent his coming on deck during the stay of said ..... in port; that I have not knowingly or willfully employed on board said ..... any person who is not a citizen of the United States, except as stated in said list

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens embarked on such vessel, earning the destination (city, town and state) to which they were respectively consigned, and showing what space in each compartment of the vessel has been assigned to each alien and what accommodations have been provided for him, which lists shall be subject to the inspection of the Secretary of Labor and his assistants, and shall be produced on demand of any such officer. Such officer shall be furnished by the master of any such vessel with a correct list of all such aliens who may be found thereon after the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port touched at, showing any additions to or changes in the original lists, the cause therefor, and the destination of each such alien. Any master who shall refuse to deliver to such immigration officer any list required by this section, or who shall refuse to furnish information in relation thereto when required so to do by such officer, or who shall refuse such officer access to the vessel for the purpose of examining the same, or who shall refuse or obstruct such officer in the performance of his duty in relation to such matters, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall knowingly and willfully refuse to allow any person to land from any vessel at any port in the United States, except as provided by law, or who shall knowingly and willfully land or attempt to land any person at any such port in any manner otherwise than as provided by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to report, make oath to, or give a certificate required by law in relation to any alien or seaman, or who shall refuse or neglect to perform any duty required of him by law in relation to the removal from the vessel of any alien or seaman, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain any alien or seaman required by law to be detained on board the vessel, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver any such alien or seaman to the officer entitled to demand such delivery at the time of such demand, shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such refusal or neglect, and shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien or seaman with respect to whom any such report, certificate, list, or information required of him by law is incorrectly made, and shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien or seaman who shall land or attempt to land in the United States from his vessel at any port in violation of law, and shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien or seaman who shall die on board such vessel before the inspection of such alien or seaman by the proper officer, unless the master shall report such death and produce the certificate of a medical officer of the United States, or, if there be no such officer at the port, the certificate of the health officer at the port of departure, or the certificate of the master, stating the cause of death, which certificate shall be sworn to by the master before a consular officer of the United States, if there be one at the port of departure, and if there be not, then before the chief officer of customs at the port of departure, if there be one, and if there be not, then before a United States immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, if there be one, and if there be not, then before the collector of customs at the port of arrival. Such certificate shall state the full name, age, and last residence of each such alien or seaman, and the cause of death of each such alien or seaman, as declared by the sick and injured when possible, and by the relatives or shipmates of the deceased when practicable, and as far as possible shall state the names and residences of the relatives, if any, of each such alien or seaman, and the port to which the vessel was bound and the intended destination of each such alien or seaman. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the proper officer the certificate required by this section shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such alien or seaman in respect to whom such certificate is not delivered, and no clearance shall be granted to any vessel while any penalty imposed by this section remains unpaid

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list or manifest of passengers required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival may be in the form prescribed by the master of the vessel, or by the owner or agent of the vessel, or by the transportation company upon which the vessel arrives at the port of arrival, but shall be signed by the master of the vessel before it is delivered to the immigration officer. Such list or manifest shall be prepared or verified by the master of the vessel himself, and shall contain the information required by the immigration laws and regulations of the United States to be stated in the list or manifest of each alien brought to the United States from a foreign port or place, whether such alien is a cabin passenger, a steerage passenger, or a member of the crew, and whether such alien is in immediate transit through the United States or not, or intends to land in the United States or not, or has a visa or not, or has been previously refused admission to the United States or not, or is going to some country other than the United States or not, or whether such alien is in possession of a ticket to a country other than the United States or not, or whether such alien has sufficient money or not to land in the United States, or whether such alien has been in the United States before or not, or whether such alien is coming for the purpose of labor or not, or whether such alien is an anarchist or not, or whether such alien is a polygamist or not, or whether such alien is a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character or who is a member of or affiliates with any society or body of persons teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any such officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character or who is a member of or affiliates with any society or body of persons teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any such officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, and all other information called for by the list or manifest. The list or manifest shall be prepared as directed by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, which list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and manner and contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and no such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall refuse to deliver such list or manifest or any part thereof or refuse to answer any question concerning the information contained therein, whether before, upon, or after the arrival of such vessel at such port, or refuse to permit any immigration officer to board such vessel for the purpose of examining such list or manifest, or refuse to detain such vessel for a period of one hour after the same shall have been requested by such immigration officer. Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any such vessel who shall refuse to comply with any of the requirements of this section shall pay a penalty of $300 for each and every such refusal, which penalty may be sued for and recovered by the United States of America in a civil action in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may arrive: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any penalty or portion thereof accruing under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, which list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in the form and manner and contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and no such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall refuse to deliver such list or manifest or any part thereof or refuse to answer any question concerning the information contained therein, whether before, upon, or after the arrival of such vessel at such port, or refuse to permit any immigration officer to board such vessel for the purpose of examining such list or manifest, or refuse to detain such vessel for a period of one hour after the same shall have been requested by such immigration officer. In making the said list or manifest, as soon as the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall have reason to believe that any alien on board is destined to the United States, he shall cause to be entered the name of such alien as directed by the Secretary of Labor, and before the departure of such vessel from the last port at which such alien may lawfully be detained for examination shall cause the name of such alien to be read to him from the list or manifest and shall record in such list or manifest the answer of such alien to each question so read. Such list or manifest shall be signed by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel and by the chief officer thereof, who shall take and subscribe an oath before the immigration officer at the port of arrival to the truth of the facts stated therein concerning each alien included therein. The master of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this section, or who shall refuse or neglect to take such oath, or who shall knowingly or willfully make false answer to any question touching the matters required to be stated in the list or manifest concerning any alien included therein, shall pay a penalty of $300 for each such refusal, neglect, or false answer, and may be arrested upon warrant issued upon complaint made by any immigrant inspector and tried before any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction in the district in which the vessel may arrive, and upon conviction shall be punished by such penalty, which shall be a lien upon the vessel, her tackle, furniture, apparel, boats, and cargo, and may be recovered by proceedings in rem in the name of the United States. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list or manifest required by section 36 hereof has been delivered, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel has been granted a certificate by the immigration officer at the port of arrival that the list or manifest has been delivered and that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel has complied with the requirements of this section. Such certificate shall be delivered by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to the customs officer granting clearance to such vessel, and in the event of the master's failure to deliver such certificate clearance may be refused or granted upon the payment of a penalty of $10 per day for not exceeding ten days, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, pending the delivery of such certificate.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation or detention of such alien, or pending the final determination of the case of any alien detained for special inquiry under the provisions of section 16 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or pending the removal of such alien on a vessel or otherwise.

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation or detention of such alien, or pending the final determination of the case of any alien detained for special inquiry under the provisions of section 16 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or pending the removal of such alien on a vessel or otherwise.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation or detention of such alien, or pending the final determination of the case of any alien detained for special inquiry under the provisions of section 16 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or pending the removal of such alien on a vessel or otherwise.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall not allow any alien to land from such vessel at any port in the United States, except in charge of the port of arrival due inspection officer, or pending the completion of the physical and mental examination by the medical officers, or after such alien has been certified to land by the proper immigration officer, or after such alien has been certified to land upon appeal, or while such alien is being taken before the proper immigration officer for examination, or while such alien is detained in the hospital, or after such alien has been certified to land by the Secretary of Labor, or while such alien is being taken directly and expeditiously to a railroad station or other place for departure from the United States under such rules as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe.

(b) Every such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien who has been certified to land upon appeal shall furnish such alien with a certificate in writing, stating that such alien has been certified to land upon appeal, and shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a complete list of such aliens in duplicate, which list shall contain the name, age, sex, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of each such alien. Such certificate shall be presented by such alien to the immigration officer at the place where such alien first applies for admission to the United States.

(c) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed, or in lieu of such fine, shall be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(d) Every such alien seaman shall be given a complete physical examination by the medical examiners, or such lists to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of such district upon the payment of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(e) Food shall be given seamen detained on board vessels as a quarantine measure at such rates as may be prescribed by the immigration officer in charge of the port, or by the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Any person who shall bring, or cause to be brought, into the United States any alien not admissible under the provisions of this act, or who shall bring or cause to be brought into the United States any alien for the purpose of concealing him from the proper immigration officers, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in pursuance of such purpose, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason of illness caused by such alien's employment on such vessel, he may cause such alien to be deported on another vessel, and the cost of such deportation shall be a lien upon the vessel on which such alien arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such lien is discharged.

(h) Section 35 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, and masters, and as to all seamen, arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this act.

If the list presented before shall be incorrect in any particular, the master will be required to report the fact, with the name of the person, to the Department of Labor at Washington, D. C., or to the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival, before the immigrant is landed, under penalty of $100 for each failure so to report.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That the provisions of this Act relating to the payment of the head tax shall not apply to the alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who returns to the United States from a temporary visit abroad, unless solely or partly on account of the proceeds of such head tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 19. That no alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel in the service of the United States unless he shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States at least three years prior to the date of his employment, if such declaration can be made by him under the laws of the country to which he belongs, and unless he has resided in the United States for the three years next preceding the date of his last entry into the United States, and has sailed on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least two years subsequent to the date of his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and unless he has obtained from the Department of Labor a certificate of identification, which certificate shall be issued by the Department of Labor under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, upon the production by such alien seaman of his certificate of declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and such other proofs of his identity and citizenship as may be required by such rules and regulations. Such certificate of identification shall be prima facie evidence in favor of the alien seaman named therein in any proceeding before any court of the United States affecting the right of such alien seaman to land in the United States, and shall be conclusive evidence in favor of such alien seaman in any proceeding before any executive officer of the United States affecting the right of such alien seaman to land in the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cancel any certificate of identification issued under the provisions of this section upon the application of the master or owner of the vessel on which the alien seaman named therein was employed, or for any other reason deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor: Provided further, That no alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel after the commencement of the term of his certificate of identification unless he shall have complied with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the renewal of such certificates of identification: Provided further, That no certificate of identification shall be granted to any alien seaman who has been employed on board any vessel during the war with Germany, unless such alien seaman shall have served on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least one year subsequent to the declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirement of the one year's service on board of vessels of the United States in the case of any alien seaman who has served on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least two years subsequent to the declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and who has been honorably discharged from the service of the United States.

SEC. 20. That no alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel in the service of the United States unless he shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any alien seaman employed on board any vessel in the service of the United States during the present war with Germany, or to any alien seaman employed on board any vessel in the service of the United States which shall be employed exclusively in trade between ports of the United States and ports of the Philippine Islands, or between ports of the Philippine Islands, or between ports of the Philippine Islands and ports of the United States.

SEC. 21. That no alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel in the service of the United States unless he shall have served on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least three years prior to the date of his employment, or unless he shall have served for a like period on board of vessels of countries which, during the present war with Germany, have been or shall be allies of the United States in said war, and unless he shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States at least one year prior to the date of his employment, if such declaration can be made by him under the laws of the country to which he belongs, and unless he has resided in the United States for the three years next preceding the date of his last entry into the United States, and has obtained from the Department of Labor a certificate of identification, which certificate shall be issued by the Department of Labor under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, upon the production by such alien seaman of his certificate of declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and such other proofs of his identity and citizenship as may be required by such rules and regulations. Such certificate of identification shall be prima facie evidence in favor of the alien seaman named therein in any proceeding before any court of the United States affecting the right of such alien seaman to land in the United States, and shall be conclusive evidence in favor of such alien seaman in any proceeding before any executive officer of the United States affecting the right of such alien seaman to land in the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cancel any certificate of identification issued under the provisions of this section upon the application of the master or owner of the vessel on which the alien seaman named therein was employed, or for any other reason deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor: Provided further, That no alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel after the commencement of the term of his certificate of identification unless he shall have complied with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the renewal of such certificates of identification: Provided further, That no certificate of identification shall be granted to any alien seaman who has been employed on board any vessel during the war with Germany, unless such alien seaman shall have served on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least one year subsequent to the declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirement of the one year's service on board of vessels of the United States in the case of any alien seaman who has served on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least two years subsequent to the declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and who has been honorably discharged from the service of the United States.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section, no alien shall be admitted to the United States unless he is in possession of a valid immigration visa or, if he is a non-quota immigrant, of a valid nonquota immigration visa.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall by regulations limit or suspend the issuance of immigration visas or the admission of aliens to the United States, he may except therefrom or from such limitation or suspension, for such time as he may deem to be consistent with the public interests, any classes of aliens who are immigrants solely or chiefly for the purpose of entering the United States for a temporary period and then departing therefrom, or who are seamen regularly employed on vessels arriving at ports of the United States and who intend to land temporarily and solely in pursuance of their employment, or who are entitled to enter the United States solely in pursuance of a treaty granting such privilege, or who are bona fide alien visitors entering solely for pleasure, instruction, or temporary visit for business, or who are persons entering solely to carry on trade under and in pursuance of the provisions of a present existing treaty of commerce between the United States and the foreign state of which they are citizens or subjects, or who are students entering solely to attend such accredited schools, colleges, seminaries, academies, universities, or public libraries as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, or who are aliens entering solely to carry on such vocation as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, or who are the wives or children under eighteen years of age of any of the foregoing classes of aliens, or who are aliens entering solely to join a husband or parent who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who is possessed of sufficient means or has a definite job to support the wife or minor children, if such wife or children are in possession of valid immigration visas, or who are aliens entering solely to avoid persecution on account of race, religion, or political opinion by reason of existing conditions in the country from which they are coming, or who are aliens entering solely to prevent the separation of families by reason of existing conditions in the country from which they are coming, or who are aliens entering solely to continue a course of study or training in the United States, or who are aliens entering solely to practice their professions or engage in their occupations for a period not exceeding six months, or who are aliens entering solely as members of the crew of a vessel arriving at a port of the United States, or who are aliens entering solely in transit through the United States, or who are aliens lawfully admitted to the United States who depart therefrom temporarily for business or pleasure, or who are aliens entering the United States solely as bona fide representatives of the press of foreign countries, or who are aliens entering solely to engage in the business of a foreign commercial agency, or who are aliens entering solely to represent a commercial organization established in the United States for the purpose of promoting trade between the United States and foreign countries, or who are aliens entering solely to represent a religious organization established in the United States, or who are aliens entering solely to represent a philanthropic organization established in the United States, or who are aliens entering solely to represent a foreign government or to be officials thereof, or who are aliens entering solely to represent an international organization of which the United States is a member by treaty or law, or who are the husband, wife, or children under eighteen years of age of any such alien, or who are attendants, servants, or employees of any such alien: Provided, That the admission to the United States of any alien excepted under this subdivision shall be subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe to protect the interests of the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien entering the United States solely or partly in pursuance of the privileges granted by subdivision (b) of this section is not a bona fide visitor, seaman, representative, or other person entitled to the privileges granted by such subdivision, he may, at any time within one year after such alien's entry, cause such alien to be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at any time prior to the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, and such alien shall be deported as an immigrant in violation of law unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, within such time, not exceeding one year, as the Secretary of Labor may deem necessary, that he is entitled to remain in the United States or that he departed therefrom within the time prescribed.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no alien shall be admitted to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is not excluded from admission by any of the provisions of this Act.

(e) Any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as an immigrant in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall be so deported without regard to the provisions of section 3 of this Act.

(f) The Secretary of Labor shall not admit to the United States any alien seaman who has been employed on board any vessel during the war with Germany, unless such alien seaman shall have served on board of vessels of the United States for a period of at least one year subsequent to the declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and who has been honorably discharged from the service of the United States.

The Act to prevent the importation of persons for the purpose of prostitution, approved March 3, 1903, provides that the decision of the Commissioner of Immigration, subject to appeal to the Secretary of Labor, as to the right of any person to land in the United States, shall be final as to all persons other than citizens of the United States.

It will be necessary, therefore, for masters of vessels bringing aliens to the United States to see that they are provided with such certificates, visés, or other papers as may be required by the immigration laws and rules made in pursuance thereof.
